SOMETHING for the LITTLE ONES

OPTICAL TOY QUITE AMUSING
Can Easily Be Made by Using Piece of Cardboard With Two Objects of Different Sides.

How many children know what a thaumatrop is? Very few, by that name. But most of them have seen thaumatropes. The dictionary says that a "thaumatrop is an optical toy depending for its action upon the per-istence of an image on the retina of the eye. On opposite sides of a disk are depicted two objects or different parts of the same object, so that when the disk is rapidly twirled around a diameter the two sides appear to be seen at once and their images are combined.

Thaumatropes are not hard to make. Just cut out those pictures, paste them on opposite sides of a cardboard and twirl it by means of the string as shown also in the illustration, and you will have a thaumatrop.

OPINIONS AS TO FRIENDSHIP

"Most of us start out in girlishhood with rather definite opinions as to friendship," says Anne Bryan McCall in Woman's Home Companion. "A friend should be this or that. We have the matter all settled in our minds. And then, along comes some experience entirely outside our expectation. The friend to whom we have vowed undying devotion falls in some essential and disappoints us deeply. The structure we thought secure for all time falls suddenly. Some of us may perhaps sit among the ruins, bewailing and lamenting; but the healthy minded girl faces the fact squarely and looks about for reasons.

"One reason our friendships fall is that we think of them as complete and established things. Friendship is a thing never complete—it is always in the making. A vow of friendship, no matter how earnest, is at best, only a promise to pay; whereas many of us mistake it for a payment in itself. Take any of these big qualities and requirements of every honor, unselfishness, fidelity—does it occur to you that any one of these can be established once and for all? Indeed, it cannot. Loyalty yesterday is not loyalty today, nor will an unselfish act of the day that is past serve to meet the obligation of usefulness of the day that is here. It is not a luxury, this, that can be bought and paid for and a receipt given.

CUSTOM OF SHAKING HANDS

Display of Friendly Feeling Originated When Men Were in Habit of Carrying Swords.

Did you ever ask yourself why you shake hands with persons whom you know? Here is the reason: In the old days, when every man who had any pretensions to being a gentleman carried a sword, it was the custom for men when they met to show that they had no intention of treachery to offer each other their weapon hands—that is, the hand that would be used to draw the sword, and to withhold the hand was usually the signal for a fight.

So fixed did this habit become that long after men ceased to wear swords they still offered the weapon hand to a friend and declined to offer it to an enemy. To this day when you refuse to shake hands with a person it signifies that you are at war. Among savages, who never carried swords, the practice of shaking hands is unknown, and it affords them amusement to see the white men do it.

An Electric Scarf Pin.
Perhaps the smallest electric motor in the world is in the scarf pin of D. Goodwin McKinney, Tex. He is a skilled watchmaker and recently he constructed the motor, which is so small that a 10-cent piece will cover it. It weighs only nine-one hundredths of an ounce. The front of the motor is of highly polished gold and the commutator and segments are of the same metal. Mr. Goodwin wears the curiosity in his necktie and it makes a very attractive decoration, the nature of which can only be discovered by close inspection.

Origin of Words.
"How did there come to be so many words in the world?" asked Little Lo, who was turning the leaves of a dictionary.
"Oh," replied her eight-year-old brother, "they came through folks quarreling. One word brought on another, you know."

CURRENT EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Doings of the World at Large Told in Brief.

General Resume of Important Events Preserved in Condensed Form for Our Busy Readers.

The prince of Wales is on a visit to Paris.
The levee at Hickman, Ky., gave way and the town is under water.
Eastern coal miners now on strike say they believe settlement will be reached by April 30.

A big run of smelt have entered the Sandy river at Troutdale, Or., the first time in seven years.
Many English miners are returning to work, but a vote on the question showed them to be about evenly divided.

Painters, decorators, carpenters, granite workers and clerks have joined the striking textile workers in various parts of New England.
General Fred D. Grant is seriously ill with the same throat trouble which caused the long illness and final death of his father, General U. S. Grant.

