Secret Revealed by Face.

If you want to get at the real strength and character of a person's face, study the right side of it—the ugly side, as portrait painters sometimes call it. There you will find the lines bold and harsh, with every defect accentuated. On the left side, however, everything is softened down, and the face is at its best. Whenever you suspect a man of trickery or deceit—and this rule applies equally to the fair sex—stand on his right and watch his expression closely.

Competition.

"Royalty has its difficulties," remarked the Lord High Keeper of the Buttonhook. "Yes," replied the uneasy monarch. "It has gotten so that a court function finds it hard to compete with the scenery and costumes of a big musical show."

Damage by Lightning.

Lightning does most damage in level, open country. A town or city, with its numerous projections and wires, is comparatively exempt.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT

THE POULTRY REMEDY.
Mr. Stephen Holbrooke, Sec'y Tacoma (Wash.) Poultry Ass'n writes:
"I will give Mexican Mustang Liniment an unequivocal endorsement as a remedy for Bumblefoot and Canker in the Throat. Hitherto I have found these diseases of my poultry very difficult to cure but Mustang Liniment proved to be a positive remedy."

Not to Be Driven Away.

A little city miss was visiting in the country and strayed out into the field one day where there were a few lambs. Exasperated by the incessant bleating of one of the lambs, she stamped her foot and said: "You can tell your ma-a and your pa-a and your family; I've got as much right here as you, and I'm going to stay—there!"—Delineator.

Stimulant or Tonic?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a stimulant. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. You have the steady, even gain that comes from such a medicine. Ask your doctor all about this. Trust him fully and always do as he says. He knows.

Who makes the best liver pills? The J. C. Ayer Company, of Lowell, Mass. They have been making Ayer's Pills for over sixty years. If you have the slightest doubt about using these pills, ask your doctor. Ask him first, that's best.

NERVE SAVES THIRTY LIVES

Heroic Mate Goes 110 Miles in Open Boat.

Crew Faces Death on Barren Isle for Eleven Days — Last Chance Wins by Three Hours.

Seattle, Wash.—Bringing Captain Charles Foos and the crew of the cod fishing schooner Joseph Russ, wrecked on Chirikoff Island April 21, the steamship Bertha, of the Alaska Coast company, has arrived in Seattle.

Giving a graphic description of the terrific storm which resulted in the loss of the schooner and the death of John Jorgensen, the vessel's first mate, members of the crew of the Russ declared that only for the heroism of A. E. Reeves (Scotty), second mate, and five sailors who went to Chignik in two open boats for assistance, all would have perished.

In a terrific gale, with heavy seas breaking over her, the Russ was driven ashore at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Grounding on the sand she held her own for several hours, but finally, as the heavy seas continued to pound her, the vessel's hatches gave way and she quickly filled with water. Captain Foss and 34 members of the crew had climbed high in the rigging and lashed themselves to prevent being carried away by the giant waves.

First Mate Jorgensen had started for the main mast to take refuge when a wave hurled him against the side of the vessel. His skull was crushed.

Here they hung until 6 a. m., when the storm subsided and the tide left the Russ high and dry.

Jorgensen was buried far up on the sandy beach and a wooden cross marks the grave.

Captain Foss and his crew built a hut of pine boards and in this they stored the small amount of provisions saved and established sleeping quarters.

It was when the provisions began to run low and they realized that Chirikof Island is uninhabited that Second Mate Reeves and five members of the crew volunteered to put out in two open boats for Chignik, 110 miles distant, for assistance.

They were fortunate enough to arrive at that port before the departure of the mail steamer Dora, which immediately proceeded to the rescue.

The rescue work was accomplished under great difficulties, as the lifeboats had to be driven through a treacherous surf, while fierce blasts of icy wind swept seaward.

To little Scotty, the marvel of the rescue is that had the two boats which put out on what looked like a hopeless errand been three hours later in arriving at Chignik, the 30 men certainly must have perished, as the Dora would have been gone by that time.

USE SIXTH SENSE.

Maxim Would Employ Animals at Sea to Protect Liners.

London—"I am working hard on an idea that, when perfected, will make a disaster like that to the Titanic impossible," said Hiram Maxim. "It is not beyond the realm of science to provide a ship with means of ascertaining whether any icebergs are within 10 miles, even in dense fog, rain or snow storms.

