Col. Cornelius Gardener, of Portland and Ortley, was in town last Saturday and made the Bulletin office a pleasant call. The Col. is backing the movement to install a tramway from Ortley to Rowena, and stated that operations would probably begin in the spring. The tramway, which will be a freight and express proposition chiefly, will greatly reduce the cost of transportation from railroad points to Ortley.

MOVING PICTURES POSTPONED

Wm Rudolf, who has been conducting a moving picture show in Chown's Hall for the past month, has concluded to discontinue the business until health conditions here are better than at present. It is expensive to make two trips a week from White Salmon, and the patronage he has received since opening here is hardly sufficient to justify the outlay. He stated that he would try it again later in the season.

NOTICE!
Hides bought on consignment. Bring your hides to the Bulletin office.

NOTED SPEAKER COMING

Mosier people will have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weathered, in Chown's Hall, next Monday night, who will speak on Good Roads and Community Interests. Mrs. Weathered has a nation-wide reputation as a public speaker and lends to her discourses a most pleasing manner of expressing herself and an earnestness of purpose which captivate, entertain, enlighten and convince her audiences.

Mrs. Weathered is peculiarly well qualified to speak on the subject of good roads and community interests, as she has given much time and thought to these problems—problems in which every citizen should be particularly interested, as they are of vital importance to the progress and prosperity of every community.

The lecture will be free, and it is hoped that the speaker will be welcomed by a crowded house.

Go to the Dance in Chown's Hall tomorrow night.
