We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of The Dalles District Fair, appearing in another column. The Fair this year promises to be better in every way than any previously held, and the people from Hood River and Wasco counties especially should give it their loyal support. The Fair will be held five days, from October, 3 to 7 inclusive, long enough for every citizen to attend at least one day.

Through the invitation of Mr. Ashley, Miss Katherine Driscoll, Private Secretary to John M. Scott, Asst. Gen. Passenger Agent of the Harriman Lines, with her sister, will spend a two weeks' vacation in Mosier. The young ladies will arrive here about Sept. 1st. Miss Driscoll has been with the Passenger Dept. for a number of years and is in a position to say good things for Mosier, so our people should see that she is well impressed with our district.

WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON?

The Red or the Blue? The Union Sunday School On Time and Visitors' Contest is making things rather lively at the Immanuel Church. The standing last Sunday was: Reds, 185 points; Blues, 162 points. Reds 23 points in the lead. Only two more Sundays.

Remember, all visitors who are registered during the contest are entitled to attend the Contest Reception, which the losing side will give the winners. Only two more Sundays to make that visit.

You are cordially invited to come next Sunday and see a progressive, wide-awake Sunday School that is "doing things."

Series of Entertainments

The Meneley Lyceum Bureau, of Chicago, has made arrangements with a committee of Mosier people to give a series of five entertainments here this winter. About one each month will be given, affording the people a source of rare entertainment and a pleasure to look forward to. The price of admission for single tickets will be, for adults 50c; for children between the ages of 5 and 15 years, 25c. Season tickets, good for the entire five entertainments, for adults $1.50; children, $1.00. Stroup's Hall will be used and reserved seats for those purchasing season tickets, or subscribing for them in advance, may be had by applying at the bank. Window cards, announcing the subject and date of each entertainment, will appear from two to three weeks in advance.

Dr. Robinson and wife and J. N. Mosier are attending the Astoria Centennial this week.