"I am not a spiritualist and I don't believe in any humbug of a superstitious nature, but I do know there are certain animals in the world, having no religion and therefore not superstitious, which can form a clear opinion and, you might say, have definite knowledge of objects in their vicinity without seeing or hearing them—that is, they possess a sixth sense.

"I believe that will be the plan on which mariners will have to rely hereafter, some time or other."

Noted Canvas is "Junk."

Monrovia, Cal.—Drawn by idle curiosity to a junk shop auction in Los Angeles recently, Dr. F. M. Pottenger, of Monrovia, bought for $100 a painting which pleased his fancy and was later pronounced by connoiseurs a Verboeckhoven masterpiece worth at least $20,000. Judges of art works declared the painting, a dairy scene, undoubtedly was from the brush of the famous Belgian artist, who died 30 years ago. They averred the painting was probably fifty years old.

River Menaces Needles.

San Bernardino, Cal.—Deflected by a large sandbar recently formed, the Colorado river, which is at flood stage from the melting mountain snows, threatens the destruction of part of the town of Needles. The 3000-foot concrete wall built by the Santa Fe railroad a year ago to protect the town from the river is crumbling and the roundhouses of the railroad are said to be in immediate danger. The change in the current swung the full force of the stream against the Needles side of the river.

Stand Up for Darrow.

Los Angeles—Names of prominent Chicagoans, including ex-United States senators, Federal and state judges, noted lawyers and city officials, were brought into the Darrow case by District Attorney Frederick in the examination of a talesman who formerly had resided in Chicago. All of those mentioned are said to have sworn to depositons regarding the high character and good reputation of the defendant.

Boys Make Biplane and Fly.

Spokane, Wash. — Two Spokane boys, Martin A. Denine and Glen Hemingway, have completed a biplane which this week was given its first successful tryout. An accident marred the initial flight, the machine going wrong after it had sailed 50 feet through the air at an average height of 15 feet. Denine, who was in the machine, was somewhat bruised by the fall.

TRUST PAYS REBATE.

Exclusive Dealing Condition of Tin Plate Concession.

New York—That the American Tinplate company deliberately suppressed competition and paid rebates to jobbers upon condition that they should handle the trust's goods exclusively was testified by James T. MacFarland, a Philadelphia jobber, in the government's suit to dissolve the United States Steel corporation. MacFarland said he had handled many special private brands of tinplate which independent companies manufactured for him. These brands he was forced to assign to the American Tinplate company in 1899, with a stipulation that he would not buy his tinplate elsewhere. According to a letter from the tinplate company to his firm, which was identified, the "trust's" purpose was "to protect this company in the exclusive manufacture of plate."

Later, he said, the American Tinplate company made an arrangement with jobbers whereby the company offered rebates on condition that the jobbers purchase their tinplate entirely from it. The rebate was from 1 to 3 per cent, he said, and was subsequently based on 90 and then 85 per cent of the total amount the jobber bought.

Competitors of the tinplate company were not willing to make this discount, testified MacFarland, and he added that the company was "not willing to manufacture brands for us in our name without being protected by this contract."

"And if we forfeited our brands," he continued, "we lost our business reputation."

Howard M. Davis, of Philadelphia, formerly a sales manager of the American Tinplate company and previously with the American Tinplate company of Ellwood, Ind., D. G. Reid's first company, was called. He testified as an expert on conditions in the tinplate industry at the time Mr. Reid and Judge William Moore brought about the consolidation under the control of the American Tinplate company of New Jersey.

"What per cent of the industry was controlled by this combination?" Davis was asked.

"My recollection is about 95 per cent."

When R. V. Lindabury, attorney for the Steel corporation, objected to Davis' answers as "hearsay evidence," on the ground that the witness had never attended the Gary dinners, Mr. Dickinson retorted:

"We'll establish the dates of those dinners later. We are going into that subject quite thoroughly."

PLEADS FOR LENIENCY.

Borah Would Have Land Laws Easier for Settlers.

Washington, D. C—In a speech delivered in the senate, Senator Borah, of Idaho, made a strong plea for the enactment of lenient land laws to relieve the burden upon the settler and to facilitate the development of the remaining public lands of the West susceptible of cultivation and improvement. While speaking particularly with reference to the homestead law, SenatorBorah referred also to other public land laws and to the question of conservation.

