ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

The Anniversary Services and Children's Day exercises at the Immanuel Church were held last Sunday and proved most interesting. They were attended by a number of people from Hood River, Odell and Pine Grove.

Rev. J. R. Hargreaves held regular services in the forenoon, special music being rendered by Mrs. R. M. Ross, Mrs. Jas. Daily and Thos. Lelliott. At noon a basket dinner was served in the grove near the church. After dinner the crowd gathered in the church and listened to talks on federation, church and Sunday School work by local and out-of-town people.

In the evening the Children's Day exercises were held, consisting of songs, recitations and instrumental music.

New Meat Market

Mrs. J. P. Erhart, who recently took over the Mosier Meat Market from C. H. Dunsmore, has leased the building next door on the corner and is having it fitted up with modern conveniences for an up-to-date market.

The meat room is about eight feet square and has an overhead icebox which will hold a ton of ice. Mrs. Erhart expects to move into her new quarters tomorrow.
