Demon of the Niger.
The natives inhabiting the country near the source of the Niger believe that a devil lives in the rock whence the river springs. They are very superstitious and greatly fear this devil, who is supposed to kill any person who dares to look at the source. Whenever the natives are showing a stranger the spot, they cover up their faces and walk backward in the direction of the spring, pointing toward it with outstretched hand behind the back.

Formation of Friendship.
We cannot tell the precise moment when friendship is formed. As in filling a vessel drop by drop, there is at least a drop which makes it run over; so in a series of kindnesses there is at last one which makes the heart run over.—From Boswell's Life of Johnson.

Here's Two.

CHINESE ARE POOR SOLDIERS
Aversion to Being Ordered is One of the Most Prominent Traits of an Oriental.

The Chinese is a poor soldier. Not that he is lacking in courage, for on occasions he cheerfully sells himself as substitute and goes willingly to the executioner's ax in order to provide his parents with the small sum necessary to support them through life, writes H. H. Windsor in Popular Mechanics. The strength of an army is in teamwork, and here is where he fails on account of his aversion to being ordered. This is found in his domestic and industrial work. A general line of policy or desired results can be laid down and he will faithfully work in accordance therewith, but he dislikes to be followed up through the details of the work with frequent orders. He will produce excellent results—but they must be accomplished in his own way. Hence the essence of good militarism—prompt and unquestioned obedience—comes in direct conflict with his nature, and makes him a poor soldier. However, this trait is not entirely wanting in other nationalities, as every business man knows to his sorrow, and the difficulty of getting employees to do a thing in the prescribed way is one of the constant anxieties.

WHO WANTS TO OCCUPY IT?
English Hotels Seem to Have Queer Idea as to the Popularity of a Hearse.

Some of the hotelkeepers "on the other side" have peculiar ways of advertising their houses, and one of the most singular of these methods is the statement in their advertisements that the hotel is equipped with a hearse! Inasmuch as the American hotelkeeper is only looking for "live ones," it is not of record that heaves have been used as attractions in this country as yet. One of the English catering journals in speaking of this custom, recently said: "We have on several occasions commented upon the uncanny mixing up of the funeral traffic business with hotel keeping—an unholy combination to be met with in some northern parts of Ireland. Apropos, here is an enticing advertisement from a Silgo paper calculated to bring quite a rush of guests anxious to test the accommodation: 'Mrs. —, proprietress of the — hotel, begs to announce that she has added to her establishment a glass hearse.'"

Steam for the Soil.
For a year or two past certain growers of tomatoes, cucumbers and similar vegetables for the London market have been injecting steam into the soil with a view to destroying insects and slugs. It is reported that the plan works very well for that purpose, but the operation brought to light an unexpected fact—namely, that the soil thus treated increased greatly in fertility; so greatly, indeed, that the ordinary amount of manure cannot be used afterward. This effect has been explained as being due to the sterilization produced by the steam, which kills the phagocytes or protozoa which in ordinary circumstances keep down the number of bacteria in the soil whose operations are beneficent in turning organic nitrogen into plant food.—Harper's Weekly.

Force of Habit.
An attaché at the statehouse has a nose which slightly turns to the left, and when asked why, replies it turns that way from force of habit. "Habit?" some one asked one day, "how can a nose have a habit?" "The nose didn't," was the reply, "but I did. When I was a boy my nose naturally turned to the right. It embarrassed me and I was grieved about it so much that I decided I would pull it straight. So I began to draw my left hand across it in the hope I could straighten it. The motion became a habit. I did it when in school, in church, and my mother said I did it when asleep. Before I could stop the habit I had the end of my nose pulled over to the other side, and I decided to let it stay that way."—Indianapolis News.

Our Jail in China.
In the annual appropriation bill for the diplomatic and consular service of the United States there is included an item for the actual expense of renting a prison at Shanghai, China, for Americans convicted in the United States court for China. In the statutes the place of confinement in Shanghai is designated a "prison," and as there is but one place provided it serves both as a penitentiary and a jail. This prison consists of one small back room in a private building, in the wall of which there is a hole through which the prisoner is supplied with food, the jailer being a clerk in the United States consulate at Shanghai.—Harper's Weekly.

Extremely Careful.
Dr. Armand Delille of Paris said at an international congress of hygiene in London that tuberculosis was hereditary but exclusively contagious. "Hence," said Dr. Delille to a reporter, "consumption may undoubtedly be eradicated; but to eradicate it we must be careful—as careful as the deaf mute who sleeps in woolen mittens." "Woolen mittens?" said the reporter, with a puzzled frown. "Well, I suppose, these chilly fall nights, there is indeed some little danger of catching cold." "Oh, no," said Dr. Delille, smiling. "That wasn't the reason the deaf mute wore woolen mittens. He wore them so that he couldn't talk in his sleep."

