BACKACHE NOT A DISEASE

But a Symptom, a Danger Signal Which Every Woman Should Heed.

Backache is a symptom of organic weakness or derangement. If you have backache don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Read about Mrs. Woodall's experience.

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it."—Mrs. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

PIG A SNAKE CHARMER

HE JUST LOOKS BOA CONSTRICTOR IN EYE.

Zoo Guinea Thus Saves His Life—Then Calls on Lizard, Who Never Did Care for Him—Again His Glare Wins.

New York.—A very fat guinea pig, a fluffy ball of white and brown, with snappy little beads of eyes that gaze out upon the world fearlessly, has furnished Raymond L. Ditmars, curator of the Zoological park in the Bronx, and Charley Snyder, his assistant, with another interesting puzzle, which they are still far from solving. The guinea pig was one of a fast increasing group which are from time to time killed off to replenish the snakes' bill of fare. The act which lifted this particular pig above the others of the family and brought it to the attention of Curator Ditmars and Snyder occurred when several days ago he managed to get into the inclosure of two hungry boa constrictors, and not only lived but so liked his experience that he sought further adventure in the retreat of the eight-foot monitor lizard.

The little animal was kept in a room at the north side of the reptile house, and back of the glass front inclosures containing the various members of the snake family. It was feeding time for certain of the big snakes, and Snyder, with a supply of fresh killed guinea pigs and rats, was in the narrow passageway back of the snake house feeding several Indian rattlers. The little brown and white pig, which had become accustomed to his quarters, wandered out into the space where the keeper was working. The little animal was very inquisitive, but Snyder gave him no more than passing attention.

He gave the rattlesnakes their allowance of food and stood for a few minutes waching them in the process of slowly swallowing their portions. Then he turned to the door of the boa constrictor cage, and as he opened it he saw a sight which filled him with surprise. In some way the guinea pig had climbed up to the cage and gained entrance to it.

Both snakes were hungry, for it had been several days since they had been fed, and one of their especial delicacies is guinea pig. Yet neither had made any attempt to eat up the fearless visitor, and when Snyder caught sight of the little animal he was in a comfortable position alongside the tail of the longest snake.

The other snake, half coiled, he said, was regarding the pig with interest mixed with amazement. The guinea pig appeared to be content, and was sitting, regarding the half-coiled snake with a steady stare.

Evidently stimulated by his adventure in the boa constrictor cage, the pig went hunting more the day after his visit to the snakes. This time it got into the sun room at the east end of the reptile house. In this room are the reptiles that are sick in the process of shedding their skins.

When Mr. Ditmars heard of this second visitation, the pig was endeavoring to make friends with the big monitor lizard. Now, the lizard feeds upon eggs, which it bolts, shells and all, and it does not feel amiably disposed toward guinea pigs or rats.

When discovered the little animal was sitting comfortably in front of the lizard, regarding it with a steady look that was returned with interest by the reptile. When Ditmars approached the lizard ambled forward, changing its course so as to move around the guinea pig.

The whole affair was so extraordinary that Mr. Ditmars and his assistant are giving much study to it. Why two hungry snakes should refuse such a tempting morsel as a brown and white guinea pig, and not only reject him as an appetite satisfier, but show a desire to make friends with him, is so contrary to the natural course of events that both men are seeking a reason. Snyder inclines to the belief that the guinea pig possesses what he calls a hypnotic eye and that in this the snakes recognized one of their own kind, and the lizard also found in the pig's stare an all-compelling force.

TOO TICKLISH FOR ROBBERS

Woman Just Could Not Stand for Hold-Up Man to Search Her.

Kansas City, Mo.—Being ticklish saved Mrs. Frances Justine the other night from losing her purse to robbers and a meeting that might have been terrifying turned into an amusing affair. She was on her way home when two armed men commanded her to walk back with them to the shadow of a warehouse.

"We want money, that is all," they said. "So throw your hands up."

She obeyed and informed them that her purse was tucked in the top of her corset, under her arm. One of the men tore open her waist and thrust in a hand. It came out in a hurry to clasp over the woman's mouth, as she screamed "Don't!"

