Queer Laundry Package.
 It is not uncommon for laundries to receive rings and other valuables with the soiled linen from their customers, but they seldom make such a discovery as one which has been made at Fulham, England. When a basket of linen was received from the country a few days ago the sorters were alarmed to see the upheaval of the contents and hear a plaintive cry. The linen was removed, and a black cat was found beneath.

Discontent and Progress.
 The pessimist who refuses to believe in any advance is quite as wrong as the optimist who denies that there is any necessity for a forward movement. Now, as always, discontent is a duty, for it is condition precedent to progress. It is not discontent that throws the dynamite bomb; it is despair.—Brander Matthews.

Quality counts, and quality has made my shoes what they are—The Leaders of the World. THANK GIVING RECOLLECTIONS
 When the winds of bleak November
 Down the chimney moan and sigh,
 Stirring into life each ember
 Till the flames roar fierce and high
 Then my thoughts revert to boyhood,
 When Thanksgiving Day drew nigh.
 In the flames I see the farmhouse,
 And the woodland brown and serene
 Where the sportsman's rifle echoed
 As that day of days drew near.
 Scenes which ever shall be cherished
 In the burning logs appear.
 I can see the deep old cellar
 Where the apple bins, piled high,
 Overshadowed heaps of pumpkins
 Golden as the sunset sky,
 And the casks of new fall cider
 Stood along the wall close by.
 As the old-time scenes are fading
 While the fire slowly dies,
 Visions of a groaning table
 Are presented to my eyes,
 And I almost scent the fragrance
 Of the mince and pumpkin pies.

KEEPING THE FEAST
 TRUE MEANING OF LESSON OF THANKSGIVING.
 Should Be Time of Rejoicing for All, Those Who Have Abundance Sharing With Their Less Fortunate Brethren.

The sober joyfulness of the first New England Thanksgiving did not exhaust itself in a single day. Governor Bradford after the first scanty harvest made deliberate provision for three days' feasting and rejoicing, during which the infant colony entertained more than its own number of visiting Indians. It is true that these guests contributed venison for the feast, as they had earlier contributed corn for the use of the colony, but the heart of the feast was in the hospitality which made them welcome.

It would be hard to imagine a greater contrast than that which would have existed between the sober garb and quiet manners of the Pilgrims, schooled in persecution and privation, and the fanatic dress and unrestrained impulses of Massachusetts and his people. The Indian could be dignified enough upon occasion, but his unceremonious self-indulgence even more than the colonists' hospitable unbending was the sign of an unusual confidence. That mutual confidence and good understanding, to the continuance of which these days of Thanksgiving and feasting evidently contributed not a little, procured those necessary years of peace and security which enabled the weakness of the Pilgrim colony to harden into strength.

We call Thanksgiving day especially a home festival, and its associations are most delightful in family reunions and home pleasures. Yet the precedent of Plymouth hospitality has never been and never ought to be neglected. It is a time when those who are blessed with home joys take pleasure in sharing them with the homeless. Families enlarge themselves to include not only the scattered next of kin, but those also who are far from their own home circle. A touch of the blessed spirit of home joy and mutual helpfulness stretches beyond the limits of the family to include those for whom the day would otherwise be lonelier than other days for privation of home companionships.

This gracious hospitality of the Thanksgiving season brings home memories to many guests. It ought to have its teachings for many others—young men and women in our towns who dream of homes yet to be earned, or realized—in keeping them in touch with the true home spirit. There is no selfishness in true home love. It is not merely as a refuge for ourselves that we build the walls and lay the hearth and kindle the fire and spread the table. To gain a

 We thank Thee for the heroes of the quiet ways, When no man knoweth, but who live thy praise, The silent heroes in the ways forgot.
 We praise Thee that no brother lives enslaved, Free hearts, free homes; eyes, let thanksgiving rise, The end of strife—the soldier's duty done, The rich reward—the joys of freedom won, Thank God ye people, for the gift of peace.

