Tailor's Cutting Retort.

A newly elected Australian labor M. P. returns his occupation as "tailor's cutter"—an avocation rarely represented in parliament. Some time ago, says the London Chronicle, Australia had a remarkably eloquent and witty tailor, who became not only an M. P., but a minister of the crown. To him a new governar made this maladroit remark: "I hear, Mr. Jones, you were once a tailor?" "Yes, my lord, I was." "And how are you engaged now?" "Taking your excellency's measure."

Newspaper Has Record for Size.

The largest newspaper in the world was the Illuminated Quadruple Constellation, which appeared in New York on Independence day, 1858. Its dimensions equaled that of a billiard-table—eight feet long by six feet wide; and, strange to say for an American publication, it had no advertisements. A copy of this mammoth new world production can be seen at the Newspaper Museum of Aix-la-Chapelle, France. Its price was fifty cents.

PURE-BRED SIRE PROFITABLE

When Colt Reaches Market Age High Price Paid as Service Fee Is More Than Saved to Owner.

As a business proposition it pays to breed mares to pure-bred stallions, although the service fees of such horses are higher than those of the grade or mongrel and scrub. The fees of the latter are $5 and $10 less at the time of service, but when the colt reaches market age the saving is lost. There is at that time a difference of at least $100 in value in favor of the colt from the pure-bred sire, so that the higher service fee has proved a profitable investment. Then, too, there is a ready, appreciative outside market for the good grade colt, while the scrub goes to the local buyer at low figures and there is little if any demand for such horses.

We are fast improving our cattle, sheep and hogs. Our grains and fodder crops are up to date in purity of seed, quality and average returns. Our horses, however, are away behind the procession. The use of grade, scrub and mongrel stallions keeps them there and their production is profitless.

It is high time to put our horses on a plane with our other animals in point of breeding and quality, and it can only be done by owners of mares absolutely refusing to patronize stallions other than those of pure breeding, soundness, prepotency and high individual character and quality. When such sires can be found the service fee is of little moment. The colt will pay for the fees and return fine profits when sold. The continuous use of pure-bred sires, intelligently employed, will also quickly fill the state with high grade mares in place of the sorry aggregation of mongrels and misfits now disgracing many farms.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Fourteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elgin, Ill.—"After fourteen years of suffering everything from female complaints, I am at last restored to health.

"I employed the best doctors and even went to the hospital for treatment and was told there was no help for me. But while taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use until I was made well."—Mrs. HENRY LEISEBERG, 743 Adams St.

Kearneysville, W. Va.—"I feel it my duty to write and say what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female weakness and at times felt so miserable I could hardly endure being on my feet.

"After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following your special directions, my trouble is gone. Words fail to express my thankfulness. I recommend your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. G. B. WHITTINGTON.

The above are only two of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which show clearly what great things Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for those who suffer from woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Italian Winters.

The people of Florence, Italy, have a dislike for heating devices in their houses, although the weather in winter, especially when the tramontane is blowing, is uncomfortably cold. None of the houses have fireplaces, and the man who warms himself by means of the "scaldino," a pan of glowing ashes, is considered effeminate.

THEO. ROOSEVELT CARRIES OREGON

Four-Fifths of Vote Gives 7000 Over President Taft.

Woodrow Wilson Is Democratic Choice—Selling and Lane for U. S. Senators.

Republican.

Presidential preference — Theodore Roosevelt.

United States senator—Ben Selling.

Representatives—First district, W. C. Hawley; Second district, N. J. Sinnott; Third district, A. W. Lafferty.

Secretary of state—B. W. Olcott.

Dairy commissioner—J. D. Mickle.

Railroad commissioners—First district, T. K. Campbell; Second district, C. B. Aitchison.

Supreme judge—Robert Eakin.

Democratic.

Presidential preference — Woodrow Wilson.

United States senator—Harry Lane.

Representative—Third district, M. G. Munly.

Secretary of State—John B. Ryan.

Railroad commissioner—Second district, Lew Anderson.

