Miss Elizabeth Banks, who spent the summer and fall with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Clement, left on Monday for Los Gatos, Cal., where she will spend the winter.

Home prosperity depends upon home industry, and state-wide prosperity, will be greater if factories selling "Made in Oregon" goods are patronized, by the local merchants.

Word was received yesterday from Ed L. Howe, at Portland, that his father is lying seriously ill at his home at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and not expected to live. Mr. Howe passed thru Mosier yesterday on his way to Iowa.

Now is a good time to call at the Bulletin office and pay your back subscription or renew it and get a set of those dishes. They will make a very suitable and acceptable Christmas present for your folks or some one else.

The local train schedule has been changed again, this time without warning, and in consequence several parties who were east bound last Sunday missed the morning local. The corrected time table appears in another column.

Workman have been busy this week ceiling Stroup's Hall. This has long been needed, and when finished it will be much more comfortable. Heretofore it has been so unpleasant sitting for an hour or two in the hall during cold weather that the public disliked to attend gatherings of any kind held there.

To My Creditors.

Owing to an unfortunate combination of circumstances I find myself unable to at once meet my financial obligations. However, I do not intend repudiate them and all I ask is to be given a sufficient time and I will make good. I therefore ask the Mosier public to give me a chance to do so.

Basket Social
Thanksgiving Eve a basket social was given at the new school house in District 41. About 75 persons attended and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Miss Lizzie Elder, the teacher, had prepared an excellent program, particularly good features being instrumental music by Mr. Saul, accompanied by Mrs. Graham, and a recitation by "Hannah Maria Wiggins" (Miss Elder) entitled "Going to the Basket Social."

The work of the scholars in several numbers on the program was very good, showing careful drilling on the part of the teacher.

The program as given was as follows:

Song "America" Audience Rec. "My Thanksgiving" Harold Stearns.

Rec. "The Reason Why" Ida Neilsen.

Song "Oh, The Sports of Childhood." 1st grade pupils.

Rec. "Johnnie's Version of Nov." Archie Huskey.

Rec. "A Friendly Indian" Francis Neilsen.

Music, Mr. Saul and Mrs. Graham Dialogue "Why There are no More Columbus" Ira and Archie Huskey and Loyd Stearns.

Song "Sweet Summers Gone Away" Rose Hill School.

Rec. "Three Little Maidens" Florence and Elsie Huskey and Ida Neilsen.

Rec. "When My Mothers Sings" Florence Huskey.

Song "My Kitty" Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stearns.

Rec. "James' Methodism" Julian Henningsen.

Song "A Home by the Deep Rolling Sea" Rose Hill School.

Music Mr. Saul and Mrs. Graham. Rec. "Advice to a Doll" Florence Huskey.

Rec. "When I was a Little Boy" Francis Neilsen.

Rec. "Everybody Works Poor Father" Sylvester Saltzman.

Song "Blue Bell" Rose Hill Boys.

Rec. "Our Colors" Grace Binkley.

Music Mr. Saul and Mrs. Graham. Dialogue "A Matrimonial Advertisement"

Rec. "Seeing Things at Night" Conrad Elder.

Song "Dip Boys, Dip the Oar" School.

Rec. "A Thankful Girl" Inez Binkley.

Song "Old Folks at Home" audience.

Rec. "Going to the Basket Social" "Hannah Maria Wiggins"

After the program, Mr. Huskey acted as auctioneer and sold the baskets, 13 in number. As usual 13 proved to be unlucky because there were a number of hungry men present who had to go without a lunch. The receipts proved to be very good and will be used to buy much needed furnishing for the school.
