Word has been received from J. K. McGregor, who is on an auto trip thru Eastern Oregon, California and Nevada with his wife and Boyd Sturges, that they had reached Reno—the city of broken hearts. What do you reckon they went to Reno for? In the language of Jack: "That don't look good to me." Perhaps Mr. and Mrs. Mc— had a "blow-out" on their trip and the happy thought struck them to put in to Reno to get the tires repaired. Hope it's nothing more serious.

Easy to Wed. The man who writes to ask if he can marry on 88 a week has wasted ink. Of course he can. Two dollars will secure a tasty dinner, $5 will square the preacher, and there will be a dollar left for a modest wedding breakfast. And then? Oh, well, that's not the question.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cynical Foresight. "That boy of yours may be president of the United States some day." "Maybe," assented Farmer Corntassel. "But the chances are that he'll be one of the fellows who think they are lucky if they get appointed to be postmasters."—Washington Star.

All Beneath Her. "Clare—Do you think you could bring yourself to marry a man your intellectual inferior? Lydia—I suppose I shall have to.—London Opinion.

A fool at forty will never be wise.—Irish Proverb.

Wanted—Prune Packers. Twenty prune packers wanted at Mayerdale Orchards, commencing Monday, August 18th. Lunch furnished free at noon hour. Sleeping accommodations for those who furnish bedding. Also 15 prune pickers wanted. Applicants leave name and address at once at Bulletin office.
