Miss Alice Mosier arrived Wednesday afternoon, from The Dalles, and will spend the rest of the week with her parents. Miss Gordon, who is attending school with her at St. Mary's Academy, accompanied her.

Immanuel Church Services

Mr. Hargreaves' next Sunday's sermon subject will be the same as announced for last Sunday—"Gripping the Good." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

In the very brief service in the Immanuel Church on Sunday morning last an inspiring musical selection was rendered by a mixed quartette consisting of Dr. and Mrs. Ross, and Mr. R. M. and Miss Clement. Plans are now on foot for a double quartette.

Little Waldon Cook Dies.

Waldon, the three-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cook, died last Friday night of cholera infantum.

The funeral services were held in the Christian Church at 11:30 Sunday morning, Rev. Sickafosse officiating. Burial was in Odd Fellows cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook have the sympathy of their many friends and neighbors in their affliction.

The Immanuel Church was considerably closed, no morning services being held and a greater part of the congregation attended the funeral services in a body.

Wanted Some of the Seed.

A gentleman from the upper country—we won't tell his name or home town—while visiting friends here this week, noticed some brilliantly colored chickens roaming in J. N. Mosier's yard. The plumage struck his fancy and he was determined to stock his ranch with this peculiar variety. When asked if he would sell a brace of the fowls, the owner, who had been tipped the wink, refused to part with them, saying that money couldn't buy them. This made the enthusiast more anxious and he wished a setting of the eggs, as he wanted to be the envy of his neighborhood. His surprise and chagrin may be imagined when he was told that he could color his own chickens with Diamond Dye.

Ricketts Company Entertain

The Ricketts Concert Company played to a comfortably filled house Wednesday night at Lamb's Hall, and without doubt gave one of the best performances that has ever been heard in Mosier. The company as a whole and individually, is composed of artists in their respective lines. The instrumental and vocal music was excellent, and the impersonations of Chester L. Ricketts, who is a topnotcher in his work, kept the house in convulsions. His different make-ups and facial expressions were perfect and his repertory is extensive.

The audience seemed especially pleased with this, the second of the series of five entertainments that will be given this Winter and the committee having them in charge are gratified, as it is their desire to furnish good entertainments for the Mosier public.

The next in the series will be Miss Belle Kearney, the noted traveler, writer, lecturer and dramatic reader, who will appear here in February.

If you have any carpenter work to do and want it done right, see "Happy."

School Notes.

The intermediate and primary rooms of the school held Thanksgiving exercises at the school house Wednesday afternoon and entertained quite a number of visitors. School will be closed until Monday.

Christian Church Notes.

Services at the Christian Church 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Subject Sunday evening, Origin, Aim and Progress of the Church of Christ.

K. H. SICKAFOOSE,
Minister.

Burned Out

Troubles never come singly. On Monday night W. W. Winegar lost his faithful horse, and on Wednesday morning his house was burned to the ground. He lost practically everything it contained, including a check for $75.

Mr. Winegar built a fire in the kitchen stove, as usual, that morning, and went out to do some chores. It is presumed that the stove became superheated, setting fire to the woodwork in the room.

Handkerchief Shower.

"We and Our Neighbors Club" were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Arthur Kuhn, at Grand View, Thursday afternoon, the occasion being a handkerchief shower in honor of Miss Sarah Clement. The afternoon was passed with amusements, after which a dainty lunch was served. The rooms were decorated in Oregon Grape and all guests received a miniature turkey.

Those present were Mrs. C. C. Clement, Miss N. Banks, Mrs. C. J. Littlepage, Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh, Mrs. J. Loomis, Miss Dorothy Firebaugh, Miss Constance Loomis and Misses Sarah and Ruth Clement.

E. E. Fredricks and family arrived from Portland last Friday afternoon and spent several days here visiting friends before proceeding on their way to Chicago, where they will make their home.

Inadvertently Omitted

We inadvertently omitted last week to mention the fact that a new barber shop had been opened in town by Mr. Claude Meinecke, of Portland. The tonsorial artist is located in The Pines Hotel and is prepared to do any kind of work in his line and solicits a share of the public patronage.

320-Acres Homestead Areas Opened.

During October six areas were designated by the Secretary of the Interior as suitable for entry under the enlarged-homestead act. These include 32,110 acres of land in Idaho and Oregon and make a total of 190,426,957 acres which has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as enterable in 320-acre homestead units.

Hotel Is Closed

Late Wednesday afternoon the Hotel Pines was closed by writ of attachment levied by C. H. Dunsmore and W. H. Walker as complainants, to satisfy claims against J. P. Erhart, the proprietor, amounting to about $140.00. So sudden was the move that no regular supper could be served, as almost all the the eatables were confiscated, and a number of expected guests were turned away and forced to seek accommodations elsewhere. Mr. Erhart had the hotel leased for a year, having taken possession in October. This move on the part of his creditors will put him out of business, as everything he possessed was attached and his credit is ruined.

It is understood that Mr. John Wellberg, the owner of the hotel, has a party in view who will lease the building, but at present it is impossible to say when the hotel will again be open to the public.
