Birthday Party.

Last Thursday evening as W. A. Husbands was enjoying an evening away from home he was called suddenly home by a long distance phone message. On his arrival he found the message to be a house full of friends with tables all set to play him a progressive game of 500. W. A. was agreeably surprised and treated it as a good joke on him and soon the fun began. At a late hour the scores were counted and it was found that Mrs. Wm. Marsh won the Lady's prize, while W. A. Husbands won the gentleman's prize.

After dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake, all departed, wishing W. A. had a birthday to come oftener than once a year. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Root, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marsh, Misses Denny, Harvey and Huntington, Messrs. Harvey, Higley, Clyde and Leslie Root.
