W. A. Bell, Candidate for District Attorney, was in town Wednesday, having come up from Hood River, where he was sizing up the political situation. Mr. Bell wore a happy smile and said he was willing to take his chances with his opponents in all three of the counties.

Mr. Wm. Akers brought into our office this week a fibrous growth of roots, presumably poplar, which he extracted from his water pipe. The pipe had become so clogged that water was shut off and when Mr. Akers investigated he found a growth 14 feet long that had completely filled up the pipe. If left to grow it would undoubtedly have grown to the other end of the pipe.

Easter Sunday at Emmanuel Church

Both morning and evening services will emphasize the Easter theme. In the morning Mr. Hargreaves sermon subject will be "Light in the Darkness" In the evening there will be a special song service.

Every body welcome.

Register!

Have YOU overlooked the very important matter of registering? Remember, you can't vote at the primary, April 19, unless you register, without the formality of swearing in your vote on that day, which takes time and is always a nuisance, altho the law allows it.

If you would like to see your particular candidate nominated, register and then, to make your vote count, get out and vote at the primary.

Leap Year Party.

A most enjoyable evening was spent last Saturday when the members of the Woman's Club entertained their husbands at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosier. The evening was passed in music and "brain-testing" contests and at a late hour tempting refreshments were served, each lady having as a partner and waiting on "the other lady's" husband. The occasion was voted one of the most successful affairs of the season.

Miss Annie Haacke returned Thursday from a brief visit with her parents at Portland.

Mrs. Electa Masten went to The Dalles yesterday to make final proof on her homestead.