"I didn't mean to cry out that way," she laughed, as the hand dropped and gave her a chance to speak, "but I am awfully ticklish and I just can't stand it."

The continued efforts of the men to find the purse, while Mrs. Justine's protecting arm wouldn't stay up, threw her into fits of laughter, which so disturbed the robbers that, as she sank to the pavement, they ran.

TAFT URGES FARM CREDITS

Presents Plan to Governors for Cheaper Foodstuffs.

Says States and Nation Should Assume Responsibility for Honest Institutions.

Beverly, Mass.—Radical legislation in favor of the American farmer and consumer as a means of solving the question of the high cost of living was urged by President Taft in a letter to the governors of all the states.

President Taft proposes to reduce the cost of foodstuffs on the American dinner table by reducing the cost to the farmer of producing his crops. This would be done by establishing in the interest of the farmer a financial machine which would give him access to all the money centers of the world and afford him credit at greatly reduced rates and upon more advantageous terms than he now receives. The complete development of our agricultural resources which this would make possible, thinks President Taft, would go a long way toward settling the problem of the high cost of living.

"What this plan offers," writes President Taft, "is a means to secure this country greater productivity, at less cost, from the farms that are now under cultivation, and, above all, to give us more farms and more farmers."

The plan suggested is based upon the principles of agricultural co-operative credit now in use in practically every country in Europe. Uniform state legislation, in the opinion of President Taft, is essential to the successful adoption of this plan and he has invited the governors of all the states to a conference upon this subject at the time of the annual meeting of governors in Washington in December.

BATTLE IS GENERAL.

Montenegrins Take Another Fort—Hospitals Filled.

London—The Turkish losses in the battle of Detchitch mountain were 600 and those of the Montenegrins 400, according to a dispatch to the Standard from Cettinje.

Montenegrin Headquarters, Podgoritza—The battle following the capture by the Montenegrin forces of the Turkish position on Detchitch mountain and the fort on Schipchinck hill, dominating the town of Tushi, still continues. The fighting is now general on almost the whole length of the Turko-Montenegrin frontier.

General Martinovitch, with the southern army, is operating with success against the extremely strong Turkish fortress of Tarboch, which dominates Scutari from the south. At noon Saturday the Montenegrins captured the Turkish fort Rogame near Tussi.

The hospitals here are overflowing with wounded men brought from the battlefields. King Nicholas visited the hospitals and kissed upon their foreheads the dead and badly wounded men. Afterward he addressed the wounded in tones of deep emotion, saying he thanked all of his brave troops in the name of the fatherland.

CHAMPION SUBMARINE OF NAVY IS BADLY WRECKED

Watsonville, Cal.—The submarine F-1, champion diver of all the undersea fighting craft, is ashore near here, with her nose rammed in the sand, and two of her seamen are dead. T. J. Turbett, of Newark, N. J., and G. A. Schroeder, of Minneapolis, were swept from the deck of the little vessel and drowned when it was torn from its moorings at daybreak.

The extent of the damage to the submarine, which was grounded after a six hours' fight by the 13 remaining members of her crew, has not been determined.

Cigarettes Sold to Girls.

Redlands, Cal.—Charges that many Redlands schoolgirls are addicted to cigarette smoking crystallized in the arrest Saturday of William Titus for selling cigarettes to three girls ranging in age from 12 to 18 years. When arraigned before Justice McIvor, Titus pleaded guilty and was fined $30. Titus, who conducted a pool hall, admitted that for some time he had been selling cigarettes to girls. His arrest is the first result of a campaign to break up the selling of tobacco to minors.

Railway Men Are Warned.

El Paso, Tex.—Mexican rebels have given warning that all American railroad men captured while operating trains in certain portions of Mexico after October 15 will be shot, according to testimony given before the senate investigating committee. Witnesses said the rebels had warned officials of the Mexico Northwestern railroad not to attempt reconstruction of the line. It was said the warning relating to American railroad men applied only to the Mexican Northwestern lines territory.

REDMEN TO CONVENE.

All North American Tribes to Organize for Mutual Help.

