Rev. J. R. Hargreaves will preach in the Immanuel Church next Sunday morning at 11:15.

BORN: In Mosier, on Saturday July 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Middleswart, of Parkdale, a daughter.

Mosierites visiting in Hood River last Saturday were Mrs. Bliss and Miss Lurline Feller.

Geo. Sturgess came up from Portland last Saturday and spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. E. N. Strop came up from Portland last Monday and spent the day visiting friends.

J. E. Cole and family returned Friday evening from Portland, where Mrs. Cole had been under a physician's care.

Mrs. Anna McLane returned last week from a delightful trip of six weeks, spent in the Hawaiian Islands.

E. Jacobson and family, of The Dalles, spent a couple of days here on their Rock Creek ranch, the first of the week.

Wm. Coverett was up from Hood River last Saturday evening buying supplies for his camp, on upper Hood River. Mr. Coverett informs us that he had just closed a contract for $3,000 to clear a tract of land in the Hood River neighborhood. Billy is a rascal and if any one can make enough money on a clearing contract to buy shoes for the baby, he is the man.

J. Sendlinger had on exhibition in town this week some strawberries which for size and flavor equal anything we've seen this season. They were Clark Seedlings and were raised at an altitude of 2000 feet. One measured six inches in circumference. Mr. Sendlinger has only a family patch as yet, but his success with these proves that strawberries raised commercially on his place would net him a handsome income as they would come into market after the main crop was gone.

Mayerda's was the scene of a lively company on the night of July 4, when Mark Mayer entertained a number of his Mosier friends with music, refreshments and a fine display of fireworks. The house and grounds were decorated with the national colors, flowers and Chinese lanterns. The pyrotechnic display was elaborate and beautiful. Mr. Mayer is a royal entertainer and delights in giving pleasure to his guests.

Grand View Celebrates

A sane and altogether delightful 4th of July picnic was participated in by a number of Grand View residents.

The place selected for the picnic is a cool shady spot on what is known as the Blunger place, near a large spring and within sound of a tiny waterfall.

Flags and bunting were in evidence, target shooting and games of various kinds were indulged in, patriotic airs were rendered, canned variety, while hammocks, cushions and rugs contributed to the comfort of all.

And when it came to the eating time, well, lack of time and space prevented the enumeration of what there was to eat, suffice it to say that there was a great variety, everything was delicious and there was plenty of it. The only apparent reason that the long table had for not "groaning under its weight of good things," was that it had been very strongly built of two inch planks.

When the sun was low in the West, the picnickers wended their way homeward, happy and content in the thought of having spent the day in a simple, quiet and restful way and in congenial company.

Mrs. Anna McLane, who has been night operator at the station for over a year, left yesterday for Blalock, where she has a position as day operator. Mrs. McLane has made many friends in Mosier who will regret her departure and who will welcome her whenever she returns. Being interested in Mosier and the people she leaves behind, Mrs. McLane will have the consolation derived from reading the BULLETIN every week, which some people consider "next thing to a letter from home."

Local Operator Up Against Serious Charges.

J. R. Wheaton, the young telegraph operator who came to Mosier about seven weeks ago as a substitute while the regular night operator was away on a vacation, was arrested in Wyeth last week, where he went after being relieved from duty here. The charges against him were receiving and disposing of stolen goods, and of sending obscene letters thru the mail. He will be tried on the latter charge first.

It appears that Wheaton had a "pal" at Canby, Ore., who stole the goods, chiefly suits of clothes, and sent them here to Mosier where Wheaton would sell them at a "bargain."

Ed Wood, the O. W. R. & N. detective, secured the evidence against Wheaton in the matter of the stolen goods, thru his pal, L. F. Short, who also turned over the incriminating letters which formed the basis for the more serious charges.

Wheaton was taken to Portland to await trial in the Federal court.

F. H. Howard and wife, of Hood River, were in town yesterday.

Miss Priscilla Foster arrived from Portland last night and will visit for a fortnight with her sister, Mrs. H. G. Kibbee.

Going Some

Until some one comes forward with a better record for the year 1910, the Manning orchard, now owned by the Hood River Mineral Springs Company, holds the apple record for the year. Off the Red Creek Pippin section of the orchard, Mr. Manning secured returns at the rate of $2023.24 per acre after the commission for handling had been paid.—Hood River News.

The ball game between Belmont and the local bunch on Sunday last resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 6 to 5. There was lots of hard hitting by both teams, but fast fielding held the score down. Olsen, for the local bunch, pitched good ball, as did Thomas for the Belmont club and had it not been for the poor base-running of our boys the score would have been different. The brand of ball put up by both teams was good, considering the condition of the grounds, which made it nearly impossible to field a ball cleanly. The feature of the game was the base running of Clay Harvey, for Mosier, who ran from home plate to first base in 12 1/2 seconds flat, being remarkable because he did it every time he was at bat. Following is the score:
R. H. E. R. H. E.
Belmont--6-11-6--Mosier--5-10-5
Batteries--Belmont-Elliott and Thomas; Mosier--Olsen and Arthur.
