Notice

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mosier Valley Telephone Co., a corporation, will be held in Lamb's Hall, Mosier, Ore., on Tuesday, January 13th, 1914, at 10 A. M., for election of directors, and other business as may properly come before such meeting. DAVID ROBINSON, Secy.

Mrs. L. M. Cary, of Springbrook, Ore., is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Chown, and family.

T. C. Danielson, of Spokane, is visiting here this week with his brother, H. W. Danielson, and family.

The holidays are over. Now is the time to start spring sewing. See our stock of gingham, percales, Ripplette, etc. Strauss.

C. R. Hage, a railroad man of South Bend, Wash., after a visit here with his cousins, C. A. and Otto Hage, left the first of the week for Portland, accompanied by Otto Hage.

Did you ever notice how well and quickly I fill special orders for goods not in stock? Try me before you send another order out of town. No order too small for my painstaking attention. Strauss.

The young folks of the town and neighborhood enjoyed a very pleasant dance last night at the recently completed home of Clair Bailey—a kind of housewarming.

Several accidents happened yesterday. One of our prominent townsmen fell on the icy pavement in front of the Waldorf-Mosier hotel and broke one of the Commandments and his New Year resolutions. Also our dairyman's cow slipped on a banana peel and severely strained her milk.

Don't

Don't drink whiskey and poison your system. Don't drink beer and contract Bright's disease. Don't take patent medicine and keep yourself sick. Don't fail to drink Hage's Pasteurized Cider and note the result. At Hage's cider plant; also at "The Oaks." [Mr. Hage brought a sample of his cider to our office and we must admit it's the best and healthiest soft drink we ever tasted.—Ed.]

Ortley Items

How about that New Year Resolution? Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler, who recently came from Minnesota, arrived at Ortley a few days ago, where they will make their home, having purchased an orchard here. Ortley enjoyed a white Christmas, there being 11 inches of snow on the ground. Col. Cornelius Gardener and family, of Portland, are spending the Holidays at the Ortley

Inn. Geo. R. Loomis, of Summerland, Cal., who has been visiting his son Bert for about a month, returned home a few days ago.

Everyone enjoyed the Christmas tree at the school house on Wednesday evening, where a large crowd gathered.

Mrs. F. M. Firebaugh, of Hood River, spent Christmas Holidays here with her sons and daughter, Mrs. B. D. Loomis.

Miss Jessie Skinner, of Boise, Idaho, spent the week at Ortley, the guest of Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh.

J. S. Potter, Principal of Barrett School, Hood River, spent Christmas here with friends.

Miss Mabel Bennett, of Kalama, and Miss Alice Bennett, of Mosier, spent Christmas with Mrs. E. E. Lane.

H. W. Dean and wife, of Dufur, are spending several days visiting their son, W. G. Faust. Mr. and Mrs. Dean have been taking an extended trip visiting their children. They will return home from Ortley.

W. W. McClure, representing the Realty Associates of Portland, is a business visitor in the city today.

The little and big folks have enjoyed the fine coasting and sleighing during the past week.

Of interest to every community in the Columbia basin is the coming fifth annual meeting of the Columbia and Snake Rivers Waterway Association, which will be held in Portland April 13-14, 1914. The Portland Chamber of Commerce is backing the movement and it is expected the coming convention will eclipse all others in the number of delegates assembled and in the importance of the subjects discussed. Wallace R. Struble, manager of the commercial club at Lewiston, Idaho, will devote all his time from January first to the date of the meeting to visiting cities in the Columbia Valley and in arousing interest in a subject which is of such vital interest to the entire Northwest.
