Pinning the blame.

A girl nine years old at Bremen, Germany, swallowed 40 pins and thus killed herself. For two weeks no one could think of any reason why she should have done it, and then some one said that it was because she had attended a moving picture show, and the proprietor of the place was arrested and fined $25. If the girl's father had swallowed a fatiron and died they would probably have sent the mayor of the city to jail.

A Deep Pennsylvania Well.

Reaching the depth of 10,289 feet the diamond drill at the bore hole of the Locust Gap and Klumpum Water company at Ashland broke through a ledge of flinty rock which proved to be the roof of a mysterious subterranean cavern or waterway. Soundings have proved the water to have a depth of more than 80 fathoms.

Took Offense.

"What made that woman crazy?" "It happened to step on her train." "Well?" "Then I raised my hat politely and said: 'Excuse me, madam, your equilibrium is dragging,' and she lost her temper."

Bad for the Boys.

During a spring thunderstorm in Orange county, N. Y., a flock of crows numbering 83 sought the same tree for shelter. It was struck by lightning and 79 of the birds killed. There are not more than a dozen crows left in the county, and what the boys are going to throw stones at this summer is a puzzle. They'll have to coax the crows in from some other county or give up the fun of pecking.

Too Joyous.

A grocer in Charlotte, Mich., put a can of beans in his window and offered a pair of roller skates to the one who could guess the exact number. A lad named Willis Hines hit it exactly and got the skates, but he felt so elated over his good luck that he fell dead on his way home. The doctor said it was a case of being too joyous. If the boy had got a licking instead of the skates he would have lived on.

About Peas.

I planted beans expecting peas to blossom there in May; the funny papers have a wheeze that things turn out that way. But where I planted beans, I find that only beans have grown. There is no doubt that things turn out sometimes as they are sown.—Washington Herald.

Duck's Immunity to Snake Poison.

Experiments by MM. Billard and Maubiant, recorded in the "Comptes Rendus" of the Biological Society of Paris, shows that the common duck exhibits a remarkable indifference to the venom of the viper. They also find that the owl is similarly immune. Two of these, badly bitten on the feet, did not seem much worse. M. Billard also finds that the domestic cat has almost complete immunity as regards the viper.

Not So Bad as He Seemed.

A curious incident occurred at a children's matinee in a Moscow theater lately. The actor who played the villain of the piece was so distressed by the horror with which the little spectators viewed him that, notwithstanding the protests of the manager, he pulled off his wig and false beard, and begged the audience to believe that he was only pretending to be wicked.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken.

Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

House Party is Fatal.

Nantucket, Mass.—Two young women, Helen Wilson, of New York City, and Mildred DeHaven, of Brooklyn, and one man, Ulysses Pahud, lost their lives in a fire which destroyed a boathouse owned by William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the New York Republic state committee. Several other persons were injured, among them Thomas Kerr, of New York City.

Libel Cases Fall Flat.

Seattle—Judge Wilson R. Gay, in the Criminal Department of the Superior Court has announced that he would instruct the prosecuting attorney to dismiss the criminal libel prosecutions begun against the Seattle Post-Intelligencer at the instance of the Times, and against the Times at the instance of the Post-Intelligencer.

The judge said he would not sanction waste of the county's money for the purpose of avenging private grievances.

Smuggled Cloth Seized.

San Francisco—Evidences of the operations of a gang of woolen goods smugglers with an international organization has been discovered, when customs inspectors seized a consignment of 66 bolts of woolen goods valued at $10,000 on the German Cosmos line steamer Seraphis.

For weeks the customs authorities have had intimations that a gang was in existence for the importation of dutiable woolen goods and other stable fabrics from Germany.

HARRIMAN MERGER IS UPHELD

Pacific Coast Roads Not Actual Competitors.

No Changes in Rates Made—Neglect to Secure Santa Fe is Proof.

