Cost of Maintenance.

Beef cows that are not suckling calves may be wintered on silage alone if the silage is good, without any hay, says the Breeders' Journal. They are the better for a little straw and a pound or two of cottonseed meal per day. Cows of this kind will consume about 50 pounds of silage a day and the cost of their keep will vary according to the cost of silage and the length of the period between old and new grass. Anybody can figure this out according to his climate, cost of silage, other feeds and grazing, and see whether he can afford to raise cattle on his farm. What does it cost to keep a beef cow per year in your locality? Can you afford to raise steers? A little discussion of this point would be helpful to a great many people.

CEMENT FEEDING FLOOR BEST

No Better Foundation Can Be Had Than Solid Clay Soil—No Advantage in Using Rocks.

In making a cement feeding floor on ground underlaid with clay a few inches below the surface, remove the surface dirt down to its hard clay foundation. Then tap that down solid and level, and put on the concrete made of one part of Portland cement, two parts of clean, coarse, sharp sand and four parts of crushed rock or clean gravel, thoroughly mixed dry, then wet and remixed, right onto the clay.

No better foundation can be had than solid clay soil. There is no advantage in putting down rocks over solid clay, as they cause trouble in the future. Put down three or four inches of such concrete, and before it has set put down one inch of Portland cement to two parts of clean, coarse sand, mix and dry as before, then wet and remix carefully, and may be spread upon the coarser concrete.

This will make a durable floor. Rocks and sand below are not required, and are no use in a floor of this kind.

Lime and Sulphur Spray.

The lime and sulphur spray is expensive. It is disagreeable to make and to apply. But it clears the trees of a variety of germs and insects. The shothole fungus is dreaded by plum growers. Bordeaux mixture has been the remedy. It is effectual, but it requires time and several applications. One good treatment with lime and sulphur will do more to rid the trees of the disease than a season of spraying with Bordeaux. For this purpose, if for no other, the sulphur is to be recommended. Add to that the effect on the other ailments and it makes the treatment a valuable one for the plum grower.

Turnips and Watermelons.

Turnip seeds scattered among the watermelon vines after cultivation has ceased, will produce a good second crop on the land.

PRESIDENT SIGNS NEW TARIFF BILL

Leaders Told Currency Legislation Must Come Next.

Wilson Says Rest of Problem Is Chiefly Financial—Bill Becomes Law at Once.

Washington, D. C.—Surrounded by the leaders of a united Democracy, President Wilson signed the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill at 9:09 o'clock Friday night at the white house. Simultaneously telegrams were sent to customs collectors throughout the country by the treasury department, putting into actual operation the first Democratic tariff revision since 1894.

A happy group of legislators, members of the cabinet and friends encircled the president as he signed the bill, using two gold pens. He presented to Representative Underwood the pen that had written the word "Woodrow," and the one which had completed his name to Senator Simmons.

Amid impressive silence the president delivered in easy, natural tones an extemporaneous speech that brought prolonged applause.

He said that the journey of legislative accomplishment had only been partly completed; that a great service had been done for the rank and file of the country, but that the second step in the emancipation of business was currency reform. He earnestly called upon his colleagues to go "the rest of the journey" with fresh impulse.

"Gentlemen, I feel peculiarly pleased," the president began, "in what I have just done by taking part in the completion of a great piece of business. It is a pleasure which is very hard to express in words which are adequate to express the feeling, because the feeling that I have is that we have done the rank and file of the people of this country a great service.

"It is hard to speak of these things without seeming to go off into campaign eloquence, but that is not my feeling. It is a feeling of profound gratitude that, working with the splendid men who have carried this thing through with studious attention and doing justice all around, I should have had a part in serving the people of this country as we have been striving to serve them ever since I can remember.

"I have wished to see the accomplishment of something like this ever since I was a boy, and I know men standing around me who can say the same thing—who have been waiting to see the things done which it was necessary to do in order that there might be justice in the United States.

"And so it is a solemn moment that brings business to a conclusion and I hope will not be thought demanding too much of myself or colleagues when I say that this, great as it is, is the accomplishment of only half the journey. We have set the business of this country free from those conditions which have made monopoly not only possible, but in a sense easy and natural. But there is no use taking away the conditions of monopoly if we do not take away also the power to create monopoly, and that in a financial, rather than a merely commercial and economic power."

STEAMER SPOKANE HITS ROCKS

Passengers All Saved When 'S. O. S.' Is Answered By Oother Vessels.

Seattle, Wash.—Captain E. L. McNoble, superintendent of the Pacific Coast Steamship company, received a message late Friday night from Capsteamer Spokane, saying that all passengers were saved. They were transferred, says the message, from the Spokane to the steamer La Touche and will be brought directly to Seattle.

Portland, Or.—Wireless distress calls, caught at stations in Portland and at Corvallis Friday night at 10 o'clock, told of the rapid sinking of the steamship Spokane, 15 miles north of Cape Lazo, on the inside passage, about 100 miles north of Victoria, B. C., and off Vancouver island.