Mine Own.
"How long would you be willing to wait for me?" she asked, in tones so low he could scarcely catch the words. And then she went on: "You know, George, my father has recently invested in a silver mine, and he is going there at once, and I cannot leave mother alone. So I ask you again, George, how long would you be willing to wait for me?" "Wait for you, my darling?" repeated Dr. George, for his was no flustering love. "I will wait for you until we learn how the silver mine turns out."

OFFER AMNESTY TO INSURGENTS

Radical Stand of Mexican Government Bar to Peace.

New Minister of Interior Advises Policy of Moderation—Fighting Is On Decrease.

Mexico City—Convinced that numerous bands of rebels in the states of Durango, Coahuila and Southern Chihuahua are continuing their operations merely because they believe surrender would mean summary execution under the suspension of guarantees, Rafael Hernandez, the new minister of the interior, has announced that he would attempt to gain for them a promise of amnesty.

Chebe Campos and Benjamin Arguado, officers in Orozco's organization, are the chief rebel leaders in these districts, and several engagements were fought last week, the government as usual announcing victories. These, and allied leaders, have been making successful raids on small outposts, managing for the most part to evade encounters with superior forces. The rich country virtually is at their mercy and the Federal forces are able to accomplish little more than garrison the larger towns.

Minister Hernandez is confident the rurales, who report to his department, will be able to operate more effectively than the regular troops and with this object in view, he has conferred with General de la Vega, commander-in-chief of the rurales guard. Hernandez has issued a general order to the rurales to commander horses when needed, giving receipt to the owners and notifying the government.

The rurales have complained frequently they are unable to follow the insurgents because of worn-out mounts. It is believed this will prevent the rebels from obtaining horses and will assure the owners of payment.

AIR ROUTE TO POLE IS SAFEST

Pearly's Companion Gives Point to Aviator-Explorers.

Boston—"The safest and easiest way to reach the North Pole and an entirely feasible way, is by aeroplane," said Captain Robert A. Pearly, of the Peary North Pole party, to the members of the Aero club of New England, at its annual dinner. Captain Bartlett said an aeroplane could be taken by land to Cape Morris K. Jesup, which is only 351 miles from the pole. With the latest machines this would mean only one or two hours' flight to the pole, he said. "The ice would furnish suitable landing places all along the route, but all necessary supplies would have to be carried for the trip to and from the pole.

"The ideal trip," said the speaker, "would be to go from Cape Jesup directly over the pole and land at Cape Sheluskin, in Siberia, the latter point, however, being 723 miles beyond the pole. In the summer months of August and July the conditions are perfect for flying, and I can see no serious difficulties which might not be guarded against."

CHARITY PATIENT WEALTHY

Russian Dies at County Hospital—Wallet Held $18,400.

Seattle, Wash.—J. Friedman, an aged Russian miner from Fairbanks, Alaska, a charity patient, died at Wayside Emergency Hospital November 20, after an operation for goitre. He had applied to the county commissioners for relief and they sent him to the hospital. In his pockets were half a loaf of stale bread, a sausage and a wallet.

Before the operation he gave the wallet to a nurse to keep for him. When it was opened it was found to contain cash, drafts and certificates of deposit for $18,400. It also contained a will bequeathing his whole fortune to his sister, Jane Friedman, 50 years old, who lives in a village in Russia.

Indians Are After Money.

Ardmore, Okla.—Steps were taken here by which the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians hope eventually to induce the government to distribute among members of those tribes $17,000,000 derived from the sales of the lands in Western Oklahoma. Resolutions were adopted at a meeting of 200 leaders of both nations urging the distribution of the money and asking congress to enact such legislation as will no longer make the tribes wards of the government. The matter will be presented to congress soon.

Traveling Auto Bank Proposed.

Chicago—A proposed automobile bank was the feature of the testimony at the inquiry into the affairs of the Kirby Savings bank before Judge Landis Monday. Dr. William T. Kirby, owner of the defunct bank, was the witness who testified regarding the movable bank. He said that he had conceived the idea of using a big automobile, equipped with office fixtures and a small safe, as a means of collecting deposits and caring for customers located some distance from his South Side bank.

Deposed Royalty Sues Government.

