Notice.

Up to date dressmaking. Will go out by the day or sew at home.

Address, Mrs. J. SAUL,
Mosier, Oregon.

C. A. Moseley, of Hood River, was attending to business matters here last Monday.

Fred Evans and family were visitors in Hood River Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mattie Hudson was visiting friends in Hood River on Wednesday.

It is reported that Rev. W. A. Stark is seriously ill at his home in Hood River.

Wm. Stitt, of Los Angeles, arrived in Mosier last Sunday and spent several days attending to property interests.

Ed L. Howe and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Howe's sister, Miss Daisy Biles, arrived from Portland on Sunday last and are spending the week at Lehowa.

Next Wednesday the Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Rusher at the home of Mrs. Allington. As it is election of officers all members are requested to be present.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. Wood will be relieved to know that she is convalescing from her recent illness and hope for her ultimate and complete recovery.

H. M. West, of Portland, was up again this week investigating a piece of land near Mosier. We understand that the expert's report on the soil is most satisfactory to Mr. West and that he will probably purchase the tract.

We call the attention of our readers to the "ad" at The Dalles Electric Works, appearing in this issue. This company is prepared to contract for wiring your building, make repairs or furnish all kind of fixtures and supplies. The office is in the Sturgess building.

Messrs. Silas Soule and Paul Hubbard, of Hood River, were business visitors in town on Monday last. Mr. Hubbard while here tuned the piano in Stroup's Hall, so it will be in fine shape for the Schubert Trio, which will give a musicale here soon.

Of the 201 taxpayers drawn to serve on the Wasco county jury for the ensuing year, the list contains the following 18 from Mosier: J. L. Carroll, W. H. Cook, C. J. Carlson, J. M. Elliott, S. D. Fisher, A. Grosser, E. J. Hardwick, D. D. Hail, W. E. Huskey, C. E. Davidson, D. P. Harvey, D. W. Hudson, W. A. Husbands, H. G. Kibbee, J. K. McGregor, Arthur Kuhn, C. J. Littlepage and J. N. Mosier.

The county court at its January term, appointed C. J. E. Carlson as road supervisor for road district No. 10, and re-appointed C. J. Fredrickson for district No. 9. We believe that Mr. Fredrickson fulfilled the duties of his position to the satisfaction of the taxpayers, and have no doubt that Mr. Carlson will be equally efficient.

Announcement.

To Wasco County Voters:

I hereby announce to the voters of Wasco County that I am a candidate for the nomination of County Clerk of Wasco County, Oregon, at the coming Republican primaries, and if nominated and elected, I will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and for the best interests of the Tax payers and citizens in general, along sound business principles, giving all the people a clean and economical service.

L. B. Fox.

To Start Another Oil Well.

The Beavis-May Oil company of Dufur will at once commence the sinking of another oil well on its lease in the Ramsey creek valley, according to George A. Beavis, manager and treasurer of the company, who passed through this city yesterday on his way to Portland to attend a stockholders' meeting. The prospects at the well are now so good that this action has received the hearty endorsement of the officers of the company. — Dalles Chronicle.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Mosier Horticultural Society in Morrison's Hall, Saturday, Jan. 20, at one o'clock.

After the annual election of officers, the Rogue River proposition for a merger of the selling system of the principal fruit districts of the Pacific Northwest, will be explained by Mr. A. P. Bateham.

The importance of this matter to every fruit grower, should be sufficient reason to insure a full attendance.

J. P. CARROLL,
President.

Basket Ball Game.

The Mosier High School Basketball team will meet a basketball team from The Dalles at Stroup's Hall tomorrow night at 7:30 p. m.

Heretofore athletics have suffered from lack of good managers and coaches, but this season the service of a good manager and expert coaches have been secured. The boys have practiced hard and faithfully and will deserve to win the game.

A small admission of twenty five cents for adults and 15c for children will be charged to help defray expenses of the visiting team. Don't forget the time and date.

Oregon's Gold and Silver.