He paid his respects to those theorists who have done so much in late years to prevent the passage of sensible land laws, and maintained that the average Western citizen is a better conservationist than his Eastern brother, who knows nothing of the practical working of this recently developed policy.

More Hope for Laborers.

Phoenix, Ariz.—The anti-alien labor bill, the effect of which would be to force out of employment approximately 20,000 non-English speaking mine workers in Arizona, probably will not become a law at this session of the legislature, which is expected to end within a few days. The bill, which has been bitterly opposed by mining and railroad companies, was passed by the senate, but the house pigeonholed it. After a motion to table it was defeated it was referred to the printing commitete.

Ruef's Story Will Be Told.

San Francisco—As the result of the action of the State court of appeals in dismissing the indictments against Abraham Ruef, former political boss of San Francisco, the San Francisco Bulletin announced that it would resume the publication of Ruef's own story of the inner history of the graft ring. After publishing one chapter of Ruef's story the Bulletin printed the statement that the remainder of the story would be withheld until indictments still standing in the Superior court should be dismissed.

Aviator's Leg Taken Off.

St. Louis—Surgeons in attendance upon Peter Glasser, of Billings, Mont., driver of the aeroplane which was wrecked at Kinloch aviation field, when Glasser's companion, Raymond B. Wheeler, of Washington, D. C., was killed, decided that it would be necessary to amputate the wounded man's right leg in a final effort to save his life. Glasser and Wheeler were aviation students. Their machine was caught in a current of air and dashed against a pole.

Forest Fires Take Farm Buildings.

Rainier, Or.—At least five farmers have lost buildings and fences in a serious fire which started about five miles sotuhwest of Rainier.

Telephone wires are down and further information has not reached Rainier. The district burning is stump land or land burned over in former years. No green timber is ablaze. It is rumored the Portland Lumber company has suffered some loss.

Recites U. S. Constitution.

Tacoma—Washington Finley, a naturalized Englishman born in France, appeared among a list of applicants for citizenship papers and astonished the examiners by repeating the entire constitution of the United States. Examiner Staples said it is the purpose of the officials to make the examinations as difficult as possible so that alien applicants will place a greater value on their citizenship.

FIVE ARE LOST IN FOREST FIRES

Heavy Damage Done to Timber in State of Washington.

Wardens Rush Men to Skagit and Snohomish Counties to Fight Advancing Flames.

Seattle, Wash. — Five lives known to be lost, two men missing and property damaged several hundred thousand dollars are the results of several forest fires which have swept over the northwestern part of Washington. The fires are still burning uncontrolled, but in most sections the situation shows improvement and unless a wind springs up there is little fear of further disaster.

The most serious fires are in Snohomish county, where several sawmills and logging camps have been destroyed. The only loss of life reported occurred in the fire which destroyed four logging camps in Skagit county. Fifty million feet of green timber were destroyed by this fire. Other fires in Western Washington brought the total timber destroyed to 70,000,000 feet.

The fire wardens have rushed a large force of men into the field and believe they will be able to control the flames. They were encouraged in this hope by the weather bureau forecast of showers which would break the long dry spell which is held responsible for the rapid spread of the flames so early in the season.

Invasion By Fires Feared.

Everett, Wash.—The forest fire situation in Snohomish county is growing worse. The town of Sultan has been making a hard fight to prevent destruction of its water supply through burning of the exposed wooden pipe running from the source. Fires are near that place and it is feared they will invade the town.

The mill of the B. B. & R. company near Index, was burned with a loss of $30,000. Only a change of wind saved the plant of the Galena Index company at Index and also the town.

A sawmill was burned at Nippon, nine miles from Index. A big tract of timber near Sultan was twice swept by flames, the Weyerhaeuser company being the chief loser.

The fires are virtually unchecked because of the absence of green underbrush, such as would have grown had the blazes started a month later, as usual.

Accurate reports of the losses in Snohomish county have not been compiled, but unofficial figures give an aggregate property loss of $160,000.

CHINESE GIRL CASTS VOTE.

Pretty Tie Lung First Woman of Her Race to Enjoy Privilege.

