Notice

The Home Talent Concert, which was to have been given in Immanuel Church tonight, has been postponed until next Friday night. The program will appear in next week's paper.

It is a significant fact that many former residents of Hood River, now widely scattered over the United States, send their watches back to W. F. Laraway, the Hood River jeweler, to have them repaired. "There is a reason."

Will Graham last week moved his family into town from the Jacobson ranch, where he has been foreman for the past two years. They will occupy rooms in his mother's building on Main Street and, with her, keep a few boarders.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Craft, of Mt. Hood, visited relatives here Wednesday afternoon and night. They were returning to their home from a fishing trip on the Deschutes River. They also attended a reunion of the Cooper family. The reunion was held on the site of the camp which the Coopers made when they crossed the river 50 years ago.

Ortley Items

J. H. Devlin, J. L. Firebaugh and W. A. Firebaugh and wife, spent the Fourth here, remaining over until Monday.

Miss Berry, who has been visiting here with Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh, has returned to her home in Hood River.

Messrs. J. H. Devlin and L. Adels paid a visit to Hood River last week, returning by way of Glenhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Youmans, of Portland, spent several days with us last week, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Fowler, of Portland, enjoyed the festivities here on the Fourth.

Among the out-of-town visitors who helped us celebrate the Fourth, were E. O. McCoy, wife and daughter, and Dr. Lowe and wife, of The Dalles, C. A. McCargar and family, J. K. McGregor and wife, and a number of young people, from Mosier.

Our celebration, the first that Ortley has attempted, was a signal success in every way and we feel that the visitors from the outside were repaid for their trip and we trust that their pleasant impressions of Ortley and its people will be lasting.

R. M. Ross was seen to alight from the eastbound local last Sunday night, having in his possession a fine steelhead salmon. As the Dr. refused to incriminate himself as to how he obtained the fish, whether by force or persuasion, the public was forced to draw its own conclusions.
