Buy's The Leonard Place
Frederick Page, a contractor of East Orange, New Jersey, was here last week, the guest of J. E. Proctor. Mr. Page had investigated White Salmon and other places in this section with a view to investing but finally decided that Mosier was good enough for him and purchased the 20 acre tract of G. H. Leonard, south of town. The price paid was $4,000. Mr. Page will have further improvements made on the place and will eventually make Mosier his home.

E. A. Race and family returned last Sunday from El Paso, Texas, where they went several months ago, called by the serious illness of Mr. Race's father, who was under the necessity of having his leg amputated. A card received by Mr. Race this week stated that his father was feeling well, but the insidious nature of the disease that affects the limb leaves the out come of the operation in doubt.

Ricketts Quartet Coming.

Next Wednesday night the second in the series of five entertainments in the winter's course will be held in Mosier when the Ricketts Concert Company will give one of their famous musical concerts. This company consists of two sisters and three brothers, each one an artist, performing on all kinds of instruments, giving also vocal solos. Don't fail to hear them and C. L. Ricketts, the great impersonator.

Single tickets 50c. Adult season tickets $1.25. Children's single tickets, 25c under 15 years. Children's season tickets, 75c.

In speaking of this aggregation, C. Durant Jones, manager of Jones Chautauque, System, of Perry, Iowa, says:

"It gives me great pleasure to say a word for the Ricketts Concert Company, who have just closed a five weeks' engagement for us in Iowa. This marvelous family of entertainers have more than "made good," and we have purchased all of their available time for the remainder of this year. The people have not only been delighted with their entertainments, but the local committees have been most agreeably surprised with the size of the door receipts. George Ricketts as a soloist, who was heartily and repeatedly encored, Master Clyde Ricketts, the boy violinist who surprised and pleased his hearers, Miss Marie Ricketts the charming flutist, Miss Myrtle Ricketts the sweet voiced singer and violinist, with Chester L. Ricketts, the matchless impersonator, combined to give a great entertainment that proved to be a winner everywhere."

The concert will be held in Lamb's Hall. Doors open at 7:45. Entertainment begins at 8:15.

Much Clearing Done

The ground is in fine condition now for the clearing of land and orchardists are taking advantage of it. The company that purchased the Sundborg place has a force of men and a donkey engine at work and will clear a large tract this winter. Other ranchers are putting in their time grubbing and pulling stumps and by spring the acreage of land set to fruit trees will be greatly increased.
