OUR PORTLAND LETTER

Portland, Ore., Mar. 28, (Special) - Portland gained considerable prestige as a livestock market from the recent Fat Stock show held here.

Livestock men, the Commercial Club and the railroads contributed to the prizes and they brought out a large number of splendid exhibits.

Oregon's Naval Militia will get the Cruiser Boston for use in training the members in the ways of the navy.

North Plains is one of Oregon's newest towns and one of the first things it did was to organize a commercial club and line up with the progressive spirit now so noticeable throughout the state.

Oregon is getting its full share of the colonists who are crowding the westbound trains.

Oregon postmasters will hold the annual convention in Portland June 7, 8, and 9.

Cove, the beautiful and thrifty fruit growing city of the Grande Ronde Valley, has taken steps to organize a commercial club.

Prompt Payment - That the Modern Woodmen of America take pride in the fact that they meet all death claims with the least possible delay is proven by the promptness with which they paid the insurance policy carried by the late Wm. Johnson.

Guy Wilson visited in Hood River yesterday.

Geo. Chamberlain and C. J. Fredrickson were visitors at The Dalles yesterday.

E. N. Stroop came up from Portland the first of the week and spent a day with his family.

R. G. Weisbeck and family, of Addy, Wash., are occupying rooms over A. Stewart's store.

Boots and Coffee

In Germany, in the eighteenth century, two afterward common things were regarded as great luxuries. A man who wore boots instead of shoes ran the risk of being regarded as a fop, and a coffee drinker incurred the reproach of prodigality and gluttony.

Dalles-Mosier Road to be opened Soon

According to The Dalles Chronicle, the road from there to Mosier, along the Columbia river, is fast nearing completion and is already attracting automobilists.

"We made the trip by automobile over the new road, which is completed to a point about a mile east of Mosier. We were the first to pass over it in an auto.

"The road leads from the end of the old O. R. & N. railroad grade and zig-zags around the hillsides until you reach the top of the mountain. From that place the view is a glorious one.

"This new road is certainly an acquisition for local autoists. It will be finished into Mosier in two or three weeks. I understand that a prominent local farmer is planning to put up a summer resort at the top of the hill."

ANOTHER ADDITION

To the already up-to-date business equipment of the MOSIER VALLEY BANK has been made.

We have completed arrangements whereby we are enabled to issue directly over our counter Foreign Drafts on almost every country in the civilized world.
