The Big Franz Department Store at your door.

Just "over the hill," with excellent train service, is a store that is reaching out, winning new friends, extending its service every day. We have already annexed a nice list of customers in Portland, down the Willamette Valley and even up in the "famous" Yakima, too. We have easily proved the folly of looking for bargains in "City" stores. Glaring announcements of Special Sales reveal prices fully 25% above our regular price for identically the same articles.

We'd like you to run over and become acquainted with our big Home Store.

A stock carefully selected, including every article of Home furnishing. And FRANZ LOW PRICES and accommodating service is building up the most splendid business of the kind in the Columbia Valley.

Franz pays freight and Railroad Fare

This is the inducement offered our out-of-town friends. Every price is marked in plain figures—they are lower than any others. New Fall stock of Furniture, Rugs, Linoleum, Steel Ranges, Builders' and Orchardists' hardware and supplies are arriving daily. Spend a pleasant day with your neighbors in Hood River. You'll find a cordial welcome awaiting you.

Millard Brooks
On Wednesday of this week the funeral of Millard Brooks, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brooks, of Cleone, took place at Mosier. The services were conducted at Immanuel Church by Rev. J. R. Hargreaves. The cause of death was acute inflammation, the boy being sick only three days. Mrs. Brooks is a sister of Mrs. Wm. Cook, of this place. This is the second child the young parents have lost and they have the sincere sympathy of the community.

Master Clare Bickford, of Portland, is visiting friends at Fairmont Ranch. He is a son of A. F. Bickford, manager of the Terminal Ice and Cold Storage Co. of Portland.

S. J. Spear and family came up from Hood River last Sunday and spent the day on the ranch east of town. They were accompanied by Miss Etta Gauld, of Fon du Lac, Wis., who is visiting them.

Those who are spending the week in Portland during the big Elks convention are: Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosier, Miss Alice Mosier, Ed L. Howe and wife, C. A. McCargar and family, Dr. C. A. Macrum and wife, J. M. Elliott, E. A. Race and W. E. Chown.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this occasion to express to the people of Mosier and vicinity our deep appreciation of their help and sympathy in our time of trouble.
