The Immanuel Church Sunday evening song service will be followed by an open meeting, conducted by Dr. David Robinson. The subject will be, "Some little things which help".

S. G. Bettes, the cowboy preacher well known in Mosier, is preparing to make an extended trip thru the Eastern states next year in interests of prohibition. Mr. Bettes will take a quartette of cowboys with him to furnish the singing. They will travel by wagon, driving 16 horses.

O. E. Wilson will soon begin the construction of a residence on a lot in the Leiter addition, across Mosier Creek. He will bring his family down from the ranch in order that the children may attend school. Messrs. Tom and Gus Godbersen have the contract for building the house and are now hauling the lumber.

"Men Who Do Things" will be the subject of Rev. J. R. Hargrave's sermon at Immanuel Church next Sunday morning—a subject of interest to all progressive citizens. The Mosier Male Quartette will render several songs.

Fatal Accident

While one of Ed L. Howe's teams was at work on the county road yesterday the driver backed the horses into the Fresno scraper, to which it was attached and one of the horses was so badly cut on the leg that it was necessary to kill it.

Traveling Library Will be Established Here.

Mosier people will be interested to know that in all probability there will be a "Traveling Library" established in Mosier soon. The books will be distributed from the Immanuel Church. Further particulars will be published later.

W. E. Swengel, wife and daughter, of St. Johns, spent last week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eastman, at Fairmont Ranch. Mr. Swengel combined business with pleasure while here and made arrangements to have his land near Mosier cleared.
