As the election of a director should be a matter of censideration and judgment, it is urgently desired that the school voters of the district turn out in full force and select one among them who will take as much interest in the welfare of the school as the outgoing director, Mr. Geo. Wood, has always done. It is taken for granted that every parent has a lively interest in our institution of learning, but there may be some well qualified in every respect who do not care to accept such a thankless position. While we do not say a man has no right to refuse, for personal or open to the general welfare of others reasons, to fill such a Mosier, the Rev. K. El.
