Church of Christ Notes

Next Lordsday our subjects will be as follows: Morning, at 11:15: "The Life and some of the Work of Alexander Campbell." Evening, at 7, "The White Horse and His Rider." The evening lesson will be taken from the book of Revelations. Our sermon last Sunday evening was based on the 17th chapter of this book, and many have given commendations of it.

Our Bible School had the largest attendance last Sunday that it has had for a long time, but more say that they are going to come and be in the work with us. Come one, come all, let us fill the hall.

H. CAMPBELL CLARK, Minister.

Announcement

We want to announce to the people of Mosier and vicinity that the Reception Room at the church will be open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7 to 10, as a social room. Tables and chairs are provided, also some games. Any one who wishes may bring games for the evening, or donate them to the room. The room will be lighted and heated, and our minister or his wife will be present. This is for everybody in the community who is, say, from 12 years and older. Younger ones should be at home, or with their parents when away.

We want this to be enjoyed by YOU.
