Household Remedy

Taken in the Spring for Years.

Ralph Rust. Willis, Mich., writes: "Hood's Sarsaparilla has been a household remedy in our home as long as I can remember. I have taken it in the spring for several years. It has no equal for cleansing the blood and expelling the humors that accumulate during the winter. Being a farmer and exposed to bad weather, my system is often affected, and I often take Hood's Sarsaparilla with good results."

Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to Itself. There is no "just as good."

Fine Winter Vegetable.

We are only just now beginning to have skirrets in our market. This vegetable is an Asiatic one, being known to China and India. It has been a favorite in Europe and especially in Paris for 25 years, and has tuberous clustered roots, very white and sweet, and when served with butter they are delicious. It is a most desirable winter vegetable.

MISTAKES OF SCIENTISTS

Faraday and Airy Made Errors About Submarine Cable and Newsome About Aeroplanes.

Sir Humphrey Davy's dogmatic pronouncement against gas lighting is not the only instance of a clever scientist being hopelessly wrong. The early history of submarine cabling furnishes two striking examples. Consulted on the scientific side of the project, Faraday asserted that the first cables were made too small. Then he said that "the larger the wire, the more electricity would be required to charge it;" and in this quite wrong opinion he was supported by other eminent electricians. As a result of his dictum the current was increased until the operation literally "electrocuted" the wire and the cable broke down. It was Lord Kelvin who by sending messages through heavy cables with incredibly weak electric currents proved that Faraday was mistaken.

Sir G. B. Airy submitted the project to mathematics and arrived at the conclusion that a cable could not be submerged to the necessary depth and that if it could no recognizable signal could ever travel from Ireland to Nova Scotia. In aviation Professor Newcomb, one of the cleverest mathematicians America has produced who died last year, declared that he had matematically investigated all the conditions operating against the heavier than air machine and was convinced that the aeroplane would never be more than a scientific toy; and the possibility of an aeroplane motor being reliable in the reduced atmosphere pressure above 3,000 feet was by several experts said to be out of the question a few months ago. Drexel's carbureter was certainly a bit erratic above the clouds last week, but he rose to an altitude of 6750 feet.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

EYE NOT PATRIOTIC ENOUGH

Oculist's Second Attempt Procures for Him Decoration From Haitien Emperor.

During the reign of Emperor Soufougue in Haiti one of his generals wrote to an eminent oculist in Paris ordering a glass eye. The oculist flattered himself that a successfully constructed artificial optic would secure for him a decoration of honor by the Hatian government; accordingly, he devoted his entire skill to the production of a work of art.

Six months after the shipment of the eye to Haiti, the oculist received a small box from Haiti. In his imagination he pictured the golden testimonial to his skill, so it was with horror that, when he had unwound the folds of cotton in the box, he saw returned his work of art. A letter accompanied the box. Among other things it said:

"The eye you have forwarded me is of a tint that resembles that of the Spanish flag, and I am too patriotic to wear any but the color of my country."

Whereupon the oculist proceeded at once to the admiralty, where he ascertained the colors of the Haitian flag. He then immediately manufactured a scarlet and green eye, of the approved shades, and forwarded it to the emperor, who was much pleased with the effort and who duly decorated the oculist.

The Ruins of Yucatan.

There is in Yucatan a chain of ruins three hundred miles long where once stood buildings richly decorated and erected with a vast amount of architectural knowledge. The buildings belong to the Stone Age, when the figures were carved with pieces of flint. The people of this age had not the use of either bronze or iron.

For Poor Actresses.

Old Colliery Closed.

Tranent colliery, Haddingtonshire, from which coal has been taken for nearly 700 years, was closed recently. For many years women went down the mines at Tranent and worked with the men. One or two old women who were formerly engaged in the mines are still living in the district.—London Daily Mail.

Babies Chew Tobacco.

Eskimo babies, it is alleged, are seldom weaned before the fourth or fifth year, but are taught to chew tobacco and to swallow the juice even as early as the ninth month. The customs—general with both sexes—of inhaling tobacco smoke and swallowing tobacco juice seem to be of no recent growth. No evil results of either practice seem to be apparent.—Medical Times.

Poetic Apprentice.