Portland—Nearly four-fifths of the vote of the state of Oregon on President and United States senator has been counted and reported. These returns indicate that Theodore Roosevelt has carried Oregon over President Taft by about 7000 votes and has obtained a plurality over Robert La Follette of about 5000.

Ben Selling has carried Oregon over Senator Bourne by at least 8000, according to pesent indications, with the probability that the plurality will run up to 8500.

These estimates are based on returns from all but 14 precincts in Multnomah county, complete returns from Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Hood River, Sherman and Wasco counties, and more or less complete returns from every other county in the state.

On the Democratic count it seems certain that Woodrow Wilson has received the preference of the Oregon voters for president and that Harry Lane, of Portland, will be the Democratic candidate for senator.

Returns from results on the Democratic ticket are meager, however, and no estimate can be made of the total vote cast, so that likewise estimates of pluralities are impossible.

Returns received on the Republican ticket supply a total so far of 62,871 votes for president. Of these Roosevelt has 25,034; Taft, 17,986; La Follette, 19,851. The pluralities shown in the partial returns are as follows: Roosevelt over La Follette, 5183; Roosevelt over Taft, 7044.

TORNADO KILLS 32 IN ILLINOIS AND INDIANA

Chicago — Thirty-two persons are known to have been killed, half a score were injured so severely that they may die, and 150 others were more or less hurt in two tornadoes which swept over Southern Illinois in one instance, and across Northern Illinois and Indiana in the other, just before sunset Sunday night. Fifteen were killed at Bush, Ill.; five at Willisville, three at Reddick, Ill., and nine at Morocco, Ind.

Others may be found beneath the wreckage of what was Bush, every building there being demolished. Forty injured from this town alone were brought into Murphysboro, where the storm also severely injured three late at night.

Houses, sheds and farm buildings near Coal City were demolished, windmills were blown down and many head of cattle were reported killed. The tower above mine No. 3 at Carbon Hill was toppled over.

J. P. Morgan's Luck Holds.

New York—J. Pierpont Morgan's star of good luck still was in the ascendant in the 76th year of his life, for the banker had thought earlier in the year to return to America on the Titanic. Henry Clay Frick in February had engaged a suite in the Titanic, but Mrs. Frick sprained her ankle when the Adriatic stopped at Madeira and went to a hospital in Naples. Mr. Morgan took over Mr. Frick's booking. Then Mr. Morgan decided to extend his stay and passed the reservation to J. Horace Harding.

Ship Refuses Succor.

New York—Robert E. Daniels, a young cotton broker of Philadelphia, said he jumped into the sea as the ship was going down and was picked up in a lifeboat. Mr. Daniels, who is an amateur wireless operator, spelled the operator of the Carpatia on her way out to port. "I was in my cabin dictating to a stenographer when the ship struck the berg," said Mr. Daniels. "The shock was not violent. The officers told me afterward that the Titanic slipped upon the iceberg and practically broke in two.

Bereaved Will Be Aided.

Portland—A fund has been started among British residents now living in this city and vicinity for the widows and orphans of the sailors lost on the Titanic, and James Laidlaw, British consul, has agreed to take charge of all subscirptions, which he will forward to the proper quarter. This Portland fund started in the office of Balfour, Guthrie & Co. Mr. Laidlaw's office at the northwest corner of Third and Oak streets.

New Fears Due In China.

Hongkong— Fears are entertained of further disorders in Canton. Thousands of soldiers have returned from the North in a state of discontent and have been disbanded. The governor and general in command have been impeached for putting to death a Chinese editor. The provincial assembly and populace condemn the arbitrary action.

WRECK AROUSES CONGRESS.

Immediate Steps Taken to Control Wireless Operators.

Washington, D. C.—Stirred by the horror of the Titanic disaster, all official Washington is preparing for steps to minimize the possibilities of another such tragedy.

Congress began framing legislation to govern lifesaving appliances and wireless, and President Taft, doubly touched by the probable loss of his military aide, Major Archibald Butt, held conferences with cabinet officers to consider government control over the operation of wireless.

