Ed Burt left on Monday for a visit to Portland.

Mrs. Geo. Wood left on Monday for a visit in Portland.

Dr. C. A. Macrum, of Portland, spent last Saturday at the ranch.

J. K. McGregor was a business visitor at the county seat on Monday.

Mr. Pickering and wife were visiting in Portland the first of the week.

The Misses Bertha Booth and Lucilla Brackett visited in Hood River last Friday evening.

W. E. Chown and wife and E. N. Stroup and wife visited in Portland the first of the week.

Mrs. J. P. Hunter, of Portland, visited this week with her brothers, John and R. M. Ross.

Mrs. F. W. DeBussey and little son are visiting this week with Mrs. C. A. Frey, at Greenwood.

Don Littlepage, who has been ill with typhoid fever at his home at Grand View, is now convalescent.

Mrs. J. E. Cole and children left on Friday last for Portland, where she will have her eyes treated.

Mrs. G. H. Page, who returned from California about a week ago, was recalled to Los Angeles very hastily on Monday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of her brother.

W. H. Huffines has erected a building on the lot in the rear of the barber shop, which he will use as a carpenter and cabinet shop. Mr. Huffines is making a specialty of mission furniture.

On Saturday night, Oct. 29, Rev. S. W. Bettes will lecture in the Baptist Church on his cowboy experiences. No admission, but a collection will be taken for the benefit of the Ladies Aid Society.

Miss Annie Robinson arrived last Saturday from Brooklyn, N. Y., to visit a few days with her mother, Dr. D. Robinson and wife. From here Miss Robinson goes as a missionary nurse to Southern China.

Rev. S. W. Bettes, the cowboy preacher, delivered a temperance lecture in the Baptist Church, last Sunday night, which was strong and to the point. Last Sunday was the day set apart all over the state for the preaching of temperance sermons to further efforts of the Prohibitionists to put Oregon dry this Fall. The Rev. Bettes is a forceful speaker and made many good points in his discourse.

The town of Milwaukie, Oregon, is in Clackamas county. It can only receive 5-cent fares by becoming a part of Multnomah county, and then being annexed to Portland. Five-cent fares mean increased population and very greatly enhanced land values. If left to the people of that part of Clackamas county they would sweep it into Portland and thereby change their farms into town lots.

There are strong hopes that the O. R. & N. Co. will soon pass the order along to grade the lower ends of Main and Washington streets, where they cross the right of way to the depot. At least one of the railroad officials intimated such the other day when he stopped off here about 30 seconds. This work is imperative and should be done before bad weather sets in, so that the O. R. & N.'s passengers need not wade thru mud or stumble over rocks in coming from the depot up to the town.

Go to the Mosier Lumber Co. for your sash, doors, screens etc.

G. Wm. Johnson was a business visitor at Bridal Veil on Monday.

Miss Lucy Mullins, of Hood River, spent Sunday and Monday in town with friends.

Mrs. J. E. Higley and little daughter were over-Sunday guests of her sister in Portland.

Mrs. Ed. L. Howe was a passenger on Tuesday's local for Portland, returning home yesterday.

W. H. Cook was a passenger on yesterday morning's local for Portland.

Eric Nord and family, of Stevenson, Wash., are here visiting relatives and friends.

J. T. Davenport spent last Saturday and Sunday at Odell with his sister, Mrs. R. H. Kemp.

In a fire at Shaniko last week, one man lost his life and the property loss was estimated at $40,000.

C. G. Stoltz, of Greenwood, and J. A. Cooley his brother-in-law, of Norwalk, Iowa, were pleasant callers at the Bulletin office on Tuesday last.

C. G. Stoltz and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Cooley returned Monday evening from a few days' visit at Portland.

Julia Ward Howe, the noted author and philanthropist, died last Monday at her summer home in Middletown, R. I., aged 91 years.

Why ruin your eyes with a poor light? Buy a Wonder and give your home a good light. Your friends will appreciate it as well as yourself.

C. E. Gove, and Mr. and Mrs. Laraway, parents of Mrs. Amy L. Gove, came up from Hood River last Saturday night and spent Sunday visiting the latter.

Rev. Kelly, pastor of the Baptist Church of White Salmon, will preach in the Baptist Church here next Sunday, Oct. 23d, morning and evening. Everybody is cordially invited to these services.

Mrs. Amy L. Gove was taken suddenly ill last Sunday morning and on Monday was taken to her home at Hood River. She returned Wednesday evening and resumed her duties in the school room Thursday morning.