St. Louis—The Government's petition to enjoin the Northern Pacific railroad continuing to control the Southern Pacific railroad was dismissed by the United States Circuit Court of the eighth district. Judge Elber B. Adams wrote the majority opinion, which was concurred in by Judge Sanborn and former Judge, now Supreme Court Justice Vandevanter. Judge William C. Hook wrote a dissenting opinion.

The decree was entered at Salt Lake City, where the suit was filed in February, 1908, and the opinions handed down in St. Paul, Salt Lake City and here.

Judge Adams found that the railroad merger, engineered by the late E. H. Harriman and his associates in 1901 and subsequently, did not amount to a direct and substantial restraint of trade, interstate or international.

He found that the suppression of competition between the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific was so infinitesimally small that it was unimportant. In connection with this feature of the decision, Judge Adams cited the recent Standard Oil decision, in which the rule of reason was first laid down by the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Hook, in his dissenting opinion, said the majority opinion "so greatly narrows the act of congress that very little is left of it when applied to railroads," and that under the tests which the majority opinion "the Union Pacific would be purchased control of all the great railway systems in the United States."

Judge Adams prefaced his opinion with the statement that the Government must prove that the restraint in trade alleged in the bill was substantial in character as the direct and immediate effect of the combination. The Government, he said, later, failed to prove this.

Care of the Attic.

Few attics are called, but if they are not light the walls and the beams should be treated to a coat of white paint or whitewash. Once a month the floor should be swept. The windows should be washed three or four times a year. Twice a year there should be a campaign waged against moth, roaches and possible bedbugs, as well as against larger vermin.

Scandinavian Courtship.

It was considered beneath the dignity of a Scandinavian warrior to court his bride by gallantry and submission; he always waited until she had bestowed her affections on another and was in her way to the marriage ceremony, then collecting his faithful followers they fell upon the wedding party and carried away the bride. It was much in favor of this practice that marriages were always celebrated at night.

Need for Women Architects.

It is a practically accepted axiom that there are too few women architects, for, if there is one subject more than another in which woman's talent is required, it is domestic architecture.—From the Queen.

Don't cringe—don't flinch, Should fortune pinch And all seem lost; With might and main, TRY, TRY again At any cost.

MUNYON.

I AM taking the above text for the reason that I want to instill into the people self-reliance, self-nobility, self-sovereignty. I want every person to feel that they are equal with wealth, softness, jealousy, envy or revenge. I want the person who is pinched by poverty, who has suffered great reverses, who is weighted down with some great sorrow to become active. I want him to take hope as a companion, as a consolation, as a medicine, for hope is the beautiful. It fills our souls with songs and our tongues with praise. A hopeful one must be well, and to be well one must be hopeful.

Suicide a Private Affair.

Los Angeles—"Suicide is a private affair. There is no more justification for the publication of such accounts than there is for publishing other private matters."

This is the assertion of a committee of the American Academy of Medicine, which investigated the question of suicide, and in making its report here requested the press of America to refrain from further publication of such affairs.

From the Storehouse of the Eyes.

Eyes are bold as lions, roving, running, leaping here and there, far and near. They speak all languages; they wait for no introduction; they are no Englishmen; ask no leave of age or rank; they respect neither poverty nor riches, neither learning nor power, nor virtue, nor sin, but intrude, and come again, and go through and through you in a moment of time. What inundation of life and thought is discharged from one soul into another through them!—Emerson: "Conduct of Life."

Ideas in Education.

"The entire system of education, both here and in America, seems to require reconstruction from bottom to top; it would be well, if I may say so, if we could scrap the whole wretched academic show and start afresh, in order that it may be greatly improved in quality and shortened in duration. Two ideals should be kept in view—no should be the development of individuality and encouragement of productivity."—Professor Armstrong.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right" when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Borrowed Bridal Finery.

In Norway every parish house has a set of ornaments for the temporary use of the bride, including a showy coronal and girle, so that the poorest women in the land appeared for one day in their life in a costume which they probably thought equal to that of a queen. The museum of national antiquities at Copenhagen contains a number of such sets of bridal decorations, which were at one time used in Denmark.
