The entertainment given at the Christian Church on Christmas eve was a very interesting one. There were a number of declamations, recitations, songs, etc., rendered by the little folks of the Bible School classes, besides music furnished by the choir, which was good. One of the main features of the program was the male quartette which gave some especially fine selections. A tastefully decorated tree occupied a conspicuous place and was the center of much attraction for the youngsters, and after the program came the treat for them. Candy and oranges were dealt out liberally to all. While the crowd was not large all present enjoyed themselves royally.

The person who stops the editor on the street to tell him that he has been or is going away; that he contemplates building or is going to get married; that his wife will entertain company, has entertained friends, or perchance has presented him with an heir; or any other readable news item is considered the salt of the earth and he is too. Would that every town had more such obliging individuals, then would our local columns be full of everything that our patrons desire to know. We would be equally as well pleased to have our farmer friends inform us of their company. If anything happens in your neighborhood do not be afraid to stop us on the street and let us know.—Ex.

Littlepage-Nelsen Nuptials

A simple, but very pretty home wedding took place on December 23d at the new residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage at Grand View, when their daughter May was united in marriage to Mr. Henry Nelsen, of Roseburg.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the bride, on her father's arm, entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Marjorie Hurlburt, a cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. Corbin, pastor of the Christian Church of Mosier, the ring service being used.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white and carried white carnations. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Oregon grape. The couple received many handsome and expensive presents.

The occasion was a particularly happy one, it being the 25th wedding anniversary of the parents of the bride, who were also well remembered by their friends in the way of numerous pieces of silverware.

The groom is in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Co., and for the present the happy couple will make their home at Roseburg.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hurlburt and Miss Marjorie Hurlburt, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Heslin, of Fairview, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kaerth, of Dallas.

Mr. Berkner and Mr. Clark, of Lincoln, Neb., are Mosier prospective buyers this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Young, of Husum, Wash., are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Young, this week.

Pleasing Entertainment

School District No. 8 held their annual Christmas tree and entertainment Thursday evening, Dec. 22d. The beautiful Christmas decorations of green and red, and a large tree glittering with candles and ornaments, and bountifully loaded with gifts, added much to the pleasure of the occasion. A program consisting of songs and recitations was rendered by the pupils. The program was closed by a little playlet entitled "Santa Claus at Home", all the pupils taking part.

Miss Radliff deserves great praise for the able manner in which she arranged the program and trained the pupils who took part. The scholars in rendering their songs and recitations showed that they had devoted much time and attention to perfecting themselves in the parts assigned to them.

The pupils desire to thank Miss Radliff for the beautiful tree and pretty gifts. Those attending also thank Miss Radliff and the pupils of the school for a very pleasant evening's entertainment.

Mrs. D. Robinson is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. E. U. Philips, at Portland.

Roy Edmiston went to Beaverton Wednesday where he will probably remain some time.

Geo. Wright, accompanied by Misses Kent and Bohem, were visitors at White Salmon yesterday.

Mrs. J. K. McGregor spent several days at Hood River this week attending the Masonic and U. E. S. installations.

FIGURING

Figuring, figuring every day— Figuring how our bills to pay, Wages low and living high, 'Tis scrimp and scrape—'tis that or die.

'Tis true, my William takes a glass; I try to smile and let it pass.

The days of ceaseless toil and care, I cannot scold him—'tis not fair, Just once a month I try and go To see a moving picture show,

And take our tots—they love it so, The poor man's friend—the picture show.

When William brings his pay to me And casts it down upon my knee, I've rosy dreams of what I'll do,

I count it once—they vanish, too, And so it goes from day to day, I just keep figuring how to pay.