Police of Aberdeen, Wash., jailed 61 I. W. W. strikers and agitators, and all red flags displayed were immediately seized and destroyed by citizens.
No will can be found of the late John Arbuckle, the millionaire coffee king, and it is believed the estate of about $20,000,000 will be divided according to law.

Friends of Clarence S. Darrow, under indictment for jury bribing in the McNamara trials in Los Angeles, have been asked to assist in defraying the expenses of his defense.
The British coal strike situation continues to improve.

Citizens of Mill Valley, Cal., are up in arms against the wandering at large of a pet alligator belonging to a prominent physician of that city, but the doctor says he can't find a muzzle of any kind that will fit an alligator, and insists that the creature is perfectly harmless anyhow.
Eleanor Sears, a Boston heiress, will play in a men's polo game.

Senator Lorimer was vindicated by a special investigating committee of eight senators.
Two ocean-going vessels will be built at St. Helens, Or., by the McCormick interests.

Striking mill workers and I. W. W. members continue rioting at Aberdeen, and city officials and police are powerless.
Sir Edward Gray, in the house of commons, says England is not acquisitive and that the Monroe doctrine is not worrying her in the least.

After a conference in Cleveland, it appears almost certain that a big strike of bituminous coal miners will take place throughout the East.
Charles A. Prouty, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission, declares the public have a right to receive notice in advance of any contemplated railroad strike.

Chicago—A $1000 bill, which it is believed may be one of the notes in the $173,000 theft of government money from the Chicago sub-treasury some years ago, was found in a Chicago theater and turned over to government secret service men. George W. Fitzgerald, a former teller in the sub-treasury, is under indictment for the alleged theft of the money.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when medicine is so much needed as in the spring. The blood is impure and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples, boils and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength.

The best spring medicine, according to the experience and testimony of thousands annually, is Hood's Sarsaparilla

It purifies and enriches the blood, cures eruptions, builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs.

In the Declaration.
Too often in speech and print occur "Uncle Sam's common people," "My servants," "Our middle classes." Republican France still adores her prince and despises her poor. The United States and the Kingdom of Heaven were founded for the homes of the poor and the weary and the persecuted—not for funky monkeys.

MEXICO BUYING WAR MUNITIONS

Allowed to Ship Supplies From United States.

As Revolutionists Have Not Been Recognized as Belligerents, Neutrality is Not Violated.

Washington, D. C.—President Madero, of Mexico, has decided upon a vigorous campaign against the rebels, and the American government has consented to permit the shipment from the United States of arms and ammunition for his soldiers. These important developments were learned here Monday.

It is the intention of President Madero to replenish his diminished army with fresh recruits, throwing them around the strongholds of the rebels. The problem of arming them has been simplified by a decision of the United States authorizing, by special permission in each case, the Mexican government to buy munitions of war in the United States and ship them across the border.

Under this policy three consignments of arms and ammunition already have gone into Mexico. The joint resolution of congress under which President Taft's recent proclamation forbidding the exportation of munitions of war was issued authorized the president to make exceptions at his discretion. The attitude of President Taft, as explained by officials here, is to permit the Mexican government to buy whatever it pleases in this country. This is no violation of neutrality, it is added, as the belligerency of the revolutionists has not been recognized.

Extreme precautions will be taken to prevent war supplies consigned to the Mexican government from falling into the hands of the rebels, to whom is denied the privilege of receiving such materials under the president's proclamation.

If the Madero plans carry, the rebel force now operating in Chihuahua soon might find itself on the defensive, being taken in the rear by a northern army and attacked in front by the considerable regular army now at Torreon, composed of parts of the three columns originally dispatched under as many leaders to attack Orozco's forces in the neighborhood of Chihuahua.

Meanwhile the American army and navy remain idle, so far as Mexico is concerned.

LIGHT-KEEPER DOOMED.
Death or Insanity May Be Fate of Imprisoned Woman.

Ottawa, Ont.—Rescue parties have been unable to break over the ice barriers and take Mrs. Wilfrid Bourque from Bird Rock Beach tower.

