Dr. Robinson returned home Saturday from Medford, where he went as a delegate from the local lodge of Odd Fellows, to attend a meeting of the Grand Lodge, held in that city last week.

Mrs. C. A. McCrum arrived from Portland last Sunday and will spend the summer here with her husband. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. E. Bronough, who will visit a few weeks with her.

The Mosier ball team will cross bats with the Lyle team on next Sunday. They will make the trip by boat, accompanied by a large delegation of rooters who will go along to see that the boys "bring home the bacon."

Union makes the claim that it will have the biggest and best live stock show in Oregon this year. Its dates are June 5, 6 and 7. The big feature of the show will be fine horses, while the splendid cattle for which Eastern Oregon is famous will also be on exhibition in large numbers.

Among those from here who were called before the grand jury at the county seat, Monday to testify in the attempted bank robbery case, were the following: R. M. Koss, Jeff Mosier, Charley Davenport, A. F. Lockwood, C. Dunsmore, Ben Veatch, S. T. Francisco, W. E. Chown and L. W. Kittell.

The Columbia river is very much on a rampage. Some of the old-timers are predicting that the June freshet this year will probably equal that of 1894, when the river boats made their landings near the depot. A rise of four feet was reported during Wednesday night, and one foot additional between 7 and 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

E. C. Race, formerly traveling auditor for the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company of Mosier, resigned his position the first of the week and is now acting in the capacity as manager for the company. Mr. C. O. Barrows, the retiring manager, left Tuesday night for Waha Waha, Wash., where he expects to accept a similar position.

This section was visited by a rather severe rain and electrical storm Monday evening. Although no one was struck by lightning, yet it was of sufficient force as to cripple our electric light system by burning out the fuse in all meters, thus putting the town in total darkness for the night. The rain, although not as heavy as we would have liked, will be of great help to the ranches back of us, as it will bring the grass up very rapidly, thus furnishing plenty of grazing for stock.

IMMANUEL CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Sunday, June 8, will be the second anniversary of the Mosier Federated Church, and the congregation is planning to recognize the fact by holding Rally-Day services. Visitors are expected from Odell and Hood River. After the morning service the congregation and visiting friends will join together in a basket dinner. Children's Day exercises will be rendered at the evening service.

A cordial invitation is generally extended to all services, including the noon-day repast.

O-W R. & N. CO. OILS TRACK

Last Monday a crew of men started work on the O-W R. & N. Co's. right-of-way east of town near the Wenber tracts. This is a new experiment the railroad company is trying out, which they believe will stop the sand from piling up in heaps on the track where it is blown from the side hills.

The company will try out this experiment between here and The Dalles and if found to work satisfactorily they will in all probability oil the right-of-way on both sides for a distance of 200 feet from the rails clear through to the Idaho line.

PRISONERS BREAK JAIL

Two prisoners, lodged in the city jail awaiting trial at the present term of the Circuit Court, broke jail Monday night by sawing through two bars of their cell, crawling through an eight-inch space. They were young Schoonover, of Mosier, held for complicity in the Mosier bank robbery, and a man called Ben Clemson, charged with white slavery. The get-away was made some time between one o'clock in the morning and four o'clock, the time the delivery was discovered. It is thought by officials that friends on the outside slipped a caseknife in to the prisoners during the day. The knife, which was evidently of good steel, had been converted into a file and with the aid of a "slide" made of the top of a tobacco can, the soft bars of the cell were cut through without much difficulty.

As soon as the jail break was discovered, the news was spread by phone and telegraph all over the country and Washington, as it is more than likely that an effort will be made by them to get out of the state. The get-away was planned at a most opportune time for the prisoners, as their trial was to come up today.

The officers are confident that the men will be caught and brought back to stand trial on the original count, and also for breaking jail.

CIRCUIT COURT CONVENES

The May term of the Circuit Court convened Monday morning, Judge Bradshaw presiding. Little but routine work was done the first day, after the grand jury was drawn and the judge's charge given. A number of civil cases were called in the morning, but were postponed. In the afternoon only one case came to trial. This was a suit to recover, instituted by parties in Idaho, the typewritten testimony being taken. According to the evidence, the case was non-suited and was not presented to the jury.

Tuesday morning court opened at 9 o'clock, but in less than half an hour the jurors were dismissed until 1:30 p. m., awaiting the deliberations of the grand jury.

The following compose the grand jury: J. F. Rorick, foreman, C. P. U'Ren, Owen Jones, George Ruch, John Eubanks and W. N. Wiley.

Monday the grand jury returned true bills against the following: Orville DeBois and Arnold DeBois for larceny from a dwelling; William Clark and Ed Gagnier, the two men who attempted to blow the vault of the Mosier valley bank, and George Kemp, who stole a small cheele made in favor of Irene Hopper.

A short session of circuit court was held Tuesday morning when Kemp, Clark and Gagnier all pleaded not guilty.

John Fleck, who fatally shot Dan Olson, generally known as "Daw from Norway," at the Fleck ranch April 21, was indicted by the grand jury on Tuesday evening on the charge of manslaughter. He will face trial at this session of circuit court.

R. F. Smith, who stabbed City Marshal F. H. McRae at Antelope, pleaded guilty.

Church of Christ Notes.

Next Lordsday morning we expect to preach on the subject, "God is on His Throne." Come and hear it. In the evening will be held the Children's Day exercises.

We have received several commendations on our sermon upon "What Mosier Needs," and we have intimations that it caused some people to groan, but they were not there to hear the sermon. No doubt they groaned, but if we get an opportunity, we will make them groan louder. Some deserve to groan in The Dalles. "He who runneth may read." Yours for God,
H. CAMPBELL CLARK, Minister.

WIDOWS' PENSION BILL BECOMES A LAW

The Widows' Pension bill, passed by the last legislature at its last session, will go into effect June 3, according to advices received from the Governor by Judge Castner. The new bill will render aid to any woman whose husband is dead or an inmate of an Oregon state institution or who is physically unable to render her support. A certain sum is allowed for each child of such needy families.

A BIG BARGAIN

From the interest shown in the O-W. R. & N. Co's. corn contest, it appears that Oregon will become a big corn producing state. More than five tons of selected seed corn, enough to plant 1000 acres, has been distributed free of charge by the company, while the Southern Pacific has distributed more than two tons additional. This seed will be planted throughout the Pacific Northwest and means the corn acreage of this year will be twice as large as last.

True heroism is not sectional or local; it is anational possession; an international asset. It doesn't involve success or failure; sometimes there's more heroism in losing than in winning. There's not much that's heroic about the clothing business; it's a matter of fact, hdm-drum sort of a proposition. But it is possible to do business in a spirit of service to see that a man who pays his money for merchandise shall get all that it's possible to give, in value. That's the way we are trying to do our business. This store is the home of
