Kansas Apples in Hood Boxes.
F. L. Brant of Minneapolis points out another instance of fraud at the expense of Hood River. In Minneapolis he thought he was buying Hood River apples at 75 cents a peck. When he got down into the box of Jonathans he found that the ends of the box had been reversed, the apples coming from some point in Kansas and inferior in size and flavor. This is the rankest kind of fraud and in order to protect reputations for quality Hood River should make a few prosecutions.—White Salmon Enterprise.

Grand View Notes.

Our section was well represented at the fruit growers' meeting in Hood River, Saturday. S. E. Clark, Martin Clement, H. E. Birkner and H. M. Nelson went down to hear the arguments of Mr. Miller and others.

Miss Ruth Clement spent the week end at Hillcrest visiting Mrs. C. J. Littlepage.

It is with appreciative pleasure that we note the efficient work Mr. Carlson is doing in properly draining the Dalles road.

Rollo M. Clement left last week for Los Gatos, California where he expects to remain a month on business.

Hillcrest Place was the scene of an unexpected but wholly delightful week-end house party. The guests having come to spend the evening, were prevented by the rain from returning to their homes. Two rubbers of Five Hundred were played, at the conclusion of which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

After leaving the tables, music furnished much pleasure and all sorts of stunts filled in the remainder of the evening. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Littlepage, were Mrs. C. C. Clement, the Misses Sarah and Ruth Clement, Messrs. John E. Coffman, John E. Clark, Hugh M. Nelson, Edward Eivers, Martin L. Clement and Hugo Birkner.

Mr. Edward Eivers spent Sunday with friends in Grand View.

MISS HUDSON SHOWERED.

One of the most successful social events of the season took place last Friday, January 25th, when Mrs. Wm. N. Akers and Mrs. J. N. Mosier gave a miscellaneous shower at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Mattie Hudson. About 35 guests were present. Miss Hudson received many and useful presents among them being linens, silverware, china, cut glass, etc.

The program was in the form of a Floral Wedding. Mrs. W. A. Husbands and Mrs. D. D. Hail tying things for honors, Mrs. Hail being the fortunate winner in the draw. Following are the names of those who were present: Miss Hudson, Mesdames Haacke, Robinson, Kibbee, Sickafoose, Sturgess, N. Johnson, Arthur, Hail, Stewart, Erhart, Wm. Marsh, J. Ross, J. E. Johnson, Chown, F. Evans, E. Root, Cherry, J. Davenport, C. Davenport, Stephenson, Allington, Ruseher, Higley, Young, A. Root, Husbands, Wm. Johnson, Akers, Mosier, also Misses N. Hunter, Bishop, A. Haacke, M. Evans, Alice Mosier.

A Statement.

EDITOR BULLEIN:
I wish, thru your columns, to correct an impression that appears to have become current, to the effect that I am seeking the nomination on the Democratic ticket for the office of County Judge. This was and is, farthest from my thoughts, as I have no political aspiration whatever. I don't want the nomination or the office and wouldn't qualify were I to receive either or both. I can't conceive how the report was first circulated, and take this occasion to emphatically disclaim any knowledge of any circumstance that may have led to the report, or any desire for political honors.

Very truly yours,
J. P. CARROLL.

TO OUR PATRONS
Another year has rolled around and before one can scarcely realize that the year 1911 has passed we find ourselves preparing for the season of 1912.
Our buyer, Mr. M. C. McCarty started last Thursday on his regular trip east to purchase our spring and summer stock. You might think that this is money thrown away, but, on the contrary this is one of the reasons why we can sell you goods at a lower price than the merchants less fortunate in being able to take advantage of this opportunity.
We go twice each year direct to the largest markets of the country, visit the different manufacturers and importers and with the ready cash to pay down for every dollar's worth that we buy, we find them only too willing to sacrifice the price for our trade.

We have no bad accounts or a book-keeper's salary for you to help pay for, which saving we give you in bigger values in all classes of merchandise you buy.
Buying our goods as we do for spot cash, in large quantities, we know that we can save you big money by buying your goods of us; we know that we are selling our goods on a very close margin, putting just every ounce of value into each article that you purchase that it is possible to put there. We do not mark our good up on the start and then as the season comes on make a "Grand Reduction" and close them out at a "great sacrifice." If the goods are marked right—unless later you found out that they were not just what they should be—no merchant can afford to pay help, lights, rent, insurance and hundreds of other expenses and sell goods at less than cost. We have always marked our goods right and try and give our customers the greatest possible values for their money. We aim to treat you as we would expect to be treated ourselves if conditions were reversed.

We fully believe that you appreciate our way of doing business by our increasing trade and patronage and we wish to thank you one and all for the very liberal support that you have given us and promise you that we are ever endeavoring to improve our stock so as to make it more worthy of your appreciated trade.
