Mayerdale Celebrates

Big Times at Flag Raising and Birthday Party

No more perfect day in the year could have been selected for the grand celebration held at Mayerdale on Thursday, October 5th, had the stars, Hicks, Beals, the almanacs, or even the Mosier Bulletin been consulted for a month of Sundays previously.

The occasion for this jubilee was the unfurling of the stars and stripes to the gentle breezes that blow o'er Mayerdale, the beautiful home of Mark A. Mayer, of New York-Portland-Mosier.

The many guests began arriving at 2:30 p. m., some coming in their own conveyances, others being brought by Mr. Mayer's big 7-passenger touring car, which he kindly placed at the disposal of his friends.

At about 3:30 the assemblage gathered about the flag-pole, which towered to a height of 100 feet in the air and, to the tune of the "Star Spangled Banner," the flag, with Mrs. Weller handling the guy rope, was run aloft and as it swung to the breeze, hats were doffed, handkerchiefs were waved and Old Glory was greeted with rousing cheers.

Look up at our flag as it waves there in glory. The flags of all nations, they all have a story. There's a none-not the oldest, with such freedom waves As our Star Spangled Banner, God bless it always.

Our host, I know his heart beats high today As journeying on (he's twenty-five they say.) And with his friends here now to celebrate, Old Glory smiles, as waving there in state, A fitting emblem to grace this fair vale, And welcome peace and joy to our kind host of Mayerdale.

The wants of the guests were attended to by the host, and hostess and if any were hungry or thirsty it was their own fault. Every thing was as free as the air-freer than water, for we didn't see any of the latter; it wasn't on tap. Consequently a few (very few) had to go home to get a drink. A delicious lap lunch was served on the broad verandah, where the magnificent view of the hills, valleys and river could be enjoyed.

Mr. Mayer had issued card invitations with a very appropriate design of an American flag on one end, and inscribed on the card was the name and a suggestion of the peculiarities or predilections of the person addressed. We have space for only a few of the many sent out but those given here show that "Markey" was "next." For instance, the cards read:

Mr. J. N. Mosier:-Public spirited, open hearted and willing. As an executive officer unsurpassed.

J. K. McGregor:-Bobby Burns, Scotland's greatest poet, fades into insignificance since our J. K. Mc. showed on the horizon.

Dr. Macrum, of Mosier:-Ethereal and sylph-like to gaze upon. Our M. D., beloved by all.

Mr. Devlin, of Ortley:-Beautiful and suave. He has done more than will ever do him.

Mr. Adams, of Ortley:-Ananias and Baron Munchausen could never sell tickets when you show. How about the Female Summary, Ortley Journal and Cable Railway?

Dr. R. M. Ross, of Mosier:-A shining light in finance and at all times doing his clients-a good turn.

C. A. McCargar:-Our Hirsutus neighbor (not on good terms with the seven Sutherland Sisters.) Ever willing to trade one for two and make the other fellow like it.

Ed L. Howe:-Offers 10 acres of prime Apple Orchard land for one of Cinderella's Slippers. Mosier girls' footwear barred-house too small.

H. S. Bowers, of Portland:-Ever smiling, sometimes on the level.

F. A. Shogren, of Mosier:-"Cow for sale cheap." Gives milk freely. You don't have to take it from her.

Dr. Robinson, of Mosier:-Apples, Telephone, Medicine. At all times ready to sever or serve. Similar invitations were sent to friends in New York, Vancouver, B. C., White Salmon and elsewhere, but were not answered in person.

The custom of naming country residences and of erecting a flag on the grounds is a good one and is becoming popular. Mr. Ed Howe has the distinction of planting the first flag pole on private property in Mosier, and Mr. Mayer is the second one. The time will come when every place of any pretensions will float the stars and stripes.

Late in the afternoon the guests took their departure, wishing the kind host many pleasant returns of the day, and each carrying a souvenir of the place and occasion in the shape of a small silk American flag, and a pennant with the words, "Mayerdale, Oct. 5, 1911," in white letters on a blue ground. Those who enjoyed Mr. Mayer's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Howe and "Billie" Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, of Chicago, Dr. and Mrs. D. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosier, A. P. Bateman, Miss Maude Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Shogren, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kibbee, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Ross, C. A. McCargar, Dr. C. A. Macrum, H. S. Bowers.

OUR PORTLAND LETTER

Portland, Ore., Oct. 10, (Special) James J. Hill helped make Oregon history the past week when he drove the golden spike marking the completion of the Oregon Trunk Railway to Bend. That it will be the final terminus of the line is not expected, but the event was notable because it celebrated the coming of a new era in the interior, and the railroad will be the greatest developer the country could have.