A Costly Pet.
 A year or so ago a Montana boy captured a young squirrel and took him home and made a pet of him. The little animal was given free range of the house and secured contentment, and his owner was several times offered $2 for him. A few days ago a roll of $100 was missed, and, after a long hunt, it was found that the squirrel had torn the bills to pieces to make a nest of. He was a tried squirrel next day.

 "When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. A Portrait of Charles Anthon.
 His outward personality was unique and impressive. He was a trifle under the average height, erect as an Indian and inclining to portliness. His head was superb and his features strong and finely cut. He was punctiliously neat in his dress, the style of which was never varied. A short sack coat hung straight from his ample shoulders, merging in front into a black satin vest and a pair of spotless linen trousers, relieved only by a very small gold pin, the whole surmounted by a black satin stock and a high standing collar with rounded corners.—Columbia Quarterly.

With more than half the vote in the state counted, Oswald West leads Jay Bowerman in the contest for governor by more than 1,800, and apparently the estimate made at first indications that West had been elected by a plurality of 3,000 to 4,000 will be borne out by the final count.
 The expectations aroused by the early count as to West's plurality in Multnomah county have not been fulfilled. Later returns partly closed the gap between the two, but Bowerman apparently has no hope of carrying the county. West will have about 1,000 plurality in Multnomah. The figures given indicate 129 of the 182 precincts in the county, where the count has been completed, and fair percentages of the vote cast in all other counties but Columbia, Curry, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Sherman and Wheeler.
 With returns in covering fully 80 per cent of the vote cast on the home rule liquor amendment to the constitution, the measure has a majority in the state of 3,335. The remaining returns will cut this majority down considerably, but the amendment, if carried, will have a small majority, possibly not more than 1,000.
 The state at large, outside of Multnomah county, has given a substantial vote against the amendment, but Multnomah's majority for it of 5,000 seems to have turned back the tide.
 Elections under the local option law were held in 15 counties in Oregon at the time of the general election and the reports received therefrom indicate that five, and possibly six, counties now dry have gone over to the "wet" column.
 The "dry" counties known to have voted "wet" are Morrow, Klamath, Umatilla, Malheur and Polk, and reports indicate that Tillamook, now a "dry" county, has also voted to restore the sale of liquor.
 It is known that Douglas county has again voted against the saloons and linn remains dry by a majority of more than 500. Clackamas, now "wet," has refused to change its policy. Josephine county, now "dry," has given a majority of only 12 against the sale of liquor, but it is reported a contest will be entered in the effort to throw out the vote in one dry precinct on account of alleged irregularities.
 Coos, now "wet," it is reported, has voted to oust the liquor dealers, but the report could not be confirmed.
 Lake county remains "wet" by a majority of about 60.
 Of the 32 initiative and referendum measures submitted to the voters in the recent election, seven are known to have been approved, practically all doubt has been removed as to the approval of the eighth—the presidential primary bill—while a ninth measure, the county tax amendment, is still in doubt.

OLD SOLDIER WISHES TO HELP SUFFERERS FROM KIDNEY, LIVER AND BLADDER TROUBLES.

I am frequently troubled with kidney and bladder trouble, especially in the Spring and Fall. Being an old Veteran of the Civil War, a little exposure of cold settles on my kidneys, and then I am laid up with kidney or bladder trouble. My Swamp-Root was recommended to me a number of years ago, and I took a number of bottles of it, and was more than pleased with the results. I consider Swamp-Root the greatest and best kidney medicine on the market and it never fails to give quick results in kidney trouble, bladder trouble and lame back.
 Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has done me so much good that I feel it my duty to relieve any poor sufferers, that you are at liberty to use this letter as you see fit.
 Yours very truly,

 CELEBRATED
 PASTEUR'S REVENGE.
 In that one of the hundred best "Vallery-Radot's" "Life of Pasteur" we read the story of his misery. It is nothing to say that the war nearly broke his heart. But it broke neither his faith nor the straight line of his work. Only a sort of rage possessed him to redeem and console France by working for her. "Henceforth," he said, "every one of my books shall have written on it these words, Revenge, revenge, revenge." And this was his revenge, to set the name of France in the honor list of science higher than ever; to give the rest of his life to her service, and to wear himself out for her sake.
