MOSIER GRANGE REORGANIZED

After lying dormant for several years, Mosier Grange has taken on new life, thereby showing to the world that progress still lurks in the minds of the inhabitants of this apple growing section, exemplifying the saying, "Show me a good grange and I will show you a prosperous community."

Twenty-seven of the staunch farmers and fruit growers appeared in Lamb's Hall Tuesday afternoon and from them the officers were selected. They were: C. J. Littlepage, Master; Thos. Gordon, Overseer; A. M. Koop, Treasurer; James Mead, Steward; Geo. Mathews, Assistant Steward; Mrs. R. M. Littlepage, Lady Steward; J. P. Carroll, Chaplain; A. Behrens, Gate Keeper; Mrs. James Mead, Pomona; Miss Ruth Clement, Flora; Mrs. A. B. Burton, Ceres; Mrs. E. C. Clement, Lecturer; M. L. Clement, Secretary.

There were eleven who had signed to become members who were unable to attend on account of urgent business. The present total membership is 38.

Lectures from prominent men, speeches pertaining to the farm, songs, readings, recitations by the children, etc., will be features of the next meeting, which will be held in Lamb's Hall tomorrow afternoon. The public will be admitted during the lecture hour.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ENJOYS SMOKER

An elegant repast, a sociable smoke and a general good fellowship were the features of the meeting of the Mosier Commercial Club, held in the spacious dining room of the Mosier Hotel, last Monday night. The host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd, outdid themselves in their culinary art and in the decorations, which were of Oregon Grape.

A few new faces were welcomed at the festive board. The time was passed most pleasantly and harmony reigned supreme. The chairman, J. K. McGregor, made a speech which filled everyone with enthusiasm, as did also the secretary, Dr. Robinson.

Nine directors were elected, and from this number one will be chosen to fill the office of president of the club. The meeting for this purpose will be held by the directors tonight.

A Suggestion

EDITOR BULLETIN:

Having received a very poorly written letter from one of our customers, and on the following day receiving a well written letter from a little girl relative in one of the Eastern states, I am led to make a suggestion to the teachers of our public school, as follows—(this is just a suggestion): Teach letter writing, and teach it every day; do your best to get the scholars to write plainly, to guard against mis-spelled words, poorly arranged sentences and poor punctuation.

A well written letter coming from a scholar, speaks volumes both for the scholar and the faithful teacher.

F. N. AUSTIN.

Once more are we obliged to call the attention of our anonymous correspondent to the fact that his name must be signed to his notes, if he wishes them published. As a reward for inserting his notices heretofore, this writer very kindly offers his assistance with any office work; but, probably in a fit of mental abstraction, he forgot to sign his name. Now we need help every once in a while, but we don't know, in this instance, upon whom to call. Probably if our anonymous writer is a subscriber to this sheet, or if he reads his neighbor's paper, he might "take a tumble to himself" when he sees this.

ANXIOUS MOMENTS.

If you carry an unreliable timepiece, you have a good many such moments. If your watch needs attention bring it to us. We can truthfully say you will be more than pleased with our work.

Dependable work and satisfied customers are our best advertisements.

WORKMAN SUICIDES

D. S. Dilla, an old man who, until recently, had been working at odd jobs about the depot, committed suicide last Saturday, in Astoria, by hanging himself.

County School Superintendent Clyde T. Bonney, of The Dalles, spent several days here this week visiting the Mosier school and schools in the neighboring districts.

THAT NEWSPAPER LAW AGAIN

We are again reproducing this article for the benefit of some of our subscribers who are saying what negligent about paying their back subscriptions, and we earnestly request that you send or bring in your arrears without delay. If you have kept your receipt for the last payment, you know how much you owe. If you haven't, you can easily find out by inquiry at this office.

We do not anticipate being forced to invoke this law, as we believe there are no "dead beats" on our list, and that our delinquent subscribers have merely forgotten when their subscriptions expire, or have been negligent about attending to it. We have trusted our subscribers, just as we have been trusted, but if they don't "come thru" how in thunder can we "make good"? It's simply a matter of "you help me and I'll help the other fellow." So Come thru—we need the money.

The supreme court of the United States recently made a ruling which in substance makes the subscriber who takes his paper out of the post office and refuses to pay the subscription, guilty of felony and as liable to arrest as any other who defrauds says the Olympia Independent.

The following is a synopsis of the U. S. supreme court decision regarding delinquent subscriptions and is published as a matter of information for all those who are subscribers to newspapers:

- 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription.
2. Subscribers ordering the discontinuance of their periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearage has been paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodical from the postoffice, they are responsible until they settle their bill and order their paper discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and papers are sent to former address, subscribers are responsible.
5. Courts have decided that refusing periodicals from the office or moving and leaving them uncollected is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of time if they do not want to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with payment is sent to the publisher.

EDITOR BULLETIN:

There is a rumor that the county is building a road south-east of Mosier to cost $10,000. By construction of said road, Mosier will lose some of its best trade; whereas, if a small per cent of said sum was spent on a short piece of road to the Vessel ranch, we could hold the trade—our natural trade—which otherwise will go to The Dalles. No one seems to care what becomes of our trade in the south and east portions of the district. It is just another case of what Mosier is letting slip by, all for lack of concerted action. We will wake up too late, I fear.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

All voters are required to register. This means YOU. All former registrations are invalid. 1912 registration was ineffective after January 1st, 1913, and the 1913 registration law was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, so if you wish to vote at any election held in the future you will have to register. The registration books will be open until the 1st day of May next. All electors living in Dalles City or in precincts that are partly in Dalles City must register at the County Clerk's office. All electors living outside of Dalles City may register at the County Court House or with the register in their respective precincts.

If you are not registered on or before the registration books close you may swear in your vote on election day, but it will greatly facilitate matters if you register and save you lots of trouble of getting some one to sign up for you on election day. SO REGISTER. DO IT NOW. LEST YOU FORGET.

Shattered His Idol.

Swinburne's admiration for the scenery inspired the walk which every morning, wet or fine, he took across Putney common. It led also to visitors to see the poet walk.

One modest admirer, says the London Chronicle, traveled far to catch a glimpse of Swinburne in the flesh and, having read of the poet's habits, visited the hostelry at which he called each morning in passing. There sat the literary denigard reading the Pink 'Un, a flashy, low grade paper. But worse followed.

Said the pilgrim to the girl behind the bar, "I suppose you know that is Swinburne, the great poet?" Came the answer, "Yes; I've heard so. But he isn't much good to us. He only drinks beer."