Brussels—Royalty and society are interested in the outcome of the suits which Princess Louise and Princess Stephanie have brought to obtain a larger part of the fortune of their father, the late King Leopold. Neither Princess Louise nor her sister, the countess, are poor, as they received $3,000,000 and a quantity of valuable plate and jewelry when their father died. Princess Louise's share of the money did not pay her debts.

WARSHIPS TO STOP FOR COAL

American Fleet May Be Augmented in Case of European War.

Washington, D. C.—Realizing the possibility of rapid and important developments in the Balkan war, the Navy department has slightly changed the itinerary for the cruisers Tennessee and Montana, now on the way to the Orient under command of Rear Admiral Knight. Instead of going direct from Gibraltar to Smyrna, Admiral Knight has headed first for Malta, with the Tennessee, while the Montana, which was destined for Beirut, has started for Port Said, at the entrance of the Suez canal.

The change in the itinerary will make it easier for the cruisers to replenish their coal bunkers, pending the arrival in the Mediterranean of the collier Bremer, which is expected to be sent to the State department that there is no present intention of sending other warships to reinforce the Tennessee and Montana in the Mediterranean. European navies are extending all necessary protection in the larger ports of Turkey.

Of course, in the event of a general European war, it might be necessary to dispatch the greater part of the Atlantic fleet to Europe.

PENSION NEEDY EMPLOYES.

T. R. Thinks Faithful Workers as Deserving as Ex-Presidents.

New York—Discussing the plans of Andrew Carnegie to give an annual pension of $25,000 to future retiring presidents, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt said:

"As it does not apply to me, I have nothing to say on that side of it. In any event, my interest is not in pensions for former presidents, but for the small man who has no chance to save and who faces direct poverty when he becomes superannuated.

"I think the small government employe who gives years of faithful service at a small emolument should be pensioned upon retirement. I believe we must work out some system of insurance and pensions, relieving the ordinary workman from the haunting dread of extreme poverty in old age."

MICHIGAN VOTE IN DOUBT.

Suffragists Fear Returns Indicate Cause Will Lose.

Lansing, Mich.—Leaders in the fight for the passage of the suffrage amendment to the constitution of Michigan admit for the first time that the complete official returns may show the defeat of the measure by a few hundred votes. But three counties, Keeweenaw, Montcalm and St. Clair, remain to be heard from officially. The official vote from the remainder of the state gave a majority of 165 for the amendment. Unofficial returns from the three missing counties rolled up a majority of about 700 against it.

There is a possibility that the official returns may be changed in some instances before the contest is finally determined.

RAILWAY EARNINGS GROW.

November Shows Increase Over One Year Ago of 6.5 Per Cent.

Chicago—A further increase in railroad activity is indicated by the returns of all United States roads reporting gross earnings for the first two weeks of November, the total amounting to $122,490, an increase as compared with the earnings of the same roads for the corresponding period a year ago of 6.5 per cent.

These roads reported a gain of 4.4 per cent the first week of the month, and 4.1 and 4.9, respectively, for the first two weeks of October and September. The improvement is now quite uniformly distributed, the loss reported being very exceptional and extremely small.

Sweet Potato Cannery Opened.

Americus, Ga.—The large potato canning plant of the Ware-Progress Orchard company, near Americus, has started operations for the season and with favorable conditions will preserve probably 50,000 bushels of sweet potatoes here during the next three months. This plant is equipped with machinery of the latest type and on full time employs 90 operators. Some trouble is experienced in getting sufficient labor, but with this supplied the cannery will be operated on full time during the winter season.

$1159.40 to Keep Family a Year.

Chicago—What constitutes a "living wage" for a family of five—husband, wife and three children—in Chicago? Economists, settlement workers and others have tried to answer the question in recent years and have made various estimates, ranging from $700 to $1100 a year. Before the street car wage arbitration board an itemized budget has been introduced in evidence, showing the least a family of five should have in this city to maintain the American standards of living in 1914-40 a year.

Peasants Fear Turks' Return.

London—Bulgarian peasants in the vicinity of Kirk Kiliseh are still wearing the turban for fear the Turks will return and take revenge upon them, as was done in 1878, writes Noel Buxton, member of parliament, who has been visiting the devastated districts of Turkey in the interests of the Red Cross. "Thousands are homeless," he adds, "and the distress is indescribable. One Bulgarian doctor alone is treating 500 cases."

Princeton Students Run Farm.