A grocer's apprentice addicted to poetry has summoned his employer, a rich merchant of Ougitsa, Servia, for unlawful dismissal. The merchant explained that his customers left because the boy answered all questions in rhyme and detained people while he fixed meter and verse. Moreover, he greeted his employer with a new couplet every day. The court found the merchant justified and advised the apprentice to mend his ways.—Belgrade Cor. Pall Mall Gazette.

To Purify Water.

To purify water sprinkle a tablespoonful of pulverized alum into a hogshead of water (the water to be stirred at the same time). It will after a few hours, by precipitating to the bottom the impure particles, so purify the water that it will be found to possess nearly all the freshness and clearness of spring water. A pailful containing four gallons may be purified by a teaspoonful of alum.—National Magazine.

Hamilton's Genius.

Men give me credit for genius. All the genius I have lies just in this—When I have a subject in hand, I study it profoundly. Day and night it is before me. I explore it in all its bearings. My mind becomes pervaded with it. Then the effort which I make, the people are pleased to call it the fruit of genius. It is the fruit of labor and thought.—Alexander Hamilton.

Of Course.

A man in a near-by town fell down the cellar steps the other day with a barrel of apples on top of him. He broke his left leg, his right arm, two ribs, his nose, one finger, cut his scalp, sprained his ankle and put his shoulder out of joint. But he didn't groan or cuss until his wife inquired if it "hurt him." Then he did both.

ARMY HAS SHOWN PREPAREDNESS

War Department Officials Satisfied With Maneuvers.

Practice in Going to and From Philippines Has Taught Troops How to Move Quickly.

Washington, April 3.—Aside from the diplomatic significance and other considerations involved, the movement of troops to Texas is regarded by the War department officials as having demonstrated the preparedness of the army.

Detailed reports of the movement of camp conditions are coming in daily.

"It is evident," said General Wood, chief of staff, today, "that the experience which the American troops have gained in recent years in the government movements to and from the Philippines has taught them how to move and to move quickly.

According to the reports of Major-General Carter from the headquarters of the maneuver division at San Antonio, the whole movement has produced nothing but satisfaction as a military situation. The ease with which the movement has been carried out and the absence of confusion, it is said, are attributable distinctly to the lessons learned during the Spanish-American war. In 1898, all the requisitions came after the arrival of the troops, and some of them never reached the troops for which they were intended.

On the movement toward the Mexican border the troops took their own supplies with them. All the officers had their equipment ready as though in time of war. Under the new regulations, the baggage which they carried is limited, whereas in 1898 it littered the fields and camps. The enlisted men carried their shelter tents, blankets, towels, combs and brushs, tooth brushes and soap and everything was ready for their comfort within a short time after detraining.

Before the maneuver orders were issued, it was optional with the enlisted men whether they would submit to inoculation against typhoid. About 25 per cent of them submitted of their own will. But troops participating in the Texas event have been inoculated against the disease which demanded so man victims in the fever camps of the Spanish war period. All the Texas troops have also been vaccinated against smallpox.

The men have been trained to reject water of a suspicious character and facilities for boiling are being arranged. Extensive experimentation has developed new forms of sanitary sinks and new methods of incineration. Patented devices prevent the carrying of infection by flies and the messrooms and kitchens are carefully screened. As a result, health conditions are reported excellent.

"Experience of the camp," reports General Carter, "may indicate an increase of men and a decrease of equipment. But in any event it is a very business-like unit and one which needs only be multiplied to make a worthy and useful army. The best of spirit pervades the entire command."

BARS UP ON MEAT TRUST.

Australia and New Zealand Consider Precautionary Measures.

Victoria, B. C.—Fearing the American meat trust's entrance into Australia, the authorities are considering regulations to cope with the invasion, according to advices brought by the Makura. The Australian prime minister said that, although no action had yet been taken, such powers as the commonwealth possessed would be used to prevent the meat trust from securing control of Australia's supply. Sir Joseph Ward, premier of New Zealand, who arrived on the Mukura, said the New Zealand govenment was fully alive to the efforts of the beef trust and would not have its system adopted by any organization in New Zealand.

Italians Called to Act.

Chicago—With the confession of one "Black Hand" agent, the announcement of another conspiracy against a government official, James E. Stuart, postoffice inspector, and spurred on by the long list of recent "Black Hand" crimes, the Italian people themselves threaten to put a stop to the lawlessness. A reflection of the views of many Chicago Italians is seen in an article which appeard in L'Italia, the leading newspaper in Chicago, which says the Italians must act to preserve their own self-respect.

