If you have any carpenter work to do and want it done right, get "Happy."

J. K. McGregor returned Wednesday from a visit to Portland.

A number of our residents who have been sick lately are reported as improving.

John Carroll was a business visitor in Moro the first of the week.

Don't forget the baseball meeting tomorrow night at the Bulletin office.

Miss Lucy Mullins left for Hood River on Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Emry.

J. P. Carroll was transacting business at the county seat last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Marsh were visitors at The Dalles on Tuesday.

B. F. Reeves returned Wednesday from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stark arrived from Hood River Wednesday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Wm Akers.

Mark A. Mayer left Portland Wednesday in a private car for New York, where he will remain several months.

There are big bargains in those special sales at Stewart's, commencing tomorrow. See regular ad.

Carroll Cole returned home last Saturday from Portland, where he has been attending school this winter.

Mr. Ed Evans, who has spent the past year at his old home in Iowa, returned last Tuesday and will remain here until spring.

Remember the big country educational meeting this afternoon at Stroup's Hall, and come out in force.

The home basket ball team will play a match game with the Unitarian Boys' Club of Hood River tonight at Stroup's Hall. Game called at 7:30.

Valentines! Valentines! Valentine! Come in and see the line of new Valentine and Valentine Post Cards from one penny to one dollar. Remember your friends and perhaps they will remember you.

Messrs. Elmer Root and Ben Veatch last week purchased the Haacke saw mill and planer. It is their intention to move the mill from its present location in the timber several miles south of town, into the town and haul the logs down to it.

We call attention to the "ad" in this issue of the Electric Wiring & Supply Co., of Hood River. The company is prepared to do electrical work in all its branches, and carry all kinds of supplies.

The Commercial Club, and all who are interested in securing benefits for Mosier District, will hold a meeting tonight at the Bulletin office to discuss measures for securing more publicity. Every body come.

H. M. West, of Portland, was in town several days this week looking after business interests. Mr. West recently purchased 40 acres of land adjoining Ed L. Howe's place on the north and will have it cleared out and set to trees this spring. He will build on the land in the near future and bring his family up from Portland.

C. H. Leiton, who has charge of the construction work of the Pacific Power & Light Co., moved his gang of workmen from Rowena into Mosier this week. Mr. Leiton states that the wires would be strung into town within a week and that the company would then be ready to furnish electricity to those whose whose buildings are wired.

School Notes.

The English classes of the High School are writing essays on How to Improve Country Life, two of which will be read at the mass meeting to be held for the purpose of discussing the betterment of country life. Competition is becoming quite lively and the essays promise to be very interesting.

Friday, Jan. 26th, the literary society held a meeting for the purpose of electing new officers which are as follows: President, Robert Searee, Secretary, Marie Shogren, School Reporter, Altha Vedder, Program Committee, Alefora Haacke, Evelyn Nebendahl, Philip Goss, Grace Higley and Emily Husbands.

The society is ready to take up its former work, which was discontinued for a time owing to "Uncle Silas" and the eight grade examinations. The next program will be given Feb. 23rd at the school, to which the public is cordially invited.

Three groans for current events. We had hoped they were in the school house grave yard but Professor Johnson has resurrected them.

Friday, Jan. 26th the athletic association elected Richard Searee as "yell" leader. Several new yells were practiced, and we all note that "Dick" is there. "Dick" too admits that he has a "beautiful voice."

Master Carrol Cole has returned to school and is taking up 5th grade work.

Grand View Notes.

Mrs. Stanley Eastman is visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

Miss Maude Bateham is spending the week visiting Mrs. R. H. Cummings.

An epidemic of some kind seems to be prevalent among the horses of Mosier.

Mr. Littlepage lost a valuable mare, Monday night, adding another animal to the already long list.

Mr. Stanly Eastman returned recently from a trip to Portland.

Miss Ruth Clement spent the week end at Bateham Ranch.

The visitors register at Alta Vista show that Miss Sarah Clement was the guest of Mrs. Cummings on Thursday and that the Littlepages spent Friday afternoon and evening.

MISS KEARNEY PLEASES.

The lecture on "Russia as I saw It," given in Stroup's Hall last Monday night by Miss Belle Kearney, was full of interest, depicting the manners and customs of all classes of Russians. Miss Kearney has a charming personality which, with her broad knowledge of her subject, gained by personal experience and observation, made her talk all the more interesting. It is a pleasure to meet this noted lecturer, traveler and author, and we hope to hear her again.

Dufur is to have a postal saving bank in the near future.

The Dufur Dispatch says that quite a little excitement has been created in Central Crook county over the discovery of gold on the Deschutes near the vicinity of Lower Bridge. The gold is found in the sand of the river and some of the sand which has been assayed runs $18 to the ton and it is said that it will average $12 or better.

TAXES

We wish to remind the taxpayers of Mosier District that they may pay their 1911 taxes here—just as they did last year.
