

LOCAL

A FEW of Mosier farmers having land for sale have selected L. H. Leininger, a pioneer farmer of Mosier, as their agent to bring their land to the notice of the public. We have upwards of 1500 acres, mostly small farms at bargains, all within the Mosier fruit belt. Address L. H. Leininger, Mosier, Or. J204m

FOR SALE OR TRADE
40 acres raw land 8 miles south of Mosier. 30 acres can be cultivated, some young timber, ravine running through it.

LUMBER FOR SALE.
The Hammond Lumber Company of White Salmon, Wash., will sell dimension lumber, fir and pine, delivered on the beach at either the Mosier or Betcham's landing, for $13 per thousand feet. Parties intending to build will find it to their advantage to consult J. M. DENNY, at Mosier, Oregon.

D. D. Hail visited in Portland this week.

R. M. Ross was a passenger on Wednesday morning's local for Portland.

Mrs. C. J. Smith, of Portland, is here this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Cole.

F. R. Chown and wife of Portland are here visiting their son, W. E. Chown, and family.

Roy Stokes came up from Estacada yesterday, going back home this morning.

C. A. Frey was in town last Monday from his fruit ranch in the Greenwood neighborhood.

J. H. Reeves and wife, of Ortley, spent a few hours in town last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. P. Hunter, of Portland, is here this week visiting her brothers, Robert M. and John Ross, and their families.

R. W. Simpson returned Tuesday from The Dalles, where he purchased a tract of isolated land adjoining his homestead.

G. E. Wilson spent a couple of days in town the first of the week, from his homestead in the southern part of the district.

Miss Helen Bauer, of Portland, is visiting her mother and brother at their home on Mosier Creek.

Don A. Cole came up from Portland last Friday and visited Saturday and Sunday with his mother, J. E. Cole.

Mrs. Godberson went to The Dalles on Tuesday to make arrangements for final proof on her homestead south of town.

Quite a number of local Woodmen attended the state convention of Modern Woodmen of America, held in Hood River on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Nelson, of Eugene, arrived in Mosier last Sunday and will visit several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage, at Grand View.

Geo. W. Kleiser, wife and son, Dr. Hicks C. Fenton, wife and two children, and Jas. Thompson and wife, came up from Portland last Friday evening and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCargar until Sunday evening.

Frank Conlee brought into our office this week some ripe strawberries, grown on Ira Rowland's place across the river. They were picked on April 25th. Mr. Rowland has shipped a few berries already, but the picking season will not open until Monday.

SYLVIA McGUIRE COMING
On Monday night, next, Sylvia W. McGuire, the noted elocutionist, will give a recital at Stroup's Hall, commencing at 8 o'clock. It is seldom that talent of this high order favors such small towns as Mosier, as Mrs. McGuire's services are in constant demand in the larger towns and cities. We believe, however, that there are enough people in Mosier and vicinity who like to be well entertained and who can appreciate good elocution, to fill the house on Monday night. If there are any who have not had any opportunity like this, we advise them to take advantage of it.

Mrs. McGuire will be assisted by the best local talent in vocal and instrumental music, which alone is worth the price of admission, which is placed far below the price generally charged for entertainments of this kind.

Mrs. McGuire appeared in Hood River during the Winter and the Hood River News said of her:
"The large audience which greeted Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire at the Christian Church expressed their appreciation of the program given by this talented reader. Wherever she appears her audiences feel that they have heard the very best, and look forward to the time when they may hear her again. Every number on the program was thoroughly enjoyed, tho she excels in her faithful delineation of darkey life in the Sunny South."

Mrs. McGuire's theme Monday night will be "Echoes from Dixie Land."

Admission, Adults, 35 cents; children, 25 cents.

All school children selling six or more adult tickets each will be given a free ticket. Tickets may also be purchased at the bank.

Ortley Items.

Mr. C. C. Smith, of Portland, was seen on our streets last Friday with several prospective purchasers of Mosier View Orchard land.

Mr. Spaulding of Minneapolis, Minn., was a visitor here last week, purchasing Tract No. 30 of the platted orchard land.

Mrs. Hudson and daughter of Portland, were here last Friday. Mrs. Hudson has purchased Tract No. 2 of Mosier View land.

Messrs. Youmas, Armstrong, Prof. Lawrence, and W. H. Walton of the Hood River News, were visitors at Ortley last Friday.

John Carroll, who recently underwent an operation at Hood River for appendicitis, returned home last Monday. Mr. Carroll's condition is quite satisfactory, according to his physicians, tho he is, of course, still very weak.

Mr. Stanley Watt, of Ericsburg, Minnesota, is visiting his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eastman, at Fairmont Park. Mr. Watt will be joined by his wife in a short time and they will spend the summer here and may make this their future home.

The Christian Church was well filled last Sunday night by Odd Fellows and the general public, to hear the well delivered sermon of Rev. K. H. Sickafosse, the occasion being the 92nd anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in America. Members of the local lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs attended in a body, marching in regalia from their hall to the church.
