Mosier Will Clean up

The 23rd day of August has been set aside for Mosier's annual (we say it with shame) clean-up day. While there are always some citizens with sufficient personal and civic pride to keep their yards, front and back, and their fence corners, clean, there are many more who do not take the same view and are willing to let 'er go as she looks, which doesn't look very good, especially to strangers who happen to walk thru the town.

We believe the ladies have been asked to serve dinner to the workers, or those who furnish help, and the idea is to make a holiday of it and have a right good time besides accomplishing much in improving the appearance of the town.

A number of people from the country have signified their willingness to help, even offering their teams. This is very much appreciated. Certainly, if the people from out of town take such an interest in us, we in the town should make an effort to accomplish as much as possible on this day.

We would suggest that each resident make a point to gather all the rubbish around his premises and put into boxes and barrels, so that the teams can call and cart it away. This is a chance to get rid of all that trash that has been accumulating so long and looking so unsightly (and possibly smelling worse.) Of course the public will see that the streets are cleaned up, that all the litter thrown into the public thoroughfares is gathered up and put out of sight; but, unless the individual digs the dirt from his own yard, he can't expect those working on the streets to do it for him.

A Warning to Hunters

The open season for hunting deer as well as for a number of animals and game birds, began August 1, and State Forester F. A. Elliott has his ear to the ground for reports of forest fires started through the carelessness of hunters. Every year a great many fires are caused by sportsmen leaving their campfires unextinguished, and thoughtlessly dropping lighted matches, cigars and cigarettes as they travel through the forest in pursuit of game.

It will probably be news to many of the people of Oregon to learn the Forest Fire Law, which went into effect February 24, empowers the Governor to declare a closed season for the shooting of wild birds and animals of any kind. The law covering this point is as follows: "Whenever, or wherever, during an open season for the hunting of any kind of game in this State, it shall appear to the Governor upon the showing of the State Forester that by reason of extreme drought the use of firearms or fire by hunters is liable to cause forest fires, he may by proclamation, suspend the open season and make it a closed season for the shooting of wild birds and animals of any kind for such time as he may designate, and during the time so designated all provisions of law relating to closed seasons for game shall be in force."

"It is, of course, not my intention to urge the enforcement of these provisions unless it becomes absolutely necessary in order to prevent destruction of forest property," said Forester Elliott in commenting upon the above extract. "Whether any action is taken depends entirely upon the behavior of the hunters themselves. However, just as soon as this office receives reports that fires are being started through the carelessness of hunters, I shall immediately present the facts to the Governor and recommend that a closed season be proclaimed. The Governor is heartily in favor of this plan and has assured me that he stands ready to issue such proclamation should conditions warrant it. This matter, as I see it, is entirely in the hands of the hunters, for as long as they exercise this precaution while in the forest I will, of course, have no reason for taking action. It would be an excellent plan for every hunter to familiarize himself with the Oregon Forest Fire Law, copies of which will be sent upon application to this office."

OUR PORTLAND LETTER

Portland, Or., Aug. 8 (Special) Big delegates from all of the states will gather at Astoria for the annual convention of the Oregon Development League on August 14, 15 and 16. There is wide interest in the approaching session and a splendid program has been arranged. Each section promises to have a full representation and the meeting will mark a forward step in development circles.

The Centennial Celebration will have an added interest for delegates to the League gathering and Astoria, known far and wide for its hospitality, will make a special effort to entertain the Leaguers. On the whole, the approaching convention promises to be the best ever held in the history of the state-wide development body.

Lakeview people are making arrangements for a monster celebration in October when the new railroad, now building north from California, will reach that city. It is proposed to have the biggest demonstration of the kind ever held in the Interior Oregon, and it is expected that other cities of South Central Oregon will participate. It is probable there will be a week of general rejoicing over the arrival of the railroad.

Linn County farmers will take advantage of the opportunity to show their farm products at the annual county fair to be held at Seio on August 29, 30 and 31 and Sept. 1. Cash premiums aggregating $2500 will be offered and racing purses amount to $1500. Prospects are for the best fair ever held in Linn County.

Oregon's hop crop is another source of prosperity for the farmer this season. With 30 cents already paid for the growing crop and reports of extreme shortage abroad, making future advances likely, the hop growers are in high feather. The state has an excellent yield of hops this season, the total being estimated at 100,000 bales, which is the biggest crop since 1907.

A Historical institute will be held at Astoria in connection with the Centennial Celebration on September 5, 6 and 7. Lectures will be given at the various points of historic interest so numerous about the mouth of the Columbia River, and many prominent people of the state who are fully informed on these subjects will deliver the addresses. This institute will be of interest particularly to teachers of the Pacific Northwest states.

Springfield, after a big fire that wiped out the principal industry of the city, is going ahead planning a carnival, to be held late this month. The Springfield spirit is not easily discouraged and a bigger and busier city will be built because of this indomitable quality.

Portland will entertain the annual convention of the National Association of the Rotary Clubs of America August 21-23. Special trains will bring delegates from the East and an elaborate program has been arranged.

New Pastor Installed Last Sunday the Immanuel Church installed the Rev. J. H. Hargraves, of Hood River, as pastor. The Rev. Edward M. Sharp, pastor of Mt. Tabor Presbyterian Church, Portland, officiated, and his bible reading and sermon, which was rather an informal talk to the new pastor and the congregation was most interesting.

Wheat Crop Will be heavy Reports which come from the threshing machines are the yield of wheat this year is as good as last year, if not better. On account of the long dry spell this spring and summer it was feared that the crop this year would be short but such has proved to not be the case, and the amount of wheat to be marketed in Dufur this year will be as great as in former years. -Dufur Dispatch.

Mr. J. E. Johnson and wife who, until August 2nd was Miss Agnes Hanson, arrived in town last night from Castle Rock, Wash. Mr. Johnson has been engaged as principal of the Mosier public school for the term which opens September 11, and Mrs. Johnson will teach the intermediate room.

Miss S. E. Donohue, of Portland, was the guest the first of the week of Mrs. P. L. Arthur Sock Social Success The Sock Social, held Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Alex Stewart by the Loyal Workers of the Christian Church, was a decided success socially and financially, judging by the large number attending.

The rooms were crowded until standing room was at a premium. About 9 o'clock a musical and literary program was rendered by local talent, at the conclusion of which ice cream and cake was served. The method of conducting the social was most interesting and unique. Invitations had previously been sent to the citizens of the town and surrounding country, the envelope containing a program and a little sock. The invited guest was asked to multiply the number of the sock he (or she) wore by two, which ordinarily would figure up about 20 cents.

Mosier should have more of these social events as they tend to bring people closer together in a friendly way. The social Wednesday evening brought together many people who had lived in Mosier some time without becoming acquainted. The hostess received many expressions of pleasure for an evening well spent.