W. A. Husbards is erecting a house on his lot north of Amos Root's residence. Mr. Husbards is forced to give possession of his present residence, as it was recently purchased by Ernest Evans from Leo Root.

The weather has been ideal this week—Indian summer. The apple pickers are making good use of it, but there has been a shortage of boxes. The same conditions prevail at Hood River and elsewhere, as the apple crop is larger than usual.

The Mosier Lumber Co. can fill your orders for lime, cement, brick and plaster.

County Clerk F. R. Angle was down from The Dalles last Saturday shaking hands with the boys and receiving assurance of their hearty support at the polls next month. Frank feels that it is not too grasping to ask for a second term as county clerk and, as he has served the county most satisfactorily the past two years, we predict that his smiling countenance will be seen in the court house another two years, altho his opponent on the democratic ticket, Geo. Ross, has many friends and is a good man.

School Notes

Arta and Carroll Cole were absent this week.

Blanche and Robert Ross were absent Monday.

Evert Fraedrick was tardy Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Gove is absent this week owing to illness. During her absence the primary pupils are having a forenoon session and the higher grade work is being conducted in the afternoon by Miss Booth.

The eighth, ninth and tenth grades have moved into the new room upstairs; and the intermediate grades have moved up stairs, in the room formerly occupied by the higher grades. The old room down stairs will be fitted up for a playroom and luncheon room during the winter months.

October Strawberries Ripe

F. E. House is hot after the Hood River strawberry record, not being satisfied with bringing in the first local berries to market last spring, he coaxed the plants to ripen some of the luscious fruit the other day and as a result Hood River strawberries were on the menu at the Hotel Oregon Monday. Last spring Mr. House brought in nine boxes which were the first in the market and were served at the same hotel and the other day he surprised people by having the berries in marketable quantities.—Glacier.

Mashes Fingers in Cider Mill

While investigating the mysteries of a new cider mill at Chown's store, and with a desire to "see the wheels go round," Shelley Hudson, the young son of D. W. Hudson, came to grief last Friday evening. His fingers were caught in the cog wheels and badly mashed. Dr. Robinson dressed the injured hand and Shelley is recovering nicely. He will no doubt "take it for granted" next time.

Mrs. A. Stewart's many friends will be pained to know that her condition is very little, if any improved and will sympathize with her and her husband in her long continued illness.

Death Of "Bobbie" Ross

Robert Fessenden Ross, the only son of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Ross, died at The Dalles Hospital Tuesday afternoon of this week, from injuries sustained on the afternoon of September 24th. The details of the accident were given in these columns at the time, but nothing has been said of the brave fight the little fellow made, or the constant care, tender nursing and the best medical and surgical skill that could be secured, or the agonizing prayers of the stricken parents and relatives, who were constantly at his bedside, or the sympathy and anxiety of the entire population of Mosier, among whom Bobbie was a great favorite. Bulletins of the little fellow's condition were asked for daily and hopes for his eventual recovery were entertained by many even up to the morning before the end came.

The body was brought from The Dalles Wednesday afternoon and on Thursday morning at 9:30 short services were held at the residence, conducted by Rev. A. C. Corbin, pastor of the Christian Church, of Mosier, and Rev. D. V. Poling, of the Congregational Church, of The Dalles. This morning the remains were taken to Portland for cremation.

Those who accompanied the remains to Portland besides the family were Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosier and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor.

A number of floral offerings were sent by friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Ross have the deepest sympathy of all in their great sorrow.

Newspaper Rights

There are some men who have peculiar ideas about a newspaper. They regard it not as a business but as a convenience. If the paper reaches them late or fails to give every item of news, or its conduct toward them is in a manner they do not like they then very properly make a business matter of it because they bargained for something they are not getting. They make these issues every day in the year except the first day when the business idea is forgotten, and the only thing uppermost is a plea to get out of paying what they honestly owe the paper.

These same men will meet the newspaper man with a smile, offer him a drink or cigar and then ask him to say in his paper that he is the most enterprising and progressive citizen. That's their idea of business.

Now, the newspaper is a business. It is not a glory making machine. It can no more live on sentiment than its employees. It may surprise you but type-setters don't work for nothing, and no amount of persuasion will make them do it. It's true you may owe $1 for a year's back subscription, yet if 3,000 or 4,000 reason like you—that we collect the news for the fun of it, printers work all night just to print it for you, the paper mill gives us our paper just because it wants to see us do well, the machinery men give us our machinery for the same reason—then it becomes a different matter. Instead of $1 worth of glory it is $86 cash each week for help and supplies.—News, Montgomery, W. Va.

Thomas Lelliott returned on Wednesday from Salem, where he has been working with the telephone crew.