San Francisco—Tie Lung, a pretty little Chinese maiden who lives at the Presbyterian mission house at 920 Sacramento street, holds the honor of being the first Chinese woman in the history of the world to exercise the electoral franchise.

Tie Lung is a native-born American, and she is 21 years old. She can read and write the English language better than a great many of her adult brethren, and she is familiar with the political issues involved in the primary presidential election. In the matter of political and social progress and enlightenment Tie Lung is not one step behind her American sisters, born of American parents.

Bandit House Real Fort.

Paris — Thousands of persons motored to the suburb of Nogen-sur-Marne to secure mementoes of the recent siege, which ended in the death of two automobile bandits, Garnier and Vallet. The villa was a regular arsenal. Several cases of cartridges were found, while a sort of trench had been built behind the walls, which were perforated with holes, affording the bandits an excellent means of defense and offense. The stern extermination of the outlaw chiefs meets with approval everywhere in France.

Necanicum Situation Bad.

Seaside, Or. — Miss Susan Clark, who has just rturned to town for more supplies for forest fire sufferers up the Necanicum, says it is a most deplorable state of affairs there. Some of the destitute people have not even a place to sleep. Help from Seaside has been hard to get, residents here being occupied in looking after the fire sufferers in the Monday night fire here. Miss Clark has been looking after these people personally as much as possible and has taken food and blankets to them.

Trial of Darrow Begins.

Los Angeles — In the same courtroom in the Hall of Justice where the McNamara brothers were sentenced to prison early last December, after pleading guilty to dynamiting, Clarence S. Darrow, of Chicago, their chief counsel, was placed on trial before Judge Hutton, of the Superior court, for the alleged bribing of George N. Lockwood, one of the veniremen in the trial of James B. McNamara. The charge of having bribed Juror Robert F. Bain will be ignored in the preent trial.

Standard Pays Big Fine.

Jefferson City, Mo.—The Standard Oil company paid a fine of $50,000 to the clerk of the Supreme court as a result of being prosecuted as a trust. There is a motion pending before the Supreme court on behalf of the company, asking that it may be permitted to pay the fine imposed upon it, with all costs of the prosecution, and that the order ousting it from the state be withheld, so long as it obeys the laws and the orders of the courts.

Widow is Chosen Mayor.

Sheridan, Wyo.—Mrs. Susan Wissler, a widow, was elected Mayor of Dayton, Wyo. Mrs. Wissler is a Democrat in politics, but was elected on the independent ticket. A majority of the votes were cast by women.

Spring-Cleaning

The Human System Needs It.

Mrs. M. Morgan, 411 4th Ave., E., Brainerd, Minn., writes: "I take from one to two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the spring to purify the blood just as regularly as I do my housecleaning, and go around light-footed and light-hearted. I believe it is the best blood purifier known."

Hood's Sarsaparilla so combines the curative principles of roots, barks and herbs as to raise them to their highest efficiency; hence its unequaled cures.

Took an Unfair Advantage.

Doctor Graham, a widely known physician in London, once conceived the plan of burying persons up to their necks in the earth and leaving them there for some hours as a cure for some diseases. George Dyer, it is said, in despair of anyone listening to him read his own poetry, took advantage of the situation of Doctor Graham's patients and read to them all the while they were stuck in the earth.

Importance of Physiognomy.

"Do you believe a man with a receding chin is likely to get along as well in this world as a man with a chin that projects?" "It all depends upon circumstances. If the man with the receding chin is a son of the president of the company and the man with the chin that projects is merely working his way up from the bottom I should be inclined to feel that physiognomy would not be of vast importance."

60 YEARS DOING IT

A Chinese Puzzle.

Some days ago we published a conundrum from the Chinese, taken from a Paris contemporary, but as we have not received the correct answer we give it, together with the original question. The question ran: "Young I am green, old I am yellow; well beaten I become compliant; if I accompany a friend for long, he urges me to leave him; young I am honored, old I am despised." The answer is "Straw slippers."—London Globe.

To the Teacher.

A teacher who can arouse a feeling for one single good action, for one single good poem, accomplishes more than he who fills our memory with rows on rows of natural objects, classified with name and form. For what is the result of all these, except what we know as well without them, that the human figure pre-eminently and peculiarly is made in the image and likeness of God?—Goethe.