Spokane—Representatives of every Indian tribe in North America will be invited to participate in a big congress to be held in Spokane next autumn, having for its purpose the advancement of the Indian's interests by thorough co-operation.

Each tribe will be asked to send five accredited representatives, who, with the large attendance of Pacific Northwest tribes assured are expected to make a total assemblage of at least 5000 Indians.

Robert H. Cosgrove, manager of the Spokane Interstate fair, and Lew S. Hurtig are making plans for the congress, which will be the first of its kind ever held in America. Noted Indians who have gained reputations in various fields of endeavor will be asked to take the lead in the work of the congress, particularly in outlining a program for the advancement of the race in agriculture, education and other ways.

"We will ask every tribe in America to send five delegates at our expense," said Mr. Hurtig, "and I conservatively estimate an attendance of at least 5000 at the congress. This will be but the beginning of what we hope to make a forward movement for the Indian to give him his proper place in business, science and statesmanship. From this first step we hope to see started a real march of progress for North American Indians.

"The congress will not be without its amusement features, as we intend to have the Indians participate in the dances for which they are famous, as well as give other features that would make the event pleasant for them and entertaining for visitors.

"There is no doubt but that we will have the co-operation of Pacific Coast tribes in this undertaking. For a number of years we have had several hundred Indians encamped in Spokane during the fair, and they have come to a thorough appreciation of how they can help themseves by being thoroughly organized."

WHALE ATTACKS VESSEL.

Its Furious Rush Smashes Two Steel Ribs of Ship.

Seattle — How a gigantic whale broke two steel ribs of the steam whaler Tyee, Jr., and disabled a dynamo and one engine when harpooned off Sitka Bay, Alaska, August 1, was told by the crew of the whaler, which arrived from Barnof island.

The battle with the whale began when Gunner Sigurd Blick, formerly a lieutenant in the Norwegian navy, and the champion whale gun marksman of the Pacific, harpooned the big fellow. The whale dashed at the vessel with terrific speed. There was a crash as he struck amidships on the port side. Dishes in the galley fell to the floor with a clatter, and the vessel shivered from stem to stern.

The force of the collison increased the whale's fury, and after a hard struggle it escaped.

As soon as the blow was struck Captain S. B. Shaw went below and examined the hull. He found that two steel ribs had been broken and the machinery put out of commission by the shock. Members of the crew regretted the loss of the whale, which was nearly 90 feet long and worth $1200, more than the damage to the vessel.

During the six months' cruise of the Tyee, Jr., 61 whales were bagged.

Express Train Held Up.

Fort Smith, Ark. — Rock Island train No. 41, westbound, was held up and the express and mail cars were robbed near Howe, Okla., according to a dispatch from the station agent at Haileyville, Okla. Safes in the express car were dynamited. The amount stolen has not been learned. Passengers were not molested. Howe is 25 miles south of Poteau, where a Kansas City Southern train was held up a few days ago. The robbers brought the train to a stop by waving a red lantern.

Commons Talk of Titanic.

London—The first sitting of the autumn session of the house of commons was occupied by a debate of the reports on the Titanic disaster made by the board of trade and Lord Mersey. Leslie Scott, a member from Liverpool, and several others oppose the board of trade's rule calling for boats for all. Mr. Scott said the rule would compel many steamers to carry such a load of boats that they would be unseaworthy. Premier Asquith's time table gives 32 days for the discussion in all stages of the home rule bill.

Gould Dodges Duty.

New York—Frank J. Gould obtained release of all of the $400,000 worth of baggage which the customs authorities seized when he and Mrs. Gould and her sister arrived from their home in Paris. Under protest, Mr. Gould paid $2844 on the dutiable articles, but the greater part of the valuable jewelry was shown to have been of American purchase or to have been assessed before by the customs authorities.

Great Revolt Averted.

New Orleans—Lee Christmas, commandant of Puerto Cortez, Hondruas, said that the intervention of the United States in the Nicaraguan revolution had averted what otherwise might have proved the bloodiest general revolt in the history of Central America. "If the rebels had won in Nicaragua, the revolution would have spread to Honduras, Guatemala and possibly Salvador," said Christmas.

