WANTED—Good Housekeeping requires the services of a representative in Mosier to look after subscription renewals and to extend circulation by special methods which have proved unusually successful. Salary and commission. Previous experience desirable but not essential. Whole time or spare time. Address, with references, J. F. Fairbanks, Good Housekeeping Magazine, 381 Fourth Ave, New York City.

Agreeably Surprised.

A bunch of about 18 Mosierites descended (or rather ascended) on Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosier last Monday night and spent the time until midnight in various forms of amusement, having a most delightful time. The hamper they carried were filled with all kinds of good things to eat and it is needless to say that each one did full justice to them, especially as some of Mosier's most notorious appetites were there. For getting up a surprise party of this kind and providing a sumptuous repast on short notice, the Mosier ladies excel. If you don't believe it, ask the poet of the Cascades.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Akers, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ross, Dr. and Mrs. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. N. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chown and son, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kibbee and children, and J. K. McGregor.

A Close Call

Last Saturday afternoon, as Mr. Mark Mayer was coming into town from Mayerdale, accompanied by Mrs. Weller and her children, the driver made a too wide detour at the bend on the Bateham hill and the big Pierce-Arrow machine went over the embankment. Fortunately there was little headway to the car and it did not turn over, but ran about three times its length down the hill. The party escaped with no injuries, but somewhat alarmed. The machine was extracted next morning, none the worse for its experience.

C. W. Demarest, of Kelso, Wash., is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Arthur.

The little town of Shaniko suffered another severe loss by fire last week, when the fire fiend licked up about $25,000 worth of property. The blaze originated in Al Howell's saloon and destroyed two blocks of occupied and unoccupied buildings.