Princeton, N. J.—That success is assured for the farm run by the undergraduates of Princeton university is shown by the recent report of the manager, E. C. Page, of the class of 1912. While the project did not make money, indications point to prosperous seasons in the future. The reasons given for the lack of financial profit were that the plan was carried out more in the nature of a trial, and that extensive farming was not done.

CARNEGIE GIVES AWAY MILLIONS

Makes Will and Says He's Glad Load Is Off His Mind.

Corporation Gets All But $25,000,000 of Vast Estate—Approves Discussion of Pension Plan.

New York—Andrew Carnegie, in a statement Wednesday afternoon, announced that all but $25,000,000 of his fortune, which will be disposed of under his will, will be left to the Carnegie Corporation of New York, which has been made his residuary legatee, and which will carry on his educational and charitable work.

Mr. Carnegie's statement likewise explains his reasons for planning to pension ex-presidents of the United States, as he provided recently through the Carnegie Corporation.

In making his announcement, telling how he had gone about putting his "gospel of wealth" into practice, Mr. Carnegie said:

"I resolved to fulfill the requirements of the 'gospel of wealth' by transferring funds, and have done so, except that I have found it desirable to retain for a while personal distribution of my United States military telegraph corps pensions and Pennsylvania Railroad pensions to Pittsburgh division men and their widows, because my old boys would dislike the change, and so, no doubt, would others upon my pension list.

"To meet these payments and others under my will, $25,000,000 of bonds upon which the New York state tax has been paid have been reserved. But the New York corporation has been made my residuary legatee and all surplus left after meeting the provisions of my will goes to it.

"I am happy in getting all this off my mind. It is a greivous business, but I find that this earth is rapidly becoming more heavenly, so that many good men and women I know labor for others. Sincerely Luther, Franklin and their followers were right, who held that 'service to man is the highest worship of God.'"

In explaining his pension plan Mr. Carnegie cited the case of three ex-presidents as affording justification for the project, the announcement of which, he said, was "making the desired impression." His trustees and himself were all hoping, he said, "that congress would meet the situation by proper action."

CONTRACTORS THREATENED

Plants Dynamited After Refusal to Employ Union Men.

Indianapolis, Ind.—As tending to show the implication of labor union officials in plots, the government introduced at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial testimony that explosions on non-union iron works followed the refusal of contractors to unionize their jobs after personal visits by some of the defendants.

Before two charges of dynamite exploded on a bridge in St. Louis on August 9, 1908, testified John T. Garrett, president of a construction firm, he was visited by John H. Barry, of the local ironworkers' union.

"Barry wanted me to unionize the job," Garrett said.

"You'll find it a great deal cheaper, for you know what will happen," he said. I told him I suspected he was going to dynamite the job and he had better be careful. It was blown up later."

Elliott Orders 4100 Cars.

Tacoma, Wash.—The Northern Pacific Railway company has ordered the building of 500 flat cars at the South Tacoma shops and has also placed orders for 2500 new box cars and 1100 refrigerator cars. The shippers of the Northwest responded splendidly to the plea for co-operation issued early in the fall and the Northern Pacific has had less trouble this year in handling the crop than ever before. Fully 45 per cent of the wheat crop of the Northwest has already been moved.

Trainmen Tie Up Mills.

Pittsburg—Work at the Edgar Thompson and Homestead plants and Carrie furnaces of the Carnegie Steel company is at a standstill and 10,000 mill workmen are idle, due to the strike of 625 trainmen. Only a few of the smaller mills are in operation. The strikers refused the offer made by the Carnegie company, although the company is said to have agreed to all demands except the reinstatement of four discharged employes. The force of police at the Homestead plant has been increased.

Big Sale of Hops Made.

Oroville, Cal.—By a deal completed here S. H. P. Eakle, of Sacramento, who is the leading grower of hops in the Feather River bottom lands near this city, sold his entire crop of 41 acres to Wolf & Netter, of San Francisco. The purchase price was $5,500. I. S. Marks, a buyer who has inspected the crop, declares the hops grown in the Feather River bottom to be equal to the best in the state.

Epidemic Scars Redding.

Redding, Cal.—On account of the epidemic of smallpox here, the city board of health has ordered all moving picture houses, theaters, churches and lodges closed for a fortnight. The public schools were closed several days ago. During the quarantine no public gatherings of any nature will be allowed. One new case was reported. The disease is reported to be of an unusually mild type.

Continuance of War Wanted.

London—A majority of the ministers at Constantinople favor continuance of the war, according to a dispatch from the Turkish capital to the Standard. The minister of war has been ordered not to accept the Bulgarian proposal, but to wait instructions.