In the house what may result in a Federal investigation into the cause of the wreck and the enactment of protective measures was begun with resolutions offered by Representatives Mott and Hardwick. The Mott resolution provides for a searching inquiry by the merchant marine committee. The Hardwick resolution provides for lifesaving apparatus. Under the Mott resolution the merchant marine committee would sit as a court and compel the attendance of witnesses.

Chairman Alexander, of the committee, said that the catastrophe would stop the building of such enormous vessels. He favors a law to limit the size of vessels which visit American ports. The committee also expects to report a bill to regulate wireless.

President Taft was in conference nearly two hours with his cabinet officers, whose functions cover the operations of this new system of telegraphy. These were Secretaries Stimson, Meyer and Nagel. Attorney General Wickersham was called in to give legal advice as to the necessity in a legislative way of additional laws.

In recognition of the extensive interests of private corporations which have spent much in the equipment of ships and shore stations with wireless outfits, ex-Attorney General Griggs and Mr. Sheffield, representing the Marconi company, also were consulted, while the technical side of the question was discussed by Admiral Cone, engineer-in-chief of the navy, whose bureau directs naval wireless systems.

The discussion was general and touched particularly on the details of the bill, which probably will be proposed in the Navy department, to give effect to the terms of the general wireless convention to which America recently adhered.

Lord Burnham cabled to President Taft expressing sympathy for the "terrible loss of so many prominent and distinguished citizens and the appalling catastrophe which has befallen the Titanic."

By direction of the president, Acting Secretary Huntington Wilson, of the State department, sent a message in reply extending mutual sympathy.

The house adopted a resolution expressing condolence to the relatives of those who lost their lives on the Titanic. The resolution, offered by Representative Austin, of Tennessee, follows:

"Resolved, That this house has heard with profound regret and sympathy of the appalling loss of life on the steamship Titanic and expresses its deep sympathy for the relatives of those who perished in that great disaster."

THEORIES ARE MANY.

Expert Thinks Titanic Struck Huge Salt Water Iceberg.

Washington, D. C.—George Uhler, inspector general of the Federal steamboat inspection service, said he believed the Titanic struck the iceberg with such momentum that the impact buckled her to pieces.

Captain Charles A. McAllister expressed the belief that the mass which sent the Titanic to the bottom of the ocean was a salt water iceberg and not a polar berg, of glacial formation. He pointed out that the ratio of ice above water in such an iceberg was only one-ninth of its bulk.

Two Explosions Heard.

New York—Hugh Wollner, a son of Thomas Wollner, R. A., of London, says there were two explosions before the Titanic sank. He believes he was the last person to leave. He said: "Not long after the ship struck there came the first big explosion; then a moment later the second. It was the second explosion that did the most damage. It blew away the funnels and tore a big hole in the steamer's side. The Titanic careened to one side and passengers making for the boats were spilled in to the water."

Workers Ignore I. W. W.

Seattle—So far as can be learned, there was no response to the "proclamation" of the Industrial Workers of the World calling on the employes of the lumber industry in Washington to strike. The collapse of the strike on Grays Harbor and the failure of the attempt to tie up a big Tacoma mill have injured the prestige of the Industrial Workers among the mill workers. In Ballard, the large mill suburb of Seattle, Industrial Workers' agents who pleaded with millworkers to strike were jeered at.

March Exports Higher.

Washington, D. C.—Exports of cotton, foodstuffs and oils from this country in March were valued at $93,838,512, compared with $64,532,015 for the same month a year ago, according to a bulletin just issued by the commerce and labor department. For the nine months ended with March this year, there was a slight decrease in the exports, the total value being $791,205,116, against $792,670,270 for a similar period of 1911.

Rich Astor Gems Lost.

Paris—It is reported here that Mrs. John Jacob Astor had with her on the steamer Titanic, diamonds to the value of $3,000,000 which she bought from Cartier, the Paris jeweler. Cartier refuses to confirm or deny the report that he sold that amount of diamonds to her.

