Church of Christ Notes

Next Lordsday morning our thoughts will be directed to "Proverbs," and the evening subject will be "Theology in G," a chart sermon, and a new one.

H. CAMPBELL CLARK,
Minister.

To The Public

The undersigned has been appointed resident agency manager for the California State life Insurance Company of Sacramento. Persons desiring a safe, equitable and economical insurance will do well to investigate this policy. Will be pleased to call on any one and give facts and figures.

WM. COVERETT,
Mosier, Ore.

A Correction

We have been asked to correct an impression that was gathered from seeing an item in the Oregonian last week, among the personals, wherein it was stated that "S. W. Small and wife, of Mosier, are registered at the Multnomah." The Dr. writes us that it was a practical joke perpetrated on him by some of his friends and that there is no immediate prospect of his trotting in double harness.

New Books at Public Library

The following books were recently added to the Mosier Public Library:

Lane----KATRINE. A pretty, idealistic love story with a gifted Irish girl as heroine. Will appeal especially to girls and women.

Lincoln---WOMAN-HATERS. A wholesome, humorous story that everyone will like.

London---SMOKE BELLEW. The setting of this story is Klondike during the gold craze period. An intense, virile tale that men will enjoy.

Little---LADY & SADA SAN. A sequel to "The Lady of the Decoration." A lovely little Japanese-American romance.

Davenport ---- SMALL FAMILY COOK BOOK. A collection of up-to-date, thoroughly tested receipts, proportioned for small families, and with many hints for sane economy in the kitchen.

Rice----ROMANCE OF BILLY GOAT HILL. A story by the popular author of "Mrs. Wiggs." A pretty, humorous tale that will find a warm welcome among those who like everything to end happily.

Spearman--MOUNTAIN DIVIDE. A spirited tale for boys.

Johnston----FAMOUS CAVALRY LEADERS. Interesting biography of world famous cavalry leaders from the Middle Ages to the Gould--FELICIA'S FRIENDS. A good story for younger girls.

Williams---GUARDIANS OF THE COLUMBIA. Elaborately illustrated, with interesting text chiefly devoted to Mts. Hood, St. Helens and Adams. It relates Indian legends connected with them; gives accounts of automobile roads and mountain clubs, hotels, etc., while one chapter is devoted to the vast forests which hold about one-third of the timber in our country.

Resolutions of Regret

At the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows last Tuesday night, the following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted by the lodge, in recognition of the long and faithful membership of Brother Alex Stewart:

Whereas, it is understood that Brother Alex Stewart is contemplating removal from our vicinity in the near future, and

Whereas, Brother Stewart has been an active member of this lodge since its incorporation, being one of the charter members, and has been faithful in all the offices which he has held, a cheerful and willing worker and one who has always had the interests of this lodge and of the order of Odd Fellows at heart, and who has been a true Odd Fellow in every respect,

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that we, the officers and brothers of Beacon Lodge No. 182, hereby express our regret at the removal of Brother Stewart from our midst, and tender to him a cordial vote of thanks as a slight tribute of respect and honor in which he is held by this lodge, and trust that wherever he may go the bond of fraternity may never be broken. And

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the records of this lodge, a copy given to Brother Stewart and a copy given to the newspaper.

Pleasantly Surprised

On Wednesday evening, while Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart were assisting at Odd Fellows Hall in auditing the books of the Rebekah Lodge, a large number of Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and other friends gathered by prearrangement and gave them a farewell surprise party. The evening was most pleasantly spent in social intercourse, games, etc. A bounteous luncheon was served, during which speches of regret at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart from Mosier we made by several present, which were responded to by them.

It is with reluctance that the citizens of Mosier part with this couple, who have been so closely identified with the life and growth of the community for so many years, and their departure will be deeply felt by all.

Proposals Invited

I will receive sealed bids for a stock of merchandise located at Mosier, Ore., consisting of hardware, woodenware, oil, glass, paints, groceries, crockery and glassware, drugs and patent medicines, shoes and rubber goods, dry goods, furnishing goods and hats and caps; all at inventory valuation of $10,945.79, together with fixtures of $1,114.95, up to 12 o'clock, noon, Wednesday, Jan. 22, 1913. Terms, cash, and a cash deposit of 10 per cent must accompany each offer. Right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Inventory may be seen at my office and the property may be inspected on the premises. Dated at Portland, Oregon, Jan. 11, 1913. R. L. SABIN, 7 1st street.

What's the matter with dropping in and renewing your subscription to the Bulletin? It would be appreciated.

HUGE GIFT FOR THE PACIFIC HIGHWAY

A huge gift for the Pacific Highway, of which the Portland-Hood River road will be a link, was proffered by the Northern Pacific last week, when it offered to give its abandoned right of way and old road beds between Tacoma and Vancouver, Wash., for this proposed north and south highway. Such was the announcement made by Samuel Hill of Maryhill, Wash., who has made frequent visits to Hood River, in behalf of the Oregon portion of the highway.

