MOSIER DISTRICT HIGHLY PRAISED

Former Resident Has Faith in Future of District.

The following letter was received recently in response to one written by L. A. Mathews, who had evidently commented favorably on the present condition and future prospects of the Mosier district. The writer, R. M. Ross, a former resident of Mosier, still has property interests here and has a lively interest in the prosperity and advancement of this section, as is evident from his letter, part of which we here quote:

"I am very glad to hear such good news of Mosier. I have never had any doubt about the intrinsic values of Mosier property nor that they would ultimately be shown. I feel that the district will make a mistake, however, if the growers do not arrange to maintain an exhibit at Frisco next year, at least until the middle of the summer, showing apples raised in 1914 and not kept in cold storage. It would be seen by hundreds of thousands of people and I doubt very seriously whether there would be another exhibit of similar character. Any man seeing such a display and having any leanings toward horticulture would certainly look up a district that could produce that class of fruit before investing very heavily anywhere else. When you get a chance, talk it up."

This is a proposition which it behooves every fruitgrower, every farmer, the fruit growers association, the local grange, the business men, the commercial club and every resident in the district to agitate and keep agitating until definite and satisfactory arrangements are made for a creditable display of fruits of the Mosier District at the 1915 Fair.

Wedded in Mosier

A quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's brother, R. J. Taylor when Miss Ess Taylor of Lawrence Kas., and Mr. Carl Pohlman of Ellsworth, Kansas were made man and wife, the Rev. J. G. Tate officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and a few invited guests witnessed the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Portland.

Miss Blackburn Surprised

A large number of Miss Grace Blackburn's school friends surprised her last Friday evening the occasion being her birthday. A very pleasant time was had and the party broke up at a late hour, wishing her many returns of the day.

Important to Citizens

We call attention of our townspeople to city ordinance No. 4, which is printed in this issue, and at once becomes operative and would suggest that everyone secure and preserve a copy of the Bulletin containing said ordinance that he may become thoroughly acquainted with its provisions.

AN OBSERVER IS OBSERVING

And This Observer Being Observing, Asks Questions.

An observer asks, "Why is it that the pupils of the Mosier school are not required to salute the American flag, mornings and evenings, as it floats over the school grounds. What is the flag there for, if not to teach patriotism to the child—to inculcate in the pupil a love and reverence for his country and his country's flag? Also, the same observer asks, why is the fire drill not practiced regularly, as required by law? So far as can be learned, there have been but two or three fire drills since the beginning of the school term, last September. There may be good reason for this, but it is not in accordance with the school law, which states that each school having an average daily attendance of 50 or more pupils, shall devote not less than thirty minutes in each month "to instruct and train the pupils, by means of drills, so that they may, in sudden emergency, be able to leave the building in the shortest possible time and without confusion or panic." It is very important that pupils, particularly the younger ones, should have a thorough knowledge of the fire drill, as it has been proven times without number that many lives have been saved in school house fires by the promptness and efficiency with which the pupils put their knowledge of the fire drill to the test.
