C. L. McKenna, of Portland, spent Sunday in Mosier.

Mrs. Wm Marsh visited in Hood River Tuesday afternoon.

C. E. Rhodes and Ed Keller were visitors in The Dalles on Monday and Tuesday.

Dr. C. A. Macrum, of Portland, spent a part of Tuesday at his fruit farm near town.

BORN: In Mosier, March 22nd, 1912 to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Evans, a daughter.

BORN: On Friday morning, March 22nd, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brooks, a daughter.

J. M. Elliott, N. P. Sturgess and O. E. Wilson were business visitors at the county seat on Monday last.

C. A. Moseley, of Hood River, was a Mosier visitor on Monday, looking after his property interests east of town.

Guy H. Wilson came up from Oswego last Friday evening and spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in town.

J. C. Speer, of Hood River, was up Sunday and spent part of the day on his ranch East of town.

Mrs. W. A. Cole arrived from Portland last Friday evening and is visiting with her son, Jas. E. Cole, and family.

F. H. Howard and wife, of Hood River, spent the day at their ranch East of Mosier, in the Grand View neighborhood.

W. W. Wilson, representative of the Boston Rubber Co., of Portland, was in town on Monday interviewing our merchants.

Chas. Spurling moved his family, the first of the week up to Kenneth Cooper's ranch, where he will work clearing land for Mr. Cooper.

Our townsmen, D. D. Hail, is out for the nomination as a candidate to the republican national convention. Mr. Hail's announcement appears in this issue.

Mrs. Roxey Willett, of New York, arrived here last week and will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Carpenter.

A. W. Mohr and Roy T. Campbell are out this week with their announcements as republican candidates at the primaries, April 19.

Claude Knight, candidate for county treasurer, was down from The Dalles last Friday getting acquainted with Mosier voters.

He was accompanied by Fred W. Wilson, who acted as sponsor for him.

E. C. Smith, of Hood River, candidate for the office of District Attorney, was in town last Saturday interviewing the republican voters. All voters like to meet a candidate and "size him up." Judging from the many expressions of approbation from the citizens here, Mr. Smith is evidently a favorite so far in the running.

A hearing was conducted last week by Judge A. E. Lake as to the sanity of Jerome McNeil, of this city. The examining physician was Dr. Fred Thompson and it was upon his report that the court ordered his removal to the state hospital for the insane. Attendees from the institution came up last Thursday and took the patent to Salem.—Optimist.

Birthday Social Success.

The birthday social, given at the Baptist Church on Thursday evening of last week by the Ladies Aid Society, was a success socially and financially. The object of the social was to raise money to apply to payments on the new piano which was purchased for the church some time ago. Each person attending was supposed to place in a little bag, pennies, or other coin of the realm, the sum total representing his age. Counting a penny for each year, there were about 5200 years represented. This sum was most satisfactory to the committee, as it will enable them to make two payments on the piano.

The entertainment of the evening consisted of vocal and instrumental music, all furnished by local talent, with the exception of Miss Lois Taylor, of The Dalles, who sang "Good Night, Little Girl," with "The Merry Lark" as an encore. Each number on the program was received with hearty applause by the large audience from the town and country, each number responding to an encore.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served and a general good time was had, when the guests departed for their several homes, having spent a very pleasant evening.

J. P. Erhart and Wm. Marsh have about completed an 8-room bungalow for C. L. McKenna, on the tract of land two miles east of town. The house will be occupied by Mr. Burton, who has charge of the property. "Happy" says he is now ready for another job.

Mr. King returned Wednesday from Portland, where he secured contractors to clear land on the Sundborg place. These contractors have engaged several gangs of laborers who will be here soon to start work. It is Mr. King's intention to clear a large acreage this spring.

LOSES AN EYE.

A young son of Hans Olsen had the misfortune, one day last week, of having an eye put out by a branch of a tree. His father took him to The Dalles Hospital, where an operation was performed and the injured eye removed. The little fellow is making a satisfactory recovery.