Three weeks ago her husband, the lighthouse keeper, was drowned. His body was recovered and taken to Groose Isle, but the top of the lighthouse can only be reached by means of a hoist to which a basket is attached, into which one passenger at a time can go.

A ship could not get near enough to work this hoist. It is feared when the rescuers finally reach the lighthouse they will find the widow dead or insane. No boat can reach the isolated, barren, icebound rock for days and perhaps weeks. Her husband was out at the edge of the rock shooting a sea gull when slipped over the cliff and was drowned.

The widow could see the recovery of his body, but could not communicate with the rescuers. Bird Rock, on which she is a prisoner, is one of the Magdalene group.

Whole Battalion Mutinies.
El Paso—The recent defeat of the federal force by rebels at Corralitos and the chain of reverses which followed were due, it is said, to mutiny of the Twentieth battalion. The mutiny developed at the beginning of the battle, the men protesting against the lack of food and the hard marches and presenting other grievances. The remainder of the command of General Salas were compelled to fight their former comrades, while only a remnant of the force was available for the attack on the rebel position.

Chinamen Accuse Police.
San Francisco—Alleging that the San Francisco police department had entered into the inner workings of the recent tong wars here to the extent of arresting certain members of the Sen Sze Ng tong at the instigation of the Hop Sing tong, an attorney representing the Sen Sze Ng tong and other tong filed charges with the police commissioners. Chief of Police White, the detectives and prison departments and others were included in the charges of kidnaping, dereliction of duty and insubordination.

Shoe Workers May Unite.
Boston—Representatives of the shoe workers' unions of the country assembled here March 30 to take action on a proposition to amalgamate all shoe trade unions. Several hundred thousand shoe workers were represented.

Agitation for a merger has been going on for months in Lynn. It is favored by the manufacturers, it is said, because they believe it would tend to prevent strikes.
Wine Cheater is Fined.
Paris—A wine grower in the South has just been condemned to a heavy penalty for putting water into his vintage. The sentence is one month's imprisonment, a fine of $400, the payment of 155,000 francs in dues, and the confiscation of the wine. The Wine Growers' confederation which had intervened in the case, obtains $100 and the insertion of the judgment in several newspapers.

His Quotation.
A high school boy who had failed in an English examination took the teacher to task because she had asked no questions on "The Merchant of Venice," one of the books studied. At the second examination, the first question was "Give a quotation from The Merchant of Venice." When the boy handed in his paper, imagine the teacher's feelings as she read, "O hell! what have we here?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Getting the Facts.
"Mrs. Ashcraft, the summer boarder inquired, 'why do you keep these guinea hens?'"
"My husband has me cook one of 'em once in a while," answered the farmer's wife. "He says he likes their gany flavor."
"Mr. Ashcraft," said the boarder, later in the day, "why do you keep these guinea hens?"
"O, my wife likes to hear 'em sing," responded the farmer.

BLUE! BLUE! BLUE!
Blue that's all blue. RED CROSS BALL BLUE delights the laundress. A wash day necessity. Once tried, always used. A standard bluing for 30 years.

Second Bunch for Him.
The other day I went to see a little boy, who was sick, and took with me a bunch of grapes for the little invalid. Donald's father hung the grapes in front of the mirror, thinking the reflection would amuse him. After a while Donald's little brother came into the room and Donald said: "Richard, there are two bunches of grapes there. The one in the glass is for you."—Chicago Tribune.

Good Profit in Begging.
The streets of London never fall to attract the professional beggar and never disappoint him. The Mendicity society tells us that a beggar can earn more than the wages of the average working man, and that "it is probably no exaggeration to say that well over £100,000 ($500,000) is given away haphazard to beggars in the streets of London every year."

Stimulate Children?

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. "He will probably answer, 'Very, very frequently.'" Then ask him about Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a strong and safe tonic for the young. Not a drop of alcohol in it.

Always keep a box of Ayer's Pills in the house. Just one pill at bedtime, now and then, will ward off many an attack of biliousness, indigestion, sick-headache. How many years has your doctor known these pills? Ask him all about them. Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.
