OUR PORTLAND LETTER

Portland, Ore., Mar. 7. (Special) —Booster spirit ran high at the biennial dinner of the Portland Commercial Club the past week when the continuation of the Promotion Committee work was discussed. The accomplishments of the past two years were recounted and new enthusiasm gained for the future. The dinner brought together 370 prominent business men of Portland and a Greater Oregon and a United Pacific Northwest were pledged by the speakers.

Telegrams were read from James J. Hill, Judge Robert S. Lovett, Louis W. Hill, Theodore B. Wilcox, Howard Elliott, and others in which encouragement was given for the work accomplished. Speeches were full of optimism. C. C. Chapman, George F. Johnson and others told of the progress of the work. President Stevens of the Hill lines in Oregon urged further promotion work and it was decided to raise $200,000 for publicity during the coming two years.

Manager Chapman of the Promotion Committee laid special stress upon the Oregon Development League work and told of the splendid spirit shown throughout the state. The sentiment of all was that this co-operation should be maintained and all Oregon should be boosted, rather than any other section. Portland must grow with the Northwest rather than ahead of it.

Driving of last spikes on new railroads is a favorite festivity for Oregonians this year. The latest road to hold a celebration is the Grants Pass & Rogue River, which has just started a line of 30 miles from Grants Pass to southern Josephine county where the celebrated caves are located. The first or silver spike was driven at Grants Pass during the week and a demonstration by the Commercial Club and the people of the city and surrounding country accompanied it.

Oregon dairymen will probably receive considerable benefit from the dairy dinner at the Commercial Club March 9, when methods to aid the industry will be discussed and means suggested to help foster it and encourage those engaged in it. Dairymen, state officials, members of the health boards and experts from the Oregon Agricultural College will attend and in the interchange of ideas how best to develop dairying, much of value may be expected.

The Fat Stock Show of the Pacific Northwest Livestock Association at the Portland Stockyards March 20, 21, 22 will attract a great deal of attention from cattlemen and stock raisers. Indications are that a large number of people will attend the show and special rates of one and one-third fare have been made from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Northern California for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale March 16 to 22, return limit March 20 to 24. The premium list is out and provides for the exhibition of cattle, horses, sheep and hogs, with liberal prizes for winning stock. There is no admission fee whatever, nor is there an entry charge for animals exhibited.

Believing that Central Oregon offers unusual inducements to the hog raiser, the traffic department of the Harriman lines will make special efforts to aid the farmers in that region in the development of the industry. Special literature on the subject will be issued and distributed to interest the men on the soil in the production of more hogs. The book has been compiled by D. O. Lively, manager of the Portland Union Stockyards and a practical livestock man. It will be distributed widely throughout the state and particularly in the interior.

BLOCK SYSTEM TELLING

Report for 1910 Received by Local Agents Show No Fatalities. 17,960 Miles Covered. Anti-Accident Crusade Effective

Installation of safety devices and the block signal system are cited for the record of the Harriman railroads in carrying 49,491,000 passengers in 1910 without sacrificing a single life.

The report was compiled in the office of Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance and operation, Chicago. It covers the business of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and affiliated roads, a total of 17,960 miles. The total number of passengers carried on a mile basis is 3,000,000,000.

The Harriman system carried 10 per cent of the estimated 1910 passenger traffic. The figures for most of the other railroads have not yet been compiled by the Government, but in 1909 the number of passengers carried was 29,000,000,000. The figures for 1910, it is said, will not exceed a billion more.

Many other railroads have gone through a year without a fatality to any of its passengers, but it is said that no system has made this record for such a large total of passengers.

Results of the Harriman lines are ascribed to a campaign waged by the management for years to reduce accidents. The Harriman system now has more miles of automatic block signal protection than any other system in the world. Mr. Kruttschnitt has directed special attention to the accident problem, and began several years ago to bring about a reduction by giving complete publicity to all forms of accidents and their investigation, which, it is believed, spurred officers and employes to greater efforts to safeguard lives.

In 1903-1904 the number of accidents on the Union Pacific was 20 for 1,000,000 locomotive miles. On the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific the number of accidents per 1,000,000 locomotive miles was reduced from 29.5 to 10.5 in the same time.
