Husbands has a first-class horse-shoer. Try him.

Thomas Godbersen spent the week in Portland.

Wm. Hudson was a visitor in Hood River Wednesday.

Tool-steel Grubbing Hooks at Husbands' shop. And first-class repair work done.

G. L. McCutcheon and family were visitors at The Dalles on Tuesday last.

Rev. W. A. Stark, of Hood River, spent last Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. J. P. Ross and children were shopping in Hood River Tuesday forenoon.

Ed. F. Reeves came up from Portland Tuesday and is spending the week on the ranch.

J. E. Carpenter and wife left on Tuesday for Portland, where they will reside this winter.

Mrs. Frank Ginger left Monday morning for Heppner, called there by the death of a niece.

Mrs. Robt. Glenn arrived from Portland yesterday and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Shogren.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Allington Monday, Nov. 25th, at 1 P. M. Visitors always welcome.

C. L. McKenna and daughter came up from Portland last Sunday and spent the day on their ranch east of town.

Tool Steel Grubbing Hooks, made either by the Snow & Upson or the White Salmon pattern. Take your choice, at Husbands.

Mrs. Frankie Sayr, of Moro, is here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Race. Miss Says is returning from a visit with friends in the valley.

Wm. Coverett has taken a contract to clear several 10-acre tracts of land for Dr. S. W. Small. Billy is "there with the goods" when it comes to clearing land.

Geo. Rorden had the misfortune to lose one of his driving mares this week, she having in some unaccountable way broken a leg while standing in the stable.

Ed F. Reeves, who has been spending the week on the ranch, returned today to Portland, accompanied by his parents and sister, who will spend the winter in the city.

Mosierites attending the Northwest Land Products Show in Portland this week are: Dr. D. Robinson, J. M. Elliott, Dr. S. W. Small, Messrs. Lockwood, Thurston and Vensel.

Plans have been set on foot for making the 1913 Rose Festival the biggest thing in the history of the city. It is expected to spend more money on the coming festival than ever before and to provide lavish entertainment for the thousands of visitors to Portland.

What's the matter with dropping to and renewing your subscription to the Bulletin? It would be appreciated.

Mrs. C. B. Metzger left on Sunday for Portland, where she will remain for a few days before going to Wisconsin with her son to spend the winter with her aged parents.

E. B. Vensel, with his wife and two children, arrived last Friday from Petersburg, Pa., and joined his brother, W. C. Vensel, who is looking after their uncle's land interests south of town.

A "Made-in-Oregon" dinner held by the Oregon Manufacturers' Association in Portland this week called attention to the importance of home industries and boosted state-made products. The value of such a movement is apparent but the necessity remains of sufficiently impressing it upon Oregon people.

R. M. Ross received a telegram this week from his wife, who is visiting friends in New Mexico, stating that their little daughter Betty was sick with typhoid fever. At the time of going to press no later news has been received, but it is sincerely hoped that she is recovering and that Mr. and Mrs. Ross will be spared a second affliction.

ANNUAL BAZAAR

The Ladies' Aid of the Immanuel Church will hold their Annual Bazaar in Stroup's Hall Thursday, December 5th. Lunch will be served at 12 O'clock and will continue throughout the afternoon. Dinner will be served in the evening until 11 O'clock.

A special feature appealing to the children will be the Fish Pond and Grab Bag. Your patronage, dear readers, is kindly solicited. Come one, come all.

COMMITTEE.

School Notes.

The Intermediate and Primary grades will have a Thanksgiving program on Wednesday, Nov. 26th, at 1:30 p. m. Patrons are cordially invited to be present.

County Superintendent Justus T. Neff was in town on Tuesday and informed us that we have a County High School as a result of the passing of the County High School Fund law. All that is required is to lengthen the recitation periods of the high school classes. The Attorney General recently rendered his opinion to the above effect.

School will close Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving holiday, opening again the following Monday morning.
