Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Moseley, of Clinton, Iowa, visited a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings, in the Fairview neighborhood. The two families were friends and neighbors in Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Moseley have been visiting their son, C. A. Moseley, of the Mt. Hood Hotel, Hood River.

Mrs. W. Macrum arrived from Portland Wednesday morning and is visiting her son, Dr. C. A. Macrum, and wife.

J. H. Develin, of Develin & Firebaugh, was up from Portland last Sunday, looking over their orchard tracts at Ortley. Accompanying him were Mr. Kroener and wife. Mr. Kroener is the architect who is planning the buildings for the company. He has completed the plan for the big hotel and work on it is progressing rapidly.

Grand View Happenings.

Don Littlepage visited with his parents Sunday and Monday of this week. He was accompanied by Mr. Ward Evans, a prosperous young farmer of Corbett, and son of T. L. Evans, who owns 20 acres of young orchard adjoining the Littlepage place. This was Mr. Evans' first visit to Mosier and after having seen several of Mosier's best orchards and taken a general look at the country, he declared it looked good to him and that in the near future he would invest in a tract of land himself.

Last Saturday evening and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings gave a house party to a number of young people, in their beautiful and commodious new home. In the evening the game of 500 was played, prizes being won by Miss Ruth Clement and Jack Coffman, after which dainty and delicious refreshments were served. The guests remained over night, spending the greater part of the next day with their host and hostess, being entertained with music, a good dinner and etc.

Those accepting the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Cummings were: the Misses Sarah Clement, Ruth Clement and Ruth Littlepage and Messrs. Rollo Clement, Martin Clement, Jack Coffman and Hugo Birkner. The guest of honor was Ruth Littlepage who is soon going away to attend school.

Sunday afternoon a number of neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage to partake of the ripe and juicy watermelon. Some of the melons sampled were fully 20 inches long and they were of very good quality, strictly home grown, without irrigation. Who says we can't raise melons in Grand View? Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings, Mrs. C. C. Clement, Mrs. Woods, the Misses Sarah and Ruth Clement, Ruth Littlepage, Minnie Kearns, Dorothy Lois and Ruth Woods, Rollo Clement, Albert Medenwald, Hugo Birkner, Ward Evans, Jack Coffman and Don Littlepage.

School Notes.

(By Edwin Stargess)
Clyde Bailey entered school Monday.
Wilbur Denny was absent Tuesday.

Carrol Cole left Saturday for Portland, where he will attend school.

Vera Conner has been promoted from the fifth to the sixth grade.

The new pupils in the Grammar grades are Philip Goss, Marie Shogren and Frank Wilson. Since the beginning of school six new pupils have entered the primary department. There has been perfect attendance in the Intermediate grades during the first seven days of school.

The Grammar grades and High School have organized a literary society to be known as the Mosier School Literary Society. The officers elected were as follows: Robert Searce, President, Leo Higley, Vice President, Stark Akers, Secretary. The program committee consists of Ray Bailey, Chairman, Philip Goss and Alefora Haacke.

The Union Sunday School gave a very pleasant evening to its members and friends last Thursday which was enjoyed by all. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and lemonade were served. The fun of the evening was guessing the names of Mosier people who were represented, or suggested, by pictures tacked on the walls. Some of the pictures were very suggestive, some easily read, and some required a stretch of imagination to interpret. Of the 54 representations, the highest number guessed correctly was 45. This method of entertaining is quite unique and certainly furnished amusement.

WANTED—Good Housekeeping requires the services of a representative in Mosier to look after subscription renewals and to extend circulation by special methods which have proved unusually successful. Salary and commission. Previous experience desirable but not essential. Whole time or spare time. Address, with references, J. F. Fairbanks, Good Housekeeping Magazine, 381 Fourth Ave, New York City.