There has recently been a decline in metallic output of Oregon, and so far as present data show, this decline was more marked in 1911 than in 1910, according to Chas. G. Yale, of the United States Geological Survey. The total number of active mines shows little changes, but some of the larger ones have become less productive. Several gold dredges are in operation, but the most productive was not worked for several months in 1911. The hydraulic mines are the most productive placers, and their number is greatest. The deep mines of the State are yielding larger quantities of milling ore than formerly, but the grade of ore worked has declined nearly one-half. This accounts for the falling off in total gold production. Some siliceous ore is shipped to smelters, but most of it is milled, and comparatively little copper ore is now being smelted. The output of silver in the State is small. Baker county is still the largest producer of gold. It includes the districts of Baker, Cornucopia, Cracker Creek, and Mormon Basin, and between 50 and 60 producing mines, about half of which are placers, though much the larger proportion of the gold is obtained from deep mines. In gold output from placer mining Josephine County leads. There are 12 counties in the State now producing gold. In southwestern Oregon the placer mines are producing larger quantities than the deep mines; in northeastern Oregon the lode mines are much the most productive.

According to preliminary figures prepared by the Director of the Mint, Oregon produced, in 1911, $599,235 in gold and 69,116 fine ounces of silver, valued at $39,014, against $641,400 in gold and 43,800 ounces of silver, valued at $23,600, in 1910.

If you business men don't believe it pays to advertise read this from an exchange: Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, and the price of the greatest business success is hustling and advertising and keeping everlastingly at it. The city dailies are now carrying page after page of announcements of clearance and pre-inventory sales in the big department stores, and yesterday morning the local post office handled six big sacks filled to the nozzie with special catalogues of a Chicago mail order house. Each sack contained approximately 150 catalogues. Each catalogue consisted of 196 pages with numerous inserts and cost three cents apiece for transportation through the mails. In all probability every town in the northwest was similarly deluged. The catalogues were started out of Chicago in carload lots. The expense was something enormous in all probability but it is considered necessary and exceedingly profitable by the mail order house in question. Advertising in one form or another is absolutely essential to business success. Catalogue advertising is the most expensive and least efficient of all modern forms of publicity and newspaper space the cheapest and the most efficient, but the big mail order houses being shut out from most of the news papers, find even catalogue advertising exceedingly profitable.

Mrs. A. M. Roop returned on Wednesday from a three weeks' visit with friends in several valley towns.

Clarence Dunsmore was a business visitor in The Dalles last night.

Grand View Happenings.

On Wednesday, Jan. 10th, we went sleigh riding, the afternoon being warm and pleasant, and we wished to enjoy the sport while the snow lasted. As we approached Hillcrest, C. J. Littlepage's ranch, we were startled to see C. J. and Jack Coffman jumping from one tree to another in the orchard, on snow shoes, clearing the snow from the small limbs to keep them from breaking. At every jump of 28 feet, they landed near the tree, sometimes on their feet and sometimes on their heads.

As we drove by the Grand View Terrace Fruit Farm we were amused to see Arthur Kuhn playing polo, as it looked to us at first sight; but on closer observation we saw that he was clearing the smaller limbs of the apple trees of snow, using part of a broom and riding a pony. It worked fine, but was hard on the operator.

Looking to the right, at the ranch of Stewart & Huxley, we saw an aeroplane in the orchard — so it appeared. When closer we saw it was Mandy Madenwald and his mules. The sun shining so brightly affected our eyesight. At every jump the mules made they appeared to be flying.

At the next place we passed, Kewayden Ranch, we saw Rollo and Martin Clement clearing snow from their apple trees. Their plan was tunnelling under the snow from one tree to another. The snow was from 8 to 12 feet deep. We then drove by Buna Vista Ranch, owned by Ralph Cummings. He was just preparing to clear a path to get to his orchard.

Our next view was Birkheim Ranch, owned by Hugo Birkner, where we found a fine new log house, recently completed. The adjoining ranches are owned by Jack Clark and Hugo Nelson, who are both clearing their land and will soon have apples and all other noted Mosier fruit set out.

Chas. Hoff and wife have departed for San Diego for the winter.

Will Hoff has gone to Los Angeles for a few months.

Stanley Eastman of Fairmont Ranch, has installed a telephone.

Miss Minnie Kearns, teacher in this district, has gone to her home in Lents, Ore. for a visit. The school was closed for two weeks owing to the storm.