The steamer La Touche, of the Alaska Steamship company, was one of the first vessels to answer and at 10:30 was standing by and at 10:45 began taking off passengers from the ill-fated Spokane.

"Taking water fast, send all assistance possible," was one of the flashes received almost immediately after the first distress call, which read: "Steamer Spokane, 15 miles north Cape Lazo, wants assistance." The commander signed.

The steamer Dolphin and the steamer Minnesota also answered.

Mine Deaths Increase.

Washington, D. C.—Fatalities in the coal mines of the United States during the first seven months of the year numbered 1437, as compared with 1419 in the like period last year, according to reports to the bureau of mines here. Pennsylvania leads the list with 763 deaths, an increase of 193 over last year. Of these 380 were in the anthracite and 383 in the bituminous fields. West Virginia, with 181 deaths, shows a decrease of 72 over the fatalities in the first seven months of 1912. Then in order follow Ohio 99, Illinois 97, Alabama 55, Colorado 47, Indiana 32 and Tennessee 25.

Anti-Futures Campaign Open.

Washington, D. C.—On the heels of the failure of congress to legislate in the tariff bill to prevent gambling in cotton futures, Representative Harrison, of Mississippi, has introduced a resolution providing for an international campaign against such speculation. The resolution would request the president to negotiate with Great Britain and other nations with a view to formulating a plan to prevent cotton speculation. If the nations approached should agree the president would name a commission of three persons to represent the United States in further negotiations.

326-Year-Old Oak Felled.

Monmouth, Or.—In the year 1587, when Europeans were planting colonies in America, one of the oldest and largest white oak trees in Polk county began to grow. The massive oak, which has been cut down on the Whiteaker farm, two miles north of this city, was 326 years old, as estimated by counts of the rings. Its circumference was 18 feet, and the diameter about six feet. A short distance away stands another giant oak. Its circumference is 26 feet.

Banish All Skin Troubles

Remarkable Remedy That Works Wonders Against Eczema and All Rash

If you have been fighting some blood trouble, some skin disease, call it eczema, lupus, psoriasis, malaria, or what you will, there is but one sure, safe way to get rid of it. Ask at any drug store for a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. and you are then on the road to health. The action of this remarkable remedy is just as direct, just as positive, just as certain in its influence as that the sun rises in the East. It is one of those rare medical forces which act in the blood with the same degree of certainty that is found in all natural tendencies. The manner in which it dominates and controls the mysterious transference of rich, red, pure arterial blood for the diseased venous blood is marvelous.

Out through every skin pore acids, germs and other blood impurities are forced in the form of invisible vapor. Beneath the skin is a fine net work of nerves, a myriad of them in which S. S. S. works with untiring energy to prevent the further destructive work of the acids and blood impurities. These are scattered into the veins to be driven from the system. The lungs breathe it out, the liver is stimulated to consume a great proportion of impurities, the stomach and intestines cease to convey into the blood stream the catarrhal, malarial germs; the bowels, kidneys, bladder and all emunctories of the body are marshaled into a fighting force to expel every vestige of eruptive disease.

There is scarcely a community anywhere but what has its living example of the wonderful curative effects of S. S. S. Get a bottle of this famous remedy to-day, and if your case is stubborn or peculiar write to The Swift Specific Co., 160 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Their medical laboratory is famous and is conducted by renowned experts in blood and skin diseases.

Gross Carelessness.

MAKING HAIR GROW

It appears that in all the world there has been discovered one drug—and ONLY one—that actually stimulates to renewed action the follicles and cells that nourish the hair and thereby make it grow—even on bald heads. That drug is a standard article of commerce well known to the drug trade. The National Standard Dispensatory says it acts as a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair. Therefore even if you have tried a hundred kinds of hair tonic without that drug you have not proven that a hair tonic containing that drug will not make your hair grow. The best way is to mix your own tonic or have a reliable druggist mix it for you. Here is a formula that includes the drug referred to: Bay Rum, 6 oz; Menthol Crystals, ½ drachm; Lavona de Composee, 2 ounces. You can get these ingredients at any drug store. If you choose you may add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. Apply to the scalp with the fingers night and morning. This formula is recommended for falling hair and dandruff. It should make your hair grow. It is NOT in any sense a dye and contains no coloring matter whatever, but has a tendency to stimulate the pigment-secreting cells and thereby restore prematurely gray hair to its natural color.

Milk as Ration for Chickens.

Combine the dairy and poultry plants on the farm. In other words, feed the milk to the chickens. For fattening or for laying birds, there is nothing better. It does not make much difference, either, what kind of milk you give them. Sour and butter milk are as good as any, while Prof. Lippincott, head of the poultry department of the Kansas Agricultural college, gives the following as an excellent ration for fattening purposes: One part cornmeal, one part oat flour, one part barley meal, one part beef scrap, eight parts butter milk or skim milk. This makes what is called slop feed, as it is thin enough to pour.

