Fin the fastest and most accurate mechanics in the country—more work in less time. Phone 115.

E. M. Camp, of Gresham, is spending the week here with his son James, and family.

Mrs. Bertha Johnson and two children visited in The Dalles the first of the week.

Mrs. Bert Middleswart and children, of Parkdale, are visiting relatives here this week.

M. M. Farry, of Chicago, is spending the week here with his partner, R. D. Chatfield.

Wm. Marsh arrived home last Tuesday from Seaside, where he has been working at carpentering.

Rev. A. S. Black and wife and Mrs. A. L. Brower, of Wash., are spending a few weeks on the former's place, east of town.

C. J. Littlepage last week finished drilling a well on his place at Grandview. He struck a flow of good water at a depth of 255 feet.

Chas. Spaulding and family are occupying the Nelson cottage, having moved into town last week from the Cooper & Dunbar ranch.

J. C. Dawson, of The Dalles Electric Works, was in town on Monday and wired the residence of Ernest Evans, and the Baptist Church.

J. R. Tryon was down from The Dalles last Monday, bringing his little daughter, who has some spinal trouble, to be examined by Dr. Robinson.

Mrs. T. Lelliott and Mr. J. E. Proctor last week received the sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Frank Proctor, their brother's wife, in New York City.

The Ladies' Aid cleared $10 at their sale of strawberries and cake, last Saturday. This sum will be applied on the payment of the new piano at Immanuel Church.

Mrs. E. N. Stroup returned on Friday of last week from a three weeks' visit at Portland. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Blanche Keller, and her little brother, Emory.

Mosierites going to Portland this week were: The Misses Shogren, Mrs. D. Robinson, Mrs. J. K. McGregor, Mrs. B. J. Weller, E. A. McCarrar, H. M. West, Hans Kollander and F. A. Shorren.

Ortley Items

Eight machine loads of people from surrounding towns was the feature of Sunday at Ortley. Dr. and Mrs. Macrum, accompanied by Mrs. Wiedeman, were among the delegation from Mosier, and Mr. Miller and wife, editor of The Dalles Chronicle, represented The Dalles in the visiting crowd's.

A second delegation of business men from The Dalles, unable to further resist an inspection of the "new town on the hill," spent Friday afternoon in their diligent "inspection" and were so astonished at the developments taking place that expressions of wonder and incredulity were constantly passed. Among the callers were Judd Fish, Secretary of The Dalles Business Men's Association, J. Donnell, of the Donnell Drug Co., Peter Kuehling, manager of The Dalles Hotel, G. F. Newhouse, H. L. Kuck and Miss Bertha Willerton.

Having bought orchard tracts during the past ten days, C. H. Winchester, of Aberdeen, Wash., W. L. Stevens, of Topeka, Kan., Jno. Borgman, of Cedar Rapids, Mich., and J. W. Dearborn, of Portland, are moving to Ortley with their families, where they will make their future homes.

To inspect his interests here, Dr. A. D. Canfield made a flying trip from Portland and reported that it was hard to find his tract, so many improvements have been made since his last trip during the Fall.

Excavation and digging of ditches having been started for the Ortley water system, residents have begun installing their homes with up-to-date plumbing.

A. B. Bucklin, with his plastering crew, arrived from Hood River Saturday and have begun the hard finish on L. E. Adels' residence.

The Ortley Mercantile Company's store is now graced with a new postoffice cabinet, which all hands pronounce "the best ever."

Little Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh, celebrated her first birthday on Tuesday afternoon, with the help of several other little tots.

Having purchased one of the choicest lots in town, Mrs. Emily E. Lane, of Portland, has commenced excavation work on the site where a new bungalow will soon stand. Mrs. Lane is the mother of Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh.

Greenwood Cleanings

The past week's rain has left us greener than ever. Verily, Greenwood has been appropriately named.

Mr. C. Y. Cooper and family have moved up on the homestead or the summer, after spending the past six months in The Dalles.

Mr. R. Lee Wilkinson closed a successful term of school on Friday, May 24th. To show their good will and appreciation of the work of both teacher and pupils, the patrons came to school with basket lunches and, after listening to the children's work, proceeded to spread it out on Mother Nature's table and invited the school to feast with them.

The two Eighth Graders, Una O'son and Dorothy Godbersen, successfully passed the State Examination with high averages. Greenwood has now graduated four Eighth Graders in the past two years. Last year there were two boys—Roy D. Stoltz, who is now in The Dalles High School, and William Sendlinger.

Miss Anna Godbersen, who has just finished her school year at Pine Grove, came home Friday or the Summer.

Mr. J. A. Dubell returned home last Thursday from Grand View, where he has been doing the Spring work on the Strauss property.

Miss Mae Garrett, of The Dalles, is spending a few days here with relatives.

On Friday, May 31st, some 25 friends and neighbors came in and spent the evening with Thomas Godbersen at his home, it being the 28th anniversary of his birth. The evening was quickly spent playing games. Refreshments were served at midnight, after which all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne" and other favorites. When the crowd dispersed, all declared they had spent a pleasant evening.

Immanuel Church Notes

Next Sunday at Immanuel Church, Rev. Mr. Van Nice, of the Upper Hood River Valley, will preach. In the evening, Children's Day exercises will be held.