The Northern Pacific spent more than $2,000,000 for the property which it now proposes to give to the state in consideration of $1.

"Should the state of Washington decide to accept this generous offer there is no reason why, with a liberal appropriation and the liberal use of convict labor, the Pacific Highway should not be finished by October 1," said Mr. Hill. "The railroad company had planned to build four steel bridges across the Cowlitz and Tootle rivers and the Big Draw. The stone piers of these proposed bridges, built at a big expense, are as good today as ever, and may be made available for highway bridges. Clark and Cowlitz counties are now building a bridge over Lewis River.

"Some of the roadbed has stood for 30 years and may readily be converted to the uses of a public highway. Included in the roadway is a stretch of graded right of way on which Jay Gould spent $1,000,000 in 1889 and 1890.

"The Legislature of Washington will not be importuned to accept the gift. President Elliott will simply make the offer and the state may take it or leave it."—Hood River News.

Rev. A. Black, who has a small fruit ranch east of town, came down from Wasco the first of the week to look after his interests.

While Willie McClure was out in the pasture driving cattle, his horse slipped on the frozen ground and fell, pinning Will's foot underneath. Result, a badly injured foot and ankle, from which he will be some time recovering.

The lectures at the Immanuel Church every Thursday night aae increasing in interest and enthusiasm. They are along practical lines and will do more good than all the sermons on theology that could be crammed into a stove. Rev. Hargreaves says that right living (physically) means right thinking; that one can't be happy unless one is healthy. A sound body makes a sound mind. By attending these Thursday night lectures one can become intimately acquainted with his inner physical self and better understand how the violation of the laws of hygiene and health affect the physical and mental well-being. Drs. Ross and Robinson have been giving the lectures, supplemented by demonstrations in physical culture by Mr. James Burpee.

SYSTEMS IN GAMBLING.

Monte Carlo Just Smiles at Them and Keeps on Winning.

There are only two games played at Monte Carlo—roulette and a simple card game called trente et quarante. One is assured that these games are played quite fairly and that the percentage in favor of the bank is 61 to 60. Whatever it may be, this certain percentage in favor of the tables overcomes all systems that human ingenuity can work out by any law of averages. M. Blanc will permit you to play any way you like, and to double your bet as often as you like until it reaches 6,000 francs at roulette or 20,000 francs at trente et quarante. Then you must begin over again, for it is quite clear that if one were permitted to double indefinitely it would only be a question of time and sufficient money to put M. Blanc out of business.

Thus it happens that M. Blanc, who takes no chance, wins against all those who are permitted to take any sort of chance they like. Sir Hiram Maxim disposed of all systems when he shattered a popular delusion in these words:

"If red has come up twenty times in succession it is just as likely to come up at the twenty-first time as it would be if it had not come up before for a week. Each particular coup is governed altogether by the physical conditions existing at that particular instant. The ball spins round a great many times in a groove. When its momentum is used up it comes in contact with several pieces of brass and finally tumbles into a pocket in the wheel which is rotating in an opposite direction. It is a pure and unadulterated question of chance, and it is not influenced in the least by anything that has ever taken place before or that will take place in the future."—Melville Davisson Post in Saturday Evening Post.

Bringing Up a Dog.

A writer in Country Life in America gives some advice on the bringing up of a dog. As he tells it, the process looks easy enough. The first and most important lesson for a pup to learn is to stop anything he may be doing when you say "Stop" and to continue when you say "All right." If well learned this will explain to him all future commands. After this comes the lesson to lie down when you command "Down" and to stay down while you leave him. For this latter it is best to tie him to something and then if he does not drop when you call "Down" from a distance, return quickly and, scolding, push him down forcibly. A caress and a taste of food should be his reward if he does right.

Old Time School Hours.

In Scotland, up to the middle of the eighteenth century, the usual school hours were from 6 a. m. till 6 p. m., with two breaks of an hour each. Some schools opened an hour earlier and worked so long as daylight lasted. No alteration in the hours was made on Saturday, and even on Sunday a certain amount of school work was done. The holidays were restricted to a day at Candlemas and at Whitsun, and a fortnight in the autumn.

"What's Your Name?"—"What."

A guild of godparents to save children from incongruous names is being suggested. The late Canon Bardsley, author of a book on English names, told the story of what was probably the most idiotic name ever bestowed upon an unfortunate infant. A woman had her son baptized What, for no other reason than to cause amusement in future years when, being asked his name, he should reply "What?"—London Chronicle.

Medical Note.

"Hello, Jones. I hear you were sick."

"Yes; I was threatened with a fever, but the doctor succeeded in arresting it."

"Ah, he arrested it for making threats, I suppose."—Boston Transcript.

Good Reason.

"What on earth made you buy that comfortable when we have more now in the house than we need?"

"I guess it was because I saw it marked down."—Exchange.
