Death of G. Wm. Johnson

Again is it our painful duty to chronicle the death of one of our citizens, for once more has the Grim Reaper entered our midst, this time snatching from a happy home the husband and father.

Gustav William Johnson was born in Vestervik, Sweden, February 16, 1862, and died in Mosier, Oregon, March 6, 1911, at the age of 49 years and 20 days. At the age of 20 he left his native land and came to America, rounding Cape Horn and landing in Astoria. He remained there for a time and in August 1885 came to Mosier, settling on a ranch near this place, which, until last fall, has been his home. At that time, he, with his family, moved into town that the children might be nearer school. On December 24, 1895, he was united in marriage to Miss Bertha Weberg, of The Dalles. To them were born five children, three of whom have preceded the father to the Great Beyond, two, Albert, aged nine, and Thelma, aged four, are left with the wife to mourn his loss. Besides these he leaves his father and mother, three brothers and three sisters.

Deceased had been in poor health for some time but only recently was his condition considered serious. His case was a peculiar one and baffled the efforts of the doctors. Though all was done that skilled physicians and loving hands could do to prolong his life, it was not to be, his work on earth was finished, and he gradually became weaker until the end came about three o'clock last Monday morning, in the silent watches of the night.

Mr. Johnson was a man who was held in high esteem throughout this county, where he had spent so many years of his life, and numerous are the friends who will miss him. He was of a retiring disposition, ever attending to his own business and caring for the wants of his family. His kindly and sympathetic nature won him a host of friends and on every side is he spoken of in words of praise.

The funeral services were conducted in the Christian Church on Wednesday afternoon and were in charge of the M. W. of A., of which order deceased was a member. Rev. Bolton, pastor of the Lutheran Church, of The Dalles, delivered the sermon, and interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

The sorrowing wife and little children, who will never know the care of a kind and loving father, have the sincere sympathy of all in their hour of trouble.
