Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their timely aid at the recent fire which destroyed our home, and the expressions of sympathy and kind offers of assistance since.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK GINGER.

Mrs. Emma Sweeney, an old friend of Mrs. B. J. Weller, is spending the summer with her at Mayerdale. Mrs. Sweeney has, unconsciously, already captivated many of the young gals about Mosier, who have been raving about her beauty, wit and charming manner, and their fervent effusions of adoration and adulation, etc., were as the hot winds from the Sahara Desert. But it was all "hot air," and wasted at that, for the lady is not a dashing widow, as they had supposed, but has a very good hubby back in little old N'York.

Ginger Residence Burned

Burned out of house and home was the unfortunate experience of Frank Ginger and family, last Tuesday noon. The fire originated around the stovepipe under the roof of the kitchen and had evidently been burning some time when discovered by Mrs. Ginger. Mr. Ginger, who was away from home at the time, was hastily summoned and, with the help of neighbors who hurried to the scene, most of the contents on the lower floor were saved, everything upstairs being lost.

The building was totally destroyed except the fireplace with its tall brick chimney, which now stands a fire-scarred and lonely sentinel over the ruined home.

We understand there was no insurance on the building or its contents, consequently the loss will fall heavily on Mr. Ginger. It is his intention to rear another home about the old hearthstone as soon as he can make the necessary arrangements.

A number of valuable fruit trees surrounding the house were also destroyed.

One can imagine the consternation with which Mr. Ginger received the news that his home was burning. Hurrying from his work, he arrived in time to perform, as he said, a daring and heroic rescue. Rushing into the burning kitchen, where but a few minutes before his wife had been cooking the noonday meal, Frank caught up a chicken which was calmly and unconsciously awaiting its fate—in a fryingpan on the stove, and was to have served as the piece de resistance of the said noonday repast. Frank thinks that even the darkest cloud has a silver lining. But all joking aside (and we acknowledge it's "bad form" in a case of this kind), Mr. Ginger and family have the sympathy of the entire community in their misfortune.

Mrs. Poe Entertains

Lodere Lodge, the pleasant home of Mrs. Harriet L. Poe, situated about six miles southeast of town on the headwaters of Mosier Creek, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering last Saturday evening, when Mrs. Poe gave a "party," complimenting Mr. Joseph L. Gould, a rising young attorney of Portland. The guests were royally entertained until a late hour and left with pleasant recollections of the hospitality of their hostess. Those present were Mr. Gould, as honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Webster, the Misses Alice Mosier, Margaret Maier, of The Dalles, and Miss J. N. Cloutier, of Portland, and J. N. Mosier and L. D. Gilbert.