"Go to work and build up the country, for the cities would starve to death if it were not for the country," said Mr. Hill at the spike driving. "Nations that have neglected the cultivation of the soil have faded from the face of the earth. There is no reason why central Oregon should not produce enormous wealth. We have a good deal of

To Our Subscribers We have here a plan to stimulate our circulation-to induce those of our subscribers who are in arrears (we are proud to say they are few) and those who will pay in advance in order to get the benefit of this offer, and those who are not on our subscription list to have their names placed there. We are not offering you something for nothing-can't afford it. But you DO get something, and a very handsome, useful something, with every cash subscription, at a third what it would cost you at any store. Here is the idea: We have secured a limited supply of crockery from the famous pottery works of Seabring, Ohio. This consists of Berry Sets, Salad Sets, Fruit Sets, Lemonade Sets, Fish and Game Sets. These sets retail at from $2.50 to $4.00 each. The subscription price of the BULLETIN is $1.50 per year. For $2.75 we give you the paper and any one of these sets. In other words, you get a set for $1.25 that would cost you $3.00 on an average in any store. You don't have to wait until you save coupons representing $50 or $75 worth of trade, but can carry the article home with you by dropping in and paying your subscription to the paper and the additional small sum of $1.25. These sets are handsome enough for any table and will make your wife, mother, sister, or the other fellow's sister, happy in the possession of one. Call at the BULLETIN office and examine them.

faith in it. We believe if this soil is properly cared for, if it is properly understood and fair justice done by it, it will make a happy home for thousands and millions of people. I wish you all Godspeed and every particle of luck and prosperity that can come to you.

Portland will raise money to aid in the operation of two demonstration farms in Central Oregon. The railroads have pledged $5,000, Portland business men will give $2,000 and Crook County will raise by taxation $3,000. One farm will be established in dry farming country and the other in an irrigated district. A local committee has been named to secure the funds and a dinner will be held at the Commercial Club October, 18, when plan will be made. On the train returning from the golden spike driving at Bend during the past week, a considerable sum was subscribed by Portland excursionists. Consolidation with neighboring cities is planned by Marshfield under the name "Coos Bay." A resolution to that effect has been passed by the City Council and a special election to decide the matter will probably be held soon. This will, it is thought, be a great permanent benefit in building up that section of Oregon. Harrisburg women have turned their attention to practical things and will hold a potato carnival October 18 and 19. This, it is promised, will be "An exhibition of painstaking potato culture, portraying all the progressive methods of planting, peeling and preparing the ever palatable potato." Women are officials of the show.

Agricultural possibilities of Oregon are shown by an interesting comparison just made by President Howard Elliott of the Northern Pacific Railway of the area of this state with that of Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Alsace-Lorraine, Luxemburg, Switzerland and the state of Maine. Combined, they have 65,022 square miles, while Oregon has 96,030. On the other hand, the combined population of these countries is 21,594,686, while Oregon has but 672,765. The conclusion is that this state has as great agricultural resources as the above group and may very likely equal it in population when its lands are properly tilled.

A herd of elk from Yellowstone Park may be brought to Oregon and liberated in the forest reserves of Wallowa County. Arrangements are now being made by State Game Warden Finely with the Government authorities. Steps will be taken to protect the animals in their new home.

Case-hardened Editors The Sherman County Observer says: "There are events occurring in every community which, if reported in the the local paper, would create a commotion little dreamed of. What to report and what not to report often perplexes the editor; he is often unjustly accused of cowardice and favoritism when all the time he is looking toward the good reputation of the town where his lot is cast; he constantly finds himself, from necessity almost, between two fires, and which ever way he turns he is sure to be unjustly treated. But that cuts no ice; he's hardened to the chilly usages of the bloodless thinker."

Apples Must Have Weight Stamped on. The Hood River News says: According to an order of Commissioner of Weight and Measures of New York, boxes of apples shipped to that city this year must have the net weight of the contents marked on the outside. The commissioner states that after November 1st he will prosecute for sales of apples, pears or quinces in boxes, crates or containers, which does not contain exact half bushel or multiple thereof, or even divisions thereof by two, unless the package is plainly marked or labeled on the outside with the net weight or measure of the contents. In reply to a letter addressed to him by W.N. White & Co., the New York apple man, stating that receptacles for shipping apples have already been purchased this year, the commissioner states that he will enforce the law without fear or favor, regardless of individuals, but adds: "It is not my desire to cause any hardships to grower or dealer, and if they have a supply of boxes on hand for the present season, I would advise that they mark or label on the outside of each box the net weight of the contents, and they need have no fear of molestation from the department."