Pussy's had her dinner—
An AWFUL lot for her!
And so she sits a-sunning—

BUTTERFLY IS TRANSPARENT

Prof. Beebe Describes Insect Through Whose Outstretched Wings Objects Are Clearly Seen.

In "Our Search for a Wilderness," William Beebe of the New York Zoological park, describes his first sight of the transparent butterfly—Hoetera piera—of British Guiana, an insect through whose out-stretched wings any substance on which it rests can be clearly seen.

"As we crossed a swirling creek or the trunk of a mighty fallen tree, something fluttered ahead," he writes. "We could not see what it was. Closer we came, and still the object remained indistinct; we seemed to see a butterfly, and yet that appeared impossible. At last we marked it down on a fern frond, and crept up until our eyes were within two feet of it. Nothing was visible but the graceful lacework of the frond, until a slanting beam of sunlight struck it, and there, close before us, was a butterfly that spread fully three inches, but was wholly transparent, save for three tiny spots of azure near the margin of each hind wing.

"As we looked, it drifted to a double-headed flower of scarlet, and when it alighted, the scarlet of the flower and the green of the leaf were as distinct as if seen through thin mica, and the faint gray haze of the insect's wings was marked only by the indistinct venation."

AMUSING FOUR-HANDED GAME

Can Be Played With Partners or All Can Play Alone—Board Contains 100 Squares.

To make possible a four-handed game of checkers, two playing partners, or all playing their own game,

Four-Handed Checkerboard.

the board shown in the illustration has been constructed in France. The game is played with either 20, 36, 56 or 80 men, and the squares are in four different colors which divide the board diagonally into four triangles. It is well to note that the ordinary French checkerboard contains one hundred squares instead of the 64 of the American board.

YOUNG BEAVER'S DAY'S WORK

Industrious Little Animal In Regent's Park Gardens, London, Fells Tree Two Feet Thick.

A young beaver in Regent's Park Gardens, London, was once placed at work upon a tree twelve feet long and two feet six inches thick, just as the town clock sounded the hour of noon. The beaver began by barking the tree a foot above the ground.

That done he attacked the wood. He worked hard, alternating his labor with dips in his bathing pond. He bathed and labored alternately until four o'clock in the afternoon, when he ate his supper of bread and carrots and paddled about in his pond until 5:30 o'clock.

Ten minutes later, when only one inch of the tree's diameter remained intact, he bore upon his work and the tree fell. Before it fell the beaver ran as men run when they have fired a blast. Then as the tree lay on the ground, he portioned it out mentally, and again began to gnaw.

He worked at intervals all night, cut the log into three parts, rolled two of the portions into the water and reserved the other third for his permanent shelter.

Why Shoes Have Tongues.

Every one that wears lace shoes knows that there is a tongue of leather under the place where the two sides of the shoe meet, but there is none in button shoes. Probably very few persons know that this is a comparatively modern idea and is not for the purpose of keeping the laces from hurting the instep, but is to keep out rain and snow.

There would be no discomfort if the laces touched the sock, but no matter how closely a shoe may be laced up there is always a slight space which would allow rain to reach the stocking.

Not a Frog in His Throat.

Ever talk so much that flies get down your throat? A horse down in Connecticut last summer was not talking, but he was holding up his mouth, wide open, to engulf an apple from the limb of a tree. There was a swallow that had been frightened and it flew blindly into the horse's mouth. The horse choked to death and so did the swallow. Even if the horse had been able to swallow the swallow he would have remained hoarse.

Aerate Your Boiled Water.

Drinking water that has been boiled is usually so flat and tasteless that people are apt to dislike it exceedingly, and even though the health authorities order its use, many people will run the risk of contracting typhoid fever rather than take this precaution. If boiled water is thoroughly cooled and shaken up well in a bottle half filled, it will become aerated and have the sparkle and taste of freshly drawn well water.—Housekeeper.

Nervous? Thin? Pale?

Are you easily tired, lack your usual vigor and strength? Then your digestion must be poor, your blood must be thin, your nerves must be weak. You need a strong tonic. You need Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. We believe your doctor will endorse these statements. Ask and find out.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.