ICY BLIZZARD WRECKS NOME

Flames Complete Destruction of Alaskan Mining Camp.

Gale Drives Raging Seas Into City Built Upon Sands—Food Supplies Are Destroyed.

Nome, Alaska—Following a night and day of terror, 24 hours of the worst Arctic storm that ever visited Alaska's most famous mining camp, flames started in the ruins of wrecked buildings and at last reports the city seemed doomed.

The Pacific Cold Storage plant, in which is stored the chief supplies of winter provisions, was burned. This plant contains virtually all of the meat in Nome.

It is impossible to cope with the flames. All of the fire-fighting apparatus was destroyed by the storm and the waterworks also is out of commission. The firehouses and their contents were swept away by the gale.

Front street is a seething mass of wreckage into which ice-laden seas are breaking.

Hundreds of homeless persons are struggling against wind and wave in an effort to collect enough food from the debris to sustain life for themselves and families for a day or two.

Receding seas are carrying away wrecked homes and store buildings with their contents.

None of the buildings on the spit, that part of the city virtually "built upon the sands," remain standing and a score of fires are blazing at different places in the ruins.

Persons who remained on the spit are unable to reach the mainland, as the high seas have made an island of that part of the camp.

Front street is a sea of floating debris. Not a house is standing on this thoroughfare.

More than 500 homes and business buildings are destroyed.

Telephone and electric light service are out of commission. Newspapers and other plants depending on electric power have suspended.

It is estimated that the loss will reach $1,500,000.

So great was the destruction of provisions that it is feared a famine will follow.

Men and women, standing waist deep in the icy waters of Bering Sea, labored all night in an effort to save some of their household goods.

Sweeping in from the sea, the wind backed water and ice above the foundations of all houses in Front street. The gale completed the destruction, and by morning not a building was standing on the water front.

Suffering from the cold was intense, although no loss of life has been reported.

All small boats in the harbor were piled on the beach and destroyed. The steamers Victoria and Corwin escaped by running to the open sea.

OFFICERS GRAB FINE HATS

Under New Tariff Law Women Lose Plumage.

New York—With the passage of the new tariff, the customs officer has had thrust upon him a new and disagreeable office. He must tear out the aigrettes and plumage of foreign birds that women passengers are wearing in their hats when they arrive in American ports.

When the Underwood bill went into effect Monday a score of women on the French liner Lorraine were subjected to this treatment. Their indignation was so great they could not contain themselves.

Try as they might, the customs men were unable to make the women see they were only carrying out orders and disorder and confusion prevailed. This probably will be the rule, steamship men say, every time an inspector steps aboard a vessel.

The customs men got busy also on the Campania, which arrived later. A collection of birds of Paradise was found in short order by the inspectors. The trunks of the women passengers were raked for them.

The plumage seized will be turned over to the appraisers, who will set a price on each piece and send word to the owners, who will be permitted to return them to the dealer from whom they were bought. If anything goes wrong with this program and the feather stay here, the traveler will be guilty of smuggling.

King May Be Dethroned.

Munich—The newspapers declare that the Bavarian government has revived its plan for dethroning King Otto of Bavaria and placing the Prince Regent, Ludwig, on the throne. This course was suggested at the time of the death of the old king last year, but Prince Ludwig vetoed the movement. The government has now introduced a bill for increasing the Prince Regent's civil list, hoping thereby to convince the members of the clerical party that it would be cheaper to place him on the throne.

Women Demand Prayers.

London—Because the clergy do not include women in their prayers a party of suffragettes interrupted the morning services at Westminster Abbey last Sunday morning by chanting a prayer for the women now in prison. The party rose as the litany was being recited and ignored a request to desist from singing. At the conclusion the women left the abbey quietly. Addressing a crowd outside, one of them said: "This is nothing to what will happen unless women are included in the clergy's prayers."

Spanish Balloonist Killed.

Barcelona, Spain—At a balloon ascension here a spectator accidentally was caught in a guide rope and was carried up. The aeronaut in an attempt to assist him, fell out of the basket and was killed. The spectator maintained his grip on the rope and landed unhurt.

Robber Band Loots Bank.

Fort Smith, Ark.—After a rifle battle with several citizens Wednesday, a band of robbers, who had looted the vaults in the First State bank at Dardenelle, Ark., escaped. There were said to have been eight men in the band. The robbers secured approximately $4,000, according to a statement from the bank officials. The robbers have succeeded in eluding half a dozen posses which are scouring the country.

Get Rid of Scale.

Oyster shell scale is not always removed by the lime-sulphur spray. But the Dominion Experimental farm at Ottawa, Can., has shown by actual test that a good whitewashing will succeed where the spray fails. Forty pounds of lime, 40 gallons of water and eight pounds of salt make up the recipe. Spray on the tree just after the leaves fall, and again as soon as the first wash has dried. The scales will loosen up from the bark and fall off. This will not do away with the need of the lime-sulphur spray for San Jose scale, but is additional.
