MOSIER EXHIBITS WIN PRIZES

Mosier fruit won several blue and red ribbons at the county fair at The Dalles last week. C. A. McCargar won first prize on a five box exhibit of Spitzenbergs, and second prize on single box.

John Carroll won first prize on a single box exhibit of Newt wns. Lee Evans won first and second prizes on his exhibit of Ortleys.

Arthur Kuhn is justly proud of his display of White Dent field corn, which took first prize over about 25 other displays of 50-ear lots.

For a number of years Mosier has neglected to send any exhibits to The Dalles fairs. This has not hurt The Dalles, but has lost to Mosier much publicity and free advertising. The awards prove what we at home know, that our products can't be excelled anywhere and we should embrace every opportunity to let the outside world know it. We make a big mistake when we don't.

Ortley Items

Col. Cornelius Gardener, wife and little daughters, Martha and Barendina, who have been spending the summer at the Ortley Inn, have moved to Portland for the winter. Col. Gardener expects to build a modern residence on his orchard tract at Ortley next spring.

The Hood River Orchard Land Co. have recently completed a first class city water works system at Ortley, at considerable expense, by installing a deep well with electric power pumping plant, which furnishes an immense supply of water for everyone at Ortley. The well was driven by P. L. Kretzer, of The Dalles, an expert well driller.

Mrs. E. E. Lane and Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh spent last week in Hood River, where they attended the federation of women's clubs.

The Ortley Inn grounds have been greatly improved of late by having a cement walk installed around the building, together with suitable walks in front of the hotel.

Prof. Robt. C. French, secretary of the Instruction Department of the Y. M. C. A., Portland, accompanied by Mrs. French, visited Ortley recently.

Mrs. E. C. Tooley, of Portland, paid a two weeks' visit to her son, Fred, during the latter part of September.

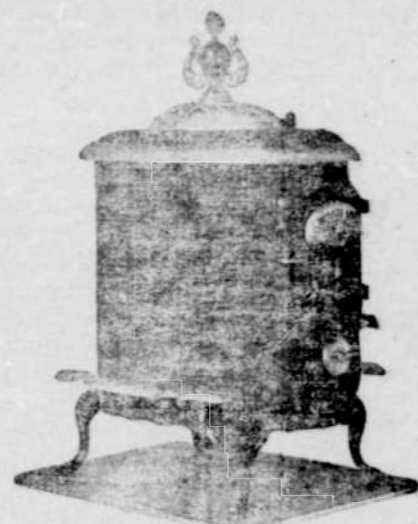

Mrs. Husbands and two children, of Portland, who has been visiting at Ortley with her sister, Mrs. R. R. Firebaugh, recently returned home.

Mr. A. W. Gardener, son of Col. Gardener, who, with his family, spent the summer at Ortley, has left for his home in the Isle of Pines, where Mr. Gardener is engaged in raising grape fruit and alligator pears for the New York market.

SCHOOL NOTES

By the Editors.

Caroline Anderson and Carl and Walfred Shuholm, business men of Portland, have made week-end visits at the Ortley Inn recently.

Mrs. Carter, of Portland, who spent a pleasant week with her cousin, Mrs. E. E. Lane, has just returned to her home.

The lawn tennis court on the Ortley Inn grounds has provided amusement and healthful exercise for many of the residents during the warm summer days.

Mr. W. G. Faust, an experienced chicken fancier of Ortley, won first prize with his display of fancy Black Minorcas at The Dalles Fair, last week.

The Friday Reading Circle held their first regular meeting last Friday evening. Topic, The Story of Oregon. Notwithstanding several of the members were away, they had a very interesting meeting.

The enrollment this week has greatly increased over the last two days of last week, but there are still several pupils absent, who are working in the orchards. The Mosier school children had several fine exhibits at the county fair, and in spite of the short time for preparation, they succeeded in capturing two blue ribbons and one red. All of the exhibits have not been received yet, and it is possible that there are other prizes not yet awarded. Caroline Seacore took first prize on a dress, and O. E. Osburn took a blue ribbon on a traction engine model. We are certainly proud of our winners.
