Grandview Items

Howard Blackmar, who has been in Grandview for some time past, has returned to Portland.

Miss Elizabeth Banks, of Los Gatos, Cal., and Miss Marie Rodgers, of San Jose, Cal., arrived at Keewaydin Ranch May 11th, to spend the summer.

Grandview residents are rejoicing over the good rain we have had. Crops are looking fine.

D. B. Clement spent the last of the week in Portland.

Mrs. E. Frederick, with her son Paul and daughter Martha, of The Dalles, visited at Fairmont last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spring and A. F. Bickford, of Portland, were visitors at Fairmont Ranch last week. Mr. Bickford has a ten acre tract in this district.

J. E. Clark returned on Monday of last week from a business trip to Portland. After a few days at home he left for a week's fishing trip at Hood River. May he have the best of fisherman's luck.

Keewaydin Ranch, the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clement, was the scene of a very pretty home wedding, Wednesday morning, May 15th, when Mr. Jerome H. Daily and Miss Sarah Latham Clement were united in marriage by Rev. Hargreaves, of Hood River, the Presbyterian ring service being used. The bride looked very charming in her gown of imported embroidered batiste over white silk, and carrying a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. As she descended the stairs, Miss Ruth and Donald Clement sang the Bilal Chorus from "The Rose Maiden." The bride was met by the groom, who led her to the altar, their pathway being strewn with California rose petals. The house was a bower of beauty, the wild lupine being used as festooning, having the effect of wisteria. After congratulations, the family sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast, after which kodaks were much in evidence. The happy couple left with a camping outfit for parts unknown. Miss Marie Rodgers, of San Jose, California, was the only out of town guest.

Elmer Stroup had quite an exciting experience with a large rattlesnake last Saturday, while fishing on Major creek, on the Washington side. The weather was hot and snakes were out in force. Mr. Stroup had seen one snake which got away from him, and he was constantly on the watch for more; but he became so interested in the fishing that he forgot for a moment the danger from rattlers until he heard that peculiar metallic buzz which, once heard, is never forgotten.

Looking down he beheld a monstrous snake pecking vigorously at his foot. The thickness of the rubber boots he was wearing no doubt saved Elmer from being struck. After a lively scrap he killed the reptile, which measured about five feet in length and had seventeen rattles. This was probably the granddaddy of all the Washington snakes.

Immanuel Church Notes

For the benefit of such pupils and patrons of the school as may be interested in the discussion, Mr. Hargreaves will repeat on Sunday morning the sermon he preached to the High School class in Hood River, last Sunday.

Young people are extended a cordial invitation to the Pastor's Bible Class at Immanuel Church, Sunday morning.

We have the pleasure of announcing that the DeMoss Lyric Bards will be at Immanuel Church on June 6th. Many Mosier people will remember this family of singers.

ATTENTION!

Notice is hereby given that the School Board of District No. 52 desires bids on twenty-five (25) cords of 4-foot wood—oak, pine and fir, to be delivered into basement of the school building at Mosier. Bids to close May 25th. Right reserved to reject any or all bids.

JOHN P. ROSS, Clerk of Board.
