Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper left yesterday for a visit with relatives at The Dalles. They were accompanied by Mrs. Cooper's sister, Mrs. Ruppe, of Pendleton, who has been visiting here for a fortnight.

Notice to Stockholders.

It would be of great assistance to the secretary of Mosier Valley Telephone Co. in preparing his books for the annual report if those who have not already paid in the assessment of stock would do so before Jan. 1st, 1912.

DAVID ROBINSON,
Secy.

Fright Wreck.

At about 1:35 a. m. last Saturday a broken rail on the main line at the depot here caused seven freight cars to leave the track, one of the cars turning completely over down the embankment.

The cars were loaded with merchandise, machinery and scales, but fortunately little damage was done. A wrecker and crew was kept busy most of the day clearing up the wreck. All trains passed thru town on the siding.

The water crane was struck by the overturning cars and demolished.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

Mrs. J. Silbaugh from Seattle, Secretary of the Young Peoples Branch, organized a Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Sunday, Dec. 17th, with the following officers: President, Mrs. F. A. Allington, Vice President, Mrs. Wm. Stevenson, Sec. Mrs. D. D. Robinson, Treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Higley.

All who are interested in this great work are cordially invited to the home of Mrs. F. A. Allington Jan. 3, 1912, at 2:30.

Last Saturday evening, Hillcrest, the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage, was the scene of a delightful surprise in honor of Mr. Jack Coffman, the occasion being his 21st birthday. The evening was spent very pleasantly with music and games. Dainty refreshments were served and at a late hour the guests departed for their homes, with many good wishes for the future of Jack. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clement, the Misses Ruth and Sarah Clement and Minnie Kearns, Messrs Hugo Birkner, Jack Clark, F. Nelson and Jack Coffman, Martin and Rollo Clement and Albert Medenwald.

Roy Stokes, who has been working at the carpenters trade at White Salmon this winter returned home last Friday. His parents came up from Estacada on Saturday to spend the Holidays with Mr. Stokes and family on the ranch south of town.

The Bauer family held a family reunion on Christmas day at the residence of Mr. Thomas Gordon. There were present Mrs. M. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Misses Helen and Flora, Henry and Arthur Bauer. The brother at Dufur was unable to be present, which was the only thing that marred a very pleasant time. Misses Helen and Flora and Arthur Bauer returned to their homes in Portland Tuesday morning.

Concert a Success.

The concert given in Immanuel Church last night by local talent, was an unqualified success, musically and financially. Each number was received with hearty applause and brought enclosures galore from the delighted audience. Our limited space forbids detailing the entertainment by numbers, but, as most everyone was there from far and near, the house being crowded to the doors, the majority of our local readers know for themselves how good it was.

About $62.50 was realized, most of it being "velvet," which will be applied towards the purchase of a piano for the church. Mrs. R. M. Ross and those working with her deserve great credit for the success of the affair. Others will follow during the Winter and Spring.

After the program was concluded coffee and sandwiches were served and a general good time was had.

School Play Pleases.

"Uncle Silas," the 3-Act drama put on the boards at Stroop's Hall, last Friday night, drew a large audience, in spite of the storm.

The play was composed of nine characters, each character having a prominent part with the exception, perhaps, of the tramp, who "knew too much" and was murdered by the villain to keep his mouth shut. Jimmie Carroll as the tramp was all right. Leo Higley as Uncle Silas, Philip Goss as the Sheriff, Stark Akers as the heavy villain, Robert Secaree as the young farmer, Ed Sturgess as the red headed Irishman, Bernard Nichol as the darkey, Evelyn Nebendahl as the Uncle Silas' daughter, Marie Shogren as the widow who wanted to try it a second time, and grace Higley as the housekeeper, were all good and had their lines remarkably well. The plot was well designed and well executed, with enough tragedy and comedy to keep the audience interested and amused all the way thru.

It was a rather difficult and somewhat "advanced" piece for so young a company, but their work showed earnest effort and was satisfactory to the audience, which was not inclined to be critical. Taken altogether, the pupils of the high school may congratulate themselves on the success of the play and also on the financial returns, which we understand were very satisfactory.

Notice

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of Mosier Valley Telephone Co. will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 9th, 1912 at Lamb's Hall, for the election of new officers and such other business as may properly come before such meeting.

DAVID ROBINSON,
Secy.

Prof. J. E. Johnson and wife left Saturday to spend the Holidays with relatives at Castle Rock, Wash.

Mrs. Amy L. Gove, of Hood River, attended the play given by the pupils of the upper grades last Friday night.

Mr. Hargreaves and son and Mr. and Mrs. Wood, of Hood River, attended the concert last night.

Ortley Items.

A petition has been signed by the residents of Ortley, providing for the establishment of a Post Office in the "Apple town." This has been forwarded to the Post Master General, and it is expected that it will receive prompt attention. L. D. Firebaugh is the prospective post master, with head quarters at the Ortley Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Emily E. Lane and her son George, of Portland, are spending the Holidays with Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh. Mrs. Lane is the proud grandmother of Dorothy Baird Firebaugh.

R. H. Churchill, of Centralia, came here recently on a business trip. E. Endes was also a visitor the past week.

W. W. Fields, of Ortley, left just before the holidays for a combined business and pleasure trip to Chicago and Toledo.

Mrs. F. M. Firebaugh, of Hood River, spent Christmas with her children at Ortley.

Harry LaVein, of Ortley, and formerly of Portland, has purchased a ten acre tract, where he intends to raise poultry extensively, according to the renowned Philo system.

W. A. Tompkins and his son Arthur, went to Portland to spend the holidays.

The first Christmas in Ortley was fittingly celebrated by a tree in the new school house.

The pupils in the Intermediate and Primary rooms of the Mosier school entertained a number of visitors last Saturday afternoon with a program of recital and song. Altogether it was a very creditable performance and the pupils appeared to be as highly entertained as the visitors. A Christmas tree had been prepared, on which were hung bags of candy and peanuts for the little ones.

Fierce Gale Across River.
The Hood River Glacier—A terrific gale raged on the mountains Monday, the wind reaching a velocity of 60 miles an hour, says a dispatch from White Salmon. A great deal of heavy timber fell, in some instances breaking clear off. It was almost impossible to stand before the gale, which was from the west. The majority of mountain people were housed up, fearing to drive through the timber. Walter Freeland, Sr., narrowly escaped death by the falling of a huge fir tree while passing through school section 16, at noon yesterday. The winter is mild, and a heavy fall of snow is predicted. W. S. Bates' wireless aerial blew to shreds, but before it went down reports a fierce gale out at sea were heard off North Head.