Socialist Elected Mayor,

Berkeley, Cal.—For the first time in the history of California a Socialist was elected mayor of a city in this state, when J. Stitt Wilson, one of the most prominent Socialists on the Pacific Coast, defeated Beverly Hodghead, the Republican incumbent, by a plurality of 284 for mayor of Berkeley.

Wilson received 2,750 votes and Hodghead 2,466. Wilson was the Socialist candidate for governor last November. He was formerly a minister of the gospel.

"The Mill" Will Come to America.

London—The nation's option on Rembrandt's painting, "The Mill," expired Saturday night when only a small fund had been raised to purchase the picture, and therefore it will go to an American. The painting is owned by Lord Lansdowne. He was tendered $500,000 for it by an American, but offered to let it stay in this country if the people would raise $475,000 for its purchase. This they have failed to do.

Moorish Rebels Win Victory.

Fez, Morocco—The rebel Benictir tribesmen have defeated a government force, killing 20 soldiers and wounding 50. This rebel success has resulted in several other tribes, which hitherto had been neutral, joining the revolt.

WHERE WOMEN ARE BANNED

No Female of Any Sort Has Been Allowed on Mount Athos for Many Centuries.

For centuries past, Duke Max zu Sachsen informs us, women have not been allowed on the Turkish peninsula. Even female animals are prohibited. Condensed milk is imported from Switzerland, so that the eyes of the inhabitants may not be offended by the sight of a cow.

The peninsula is Mount Athos, and its inhabitants are the members of 20 monasteries, which have existed there since the days when Christian emperors held rule at Constantinople and gave laws to all Europe. For 1,400 or 1,500 years, let us say, no woman has trodden the ground of Mount Athos.

A vast quantity of art treasures and precious manuscripts has been stored in the monasteries, but for the most part their contents and even their character remained entirely unknown.—Tit-Bits.

Rather Read Than Be King.

If anybody would make me the greatest king that ever lived, with palaces and gardens, and fine dinners, and wine and coaches, and beautiful clothes, and hundreds of servants, on condition that I would not read books, I would not be a king—I would rather be a poor man in a garret with plenty of books, than a king who did not love reading.—Macaulay.

Perforated Stamps.

Perforated sheets of postage stamps were unknown six decades ago. Until the year 1854 postage stamps were issued in sheets which the purchaser had to cut up in any way he found convenient. The perforating machine was invented by an Irishman named Archer. When it was submitted to the British government the treasury offered him $3,000 for his patent rights. As Archer had spent over four years in perfecting his machine, this offer was indignantly rejected. Eventually Archer was awarded $20,000.

Beef bone broth and good, sound food are served in warm, well-aired rooms to the half a hundred or so dogs in the British dogs' hotel, near Southampton, where the board of agriculture takes care for a certain length of time of all dogs brought into Britain, so as to make sure that hydrophobia does not creep in.

Rise in Russian Lakes.

During the last 20 years the lakes of Russian Central Asia have shown a steady rise of water-level. Within this period, or since 1885, the Sea of Aral has risen about six and a half feet. The phenomenon has accompanied a period of agumentation of rainfall.

FLOATING ISLAND FOUND

Queer Discovery Made by the Crew of the Bark Atlas in the Pacific Ocean.

The crew of the bark Atlas, which arrived in Seattle recently after rounding the Horn from Philadelphia, reports a queer discovery for one day of the 138 of her voyage. She had been out many days without seeing anything—only three ships were seen on the entire trip—when one morning in the Pacific the lookout reported that he had sighted land off the port bow where no land was supposed to be. Nor could any be found on the charts.

It seemed low in the water, but too much like the real thing to be a mirage, so the captain ran toward it. It proved to be land, right enough; an island covered with trees and thick low underbrush. Birds and a few monkeys were seen upon it, but no other signs of life. These precluded the possibility of the island being of volcanic origin, and leads the captain to claim it as a floating island. He believes that it was washed out to sea from delta of the Rio de la Plata or the Negro, and that the undergrowth was so thick that its roots held the whole together.

As he saw two trees tumble into the water from the island's edge before he sailed away his theory appears to be somewhat substantiated.

Noble Ideal.

In the effort to appreciate various forms of greatness, let us not underestimate the value of a simply good life.