Child's First Years Important.

A happy and healthy childhood, full of sunshine and merriment, and kindliness and understanding, means successful and helpful maturity. A great deal of failure is fear, and a great deal of sin is stupidity. And nothing so increases fear and begets stupidity as a disorderly and inconsequent environment in the first few years.—Anon.

IT GRATES ALL THE NUTMEG

New York Man's Invention Will Save Housewife From Grating Off Fingernails.

A nutmeg grater that grates all the nutmeg, down to the last scrap, has been designed by a New York man. It also saves the housewife from grating off her fingernails and the tips of her fingers. The grater proper is circular and is affixed to a wooden handle

Pivoted to the center is a revolving handle resembling a miniature motorman's controller, with a little cup in one end to hold the kernel and a spring cap to keep it in place and press it against the grater plate. The nutmeg is placed in this cap and the handle turned until the desired amount is ground off, the operation being much speedier than when kernel has to be rubbed across the grater by hand. Furthermore, the hand method results in waste, as after the nutmeg has been ground so small that it cannot be scraped without scraping the fingers as well, it has heretofore had to be thrown away.

Well-Ordered Life.

To do with as few things as we can, and, as far as we can, to see to it that these things are the work of freemen and not of slaves; these two seem to me to be the main duties to be fulfilled by those who wish to live at once free and refined, serviceable to others, and pleasant to themselves.—William Morris.

Lifelong Eccentric Dresser.

An old man who recently passed away in Whittinsville, Wash., during all the 88 years of his life had never worn stockings—because he hated the feeling of them; nor had he worn anything but a straw hat, summer and winter alike, to keep, as he expressed it, rain and snow from going down his neck.

Persian Lamb Skins.

The trade in Persian lamb or astrakhan skins centers in Turkestan, and the traders of that country have the entire monopoly of it. They pasture the ewe lambs in immense flocks, and it has been found useless to try to accustom these animals to any considerable change of climate. If they survive elsewhere, the skin undergoes degeneration and the fur consequently becomes less valuable.—Harper's Weekly.

Would Encourage Marriage.

Citizens from Aculco, state of Mexico, have come to this city, says the Mexican Herald, to complain against the action of the parish priest who recommends that all men of marriageable age should marry because if they do not they are liable to be enlisted by means of a lottery and made to serve in the army.

Shibboleth.

Shibboleth, now taken as meaning the watchword or slogan of a particular sect or party, had its origin in the incident recorded in Judges 8:1-16, wherein the word shibboleth was used as a test by the Gileadites to detect their foes, the Ephraimites. The Ephraimites were unable to pronounce the combination sh, and when put to the test called the word "sibboleth," thus betraying their breed and giving away their case.

Windfall in Old Hat.

There is something more than a joke in inheriting an old hat from an uncle. For the recent Mardi-Gras fete, in Paris, a motor bus driver, wishing to "dress up," borrowed from a restaurant keeper an old battered "top" hat, inherited from a deceased uncle. During the festivities, the wearer, in attempting to adjust his wig, knocked off the hat, and to his astonishment out fell nine 100 franc notes ($180). He hastened to put this unexpected bequest into the cafe keeper's hands.

Met Death in Strange Fashion.

A curious fatal accident occurred the other day in northern France, at Douai. An engineer was trying a new motor on the biplane in the shed belonging to M. Moineaux, the aviator. His muffler caught in the propeller and wound around the shaft, dragging the unfortunate man within reach of the blades. He was scalped and his skull fractured.

WOMAN SICK TWELVE YEARS

Wants Other Women to Know How She Was Finally Restored to Health.

Louisiana, Mo.:—"I think a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but complete restoration to health means so much to me that I cannot keep from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women.

"I had been sick about twelve years, and had eleven doctors. I had dragging down pains, pains at monthly periods, bilious spells, and was getting worse all the time. I would hardly get over one spell when I would be sick again. No tongue can tell what I suffered from cramps, and at times I could hardly walk. The doctors said I might die at one of those times, but I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got better right away. Your valuable medicine is worth more than mountains of gold to suffering women."—Mrs. BERTHA MUFF, 503 N. 4th Street, Louisiana, Mo.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