Cabin Holds Body Long Dead.

Dawson, Y. T.—Reports were received here that the body of E. E. Collins, a trapper from Stratton, Col., has been found in a cabin near McMillan river. Apparently he died last February, after a lonely illness, probably appendicitis. The body was left in the cabin pending a police investigation, which may not take place until spring owing to the lateness of the season.

ASSASSIN FIRES AT ROOSEVELT

Bullet Penetrates Clothing and Makes Flesh Wound.

Colonel Proceeds to Hall and Makes Brief Address, Then Retires to Private Car.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was shot in the abdominal region shortly before 8 o'clock Monday night, while sitting in his automobile in front of the Gilpatrick House in Milwaukee, about to start for the auditorium to deliver his scheduled address. According to latest accounts the bullet is imbedded in the muscular tissue and the wound is not serious.

The attempted assassination and all its accompanying scenes were dramatic in the extreme. The would-be murderer was John Shrenk, of New York city, a man apparently demented on the subject of the third term. He was captured and locked up.

Unconscious of his wound, Colonel Roosevelt proceeded to the auditorium, and when his condition was discovered, in spite of the protest of his physician, he made a stirring address on the subject of his attempted murder. Weakened from loss of blood and at the conclusion of his speech he was taken to the Emergency hospital, where, after an examination by physicians, the nature of his wound was ascertained. It was not considered serious enough to compel a stay in Milwaukee, and at 12:50 a. m. he was taken aboard his special train on a slow run to Chicago.

The colonel announced that he would spend the night on the train and after a few hours here would go on to Indianapolis to fulfill his engagement there.

Chicago—Colonel Roosevelt arrived in Chicago at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The colonel was said to be resting easy. He had experienced no discomfort during the trip from Milwaukee. He had slept all the way. His temperature was normal and his pulse 84.

That the wound was not more serious was due to the fact that the bullet was spent from passing through the colonel's army overcoat, spectacle case and the manuscript of his contemplated speech.

Henry F. Cochems seized the assassin and held him until policemen came up. A mob surged around the man, who apparently is a radical on the subject of Roosevelt's running for another term for president.

The assassin, who is small of stature, admitted firing the shot and said that "any man looking for a third term ought to be shot."

In notes found in the man's pockets at the police station were statements that the man had been visited in a dream by the spirit of William McKinley, who he said, indicating Roosevelt, "This is my murderer; avenge my death."

The colonel felt no pain at the time the shot was fired and was not aware that he was shot until he was on his way to the auditorium. His attention was then called to the hole in his overcoat, and he found that he was not badly hurt. A superficial examination of the wound was made when he reached the auditorium, and three physicians agreed he was in no immediate danger.

Colonel Roosevelt's life was probably saved by the manuscript of his speech which he made. The bullet struck the manuscript, which retarded its force as it passed through into the flesh.

The assassin was prevented from firing a second shot by Albert H. Martin, one of Colonel Roosevelt's two secretaries. Colonel Roosevelt had just stepped into an automobile when the assassin pushed his way through the crowd to the street and fired. Martin, who was standing in the car with the colonel, leaped to the man's shoulders and bore him to the ground.

A wild cry of "lynch him" went up from the crowd. Colonel Roosevelt spoke to the people and told them to spare the would-be assassin.

In spite of the entreaties of physicians, Colonel Roosevelt insisted upon delivering his address.

"I will make this speech or die, one or the other."

Bylopolye fell after prolonged fighting, but no information has been received regarding the losses. The Montenegrins have set up a provisional government. The Serb inhabitants of Bylopolye welcomed the Montenegrins as liberators from the Turkish yoke.

New Alfalfa is Solution.

Washington, D. C.—Secretary Wilson expressed belief that the agricultural problem in the arid lands of the West had been solved by the alfalfa brought from Siberia. "Draw a line from the northern boundary of North Dakota down to the Gulf of Mexico," said Mr. Wilson. "That's arid land. Up in Siberia they are getting alfalfa and that hardy product we will put into the arid section. It will be the salvation of the arid country."
