Studying the Bud Moth

The members of the Oregon Agricultural Experiment League are studying the bud moth, to discover the most satisfactory methods of spraying for the pest.

The second brood larvae of this moth feed upon the under side of the leaves in the fall, and it has been noticed that where the fourth codling moth spray is applied, the bud moth does very little harm.

Arrange the orchard in four plots. Spray the first about September 1 with arsenate of lead, 2 pounds to 50 gallons of lime-sulphur, diluted 1 to 1 part to 20.

Portland Entertains This Week

Portland is busy this week entertaining its guests from outside points, both in Oregon and beyond the state lines.

Never before has the annual event been on such a big scale, with such attractive features, and the number of visitors is greater than at any previous Festival.

Lewiston Holds Rose Fair

Lewiston, Idaho, June 10. The Lewiston-Clarkston valley promises to become an active competitor with Portland, the "Rose City," in the production of premier roses.

Tell the Folks at Home

If you are from the East and have lived here long enough to get acclimated, you have often wished that your Eastern friends could be induced to come out and join with you in your good fortune.

Send a letter home some day and watch the returns.--PacificNorth-West.

Crop Prospects Great

J. C. Egbert, of this city, has returned from a visit of several days to his ranch near Emerson station, on the Great Southern railroad.

It is rumored that Mr. Mark A. Mayer, who is expected to return soon from New York, intends building a fine residence to replace the one recently destroyed at Mayerdale.

Many extra trains will be provided by Northwestern railways to handle the crowds from the local territory who will come to Portland during the Grand Reunion of Elks, July 8-13.

The Great Northern, Northern Pacific and S. P. & S. railways will also run many extra passenger trains. The Elks give assurances that hotel accommodations at Portland during the reunion will be ample.

Mrs. G. Page, of Oregon City, spent last Sunday in town, returning home Monday.

C. A. Morden, of Portland, spent a couple of days on his ranch the first of the week.

Sherman Leffler came over from Bingen last Sunday and spent the day with his sister, Mrs. Frank Ginger.

Miss Ruth Clement and her guest, Miss Rogers, are spending the week in Portland.

The local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs held memorial services in Lamb's Hall last Sunday, later marching to the cemetery, where the graves of deceased Brothers and Sisters were decorated and appropriate services held.

Notice to the Public.

The two leading magazines of the Pacific Coast, the Pacific Monthly and the Sunset, have been consolidated under the title of "Sunset--the Pacific Monthly."

It is the intention of the publisher to spare no money nor effort to make Sunset--the Pacific Monthly a credit to the West and a magazine of national value and importance.

To introduce it to new readers we will make the following special offer: Send 50c in stamps, and we will put your name on our subscription list for the next four months, and will send you a free copy of the superbly illustrated Mid-Winter number, and also the famous Sunset Indian poster, securely packed in a mailing tube.

Send your order to Fred Lockley, Northwestern Manager, Sunset--the Pacific Monthly, Portland, Oregon.

What's the matter with dropping in and renewing your subscription to the Bulletin? It would be appreciated.
